The early show with the best personalities gets the audience

By Jacqueline Cutler

Cover story

When people tune in to morning news shows, they aren't just watching. They're brewing coffee, applying makeup, exercising and checking the clock every few minutes to see if it really is that late.

"You're inviting these people into your home, and they want you to like them personally," says Mike Ludlum, professor of broadcasting at New York University and a former TV and radio journalist, who's served as head writer at "Good Morning America." "They want it to be warm and fuzzy, and that's not everyone's cup of tea."

Still, the TV is on. And most people are aware that Katie Couric is breaking in another pair of killer shoes, Ann Curry is reading the news, and maybe Matt Lauer is in some exotic locale. To the chagrin of ABC and CBS, most people who watch the morning news shows know this because they're watching NBC's "Today."

The season average, to date, for morning news shows has 5,297,000 households waking up with NBC, 3,952,000 households tuning to ABC and 2,143,000 watching CBS, says a Nielsen Media Research spokesman.

As far as ABC is concerned, that's great news, because just a year ago, its numbers were worse. "In not much more than a year, that gap was halved," says Antonio Mora, news anchor for "GMA."

That show was revitalized when Diane Sawyer and Charles Gibson teamed up. The studio also was changed. Now these shows all boast huge windows showing Manhattan streets choked with tourists holding up homemade signs. Each also has a male and a female host, a news anchor, a cheerful weather forecaster, a chef, a household wizard, a fitness guru, and a medical reporter.

On Oct. 2, NBC plans to launch a three-hour version of "Today," and "Later Today" will move to its affiliate stations. ("Today" executives were unavailable for comment.) CBS and ABC have no plans to expand their programs.

Aside from the planned time difference, the morning news shows are similar.

"Everyone is copying the successful aspects of the other, and except for the personalities, there's not a big difference," says Russ Ptacek, president of NewsTV Corp., a Kansas-based broadcast news-gathering service that monitors newsmagazine shows.

If anyone sees more than the recommended daily allowance of television, it's Ptacek. So what does this professional viewer think makes a morning show shine?

"You have to master the art of infotainment," he says. "It's that strange breed of journalist who is also a performer, combined with guests that are arguably newsworthy, but more importantly, can bring in the ratings."

Steve Friedman, senior executive producer of "The Early Show" and former executive producer of "Today," says a morning show has four jobs:

"Tell people what happened between the time they went to bed and the time they get up — if the world ended, have a beer, relax. Give people something they can use in their own lives — health, money, what movie is coming out. Give people something to talk about as they spend the rest of their day. And you have to give people something to smile about. Getting up, going to work, getting the kids ready is a very stressful time."

"Morning news is gestalt in the excess," Friedman says. "The sum is always greater than the sum of its parts."

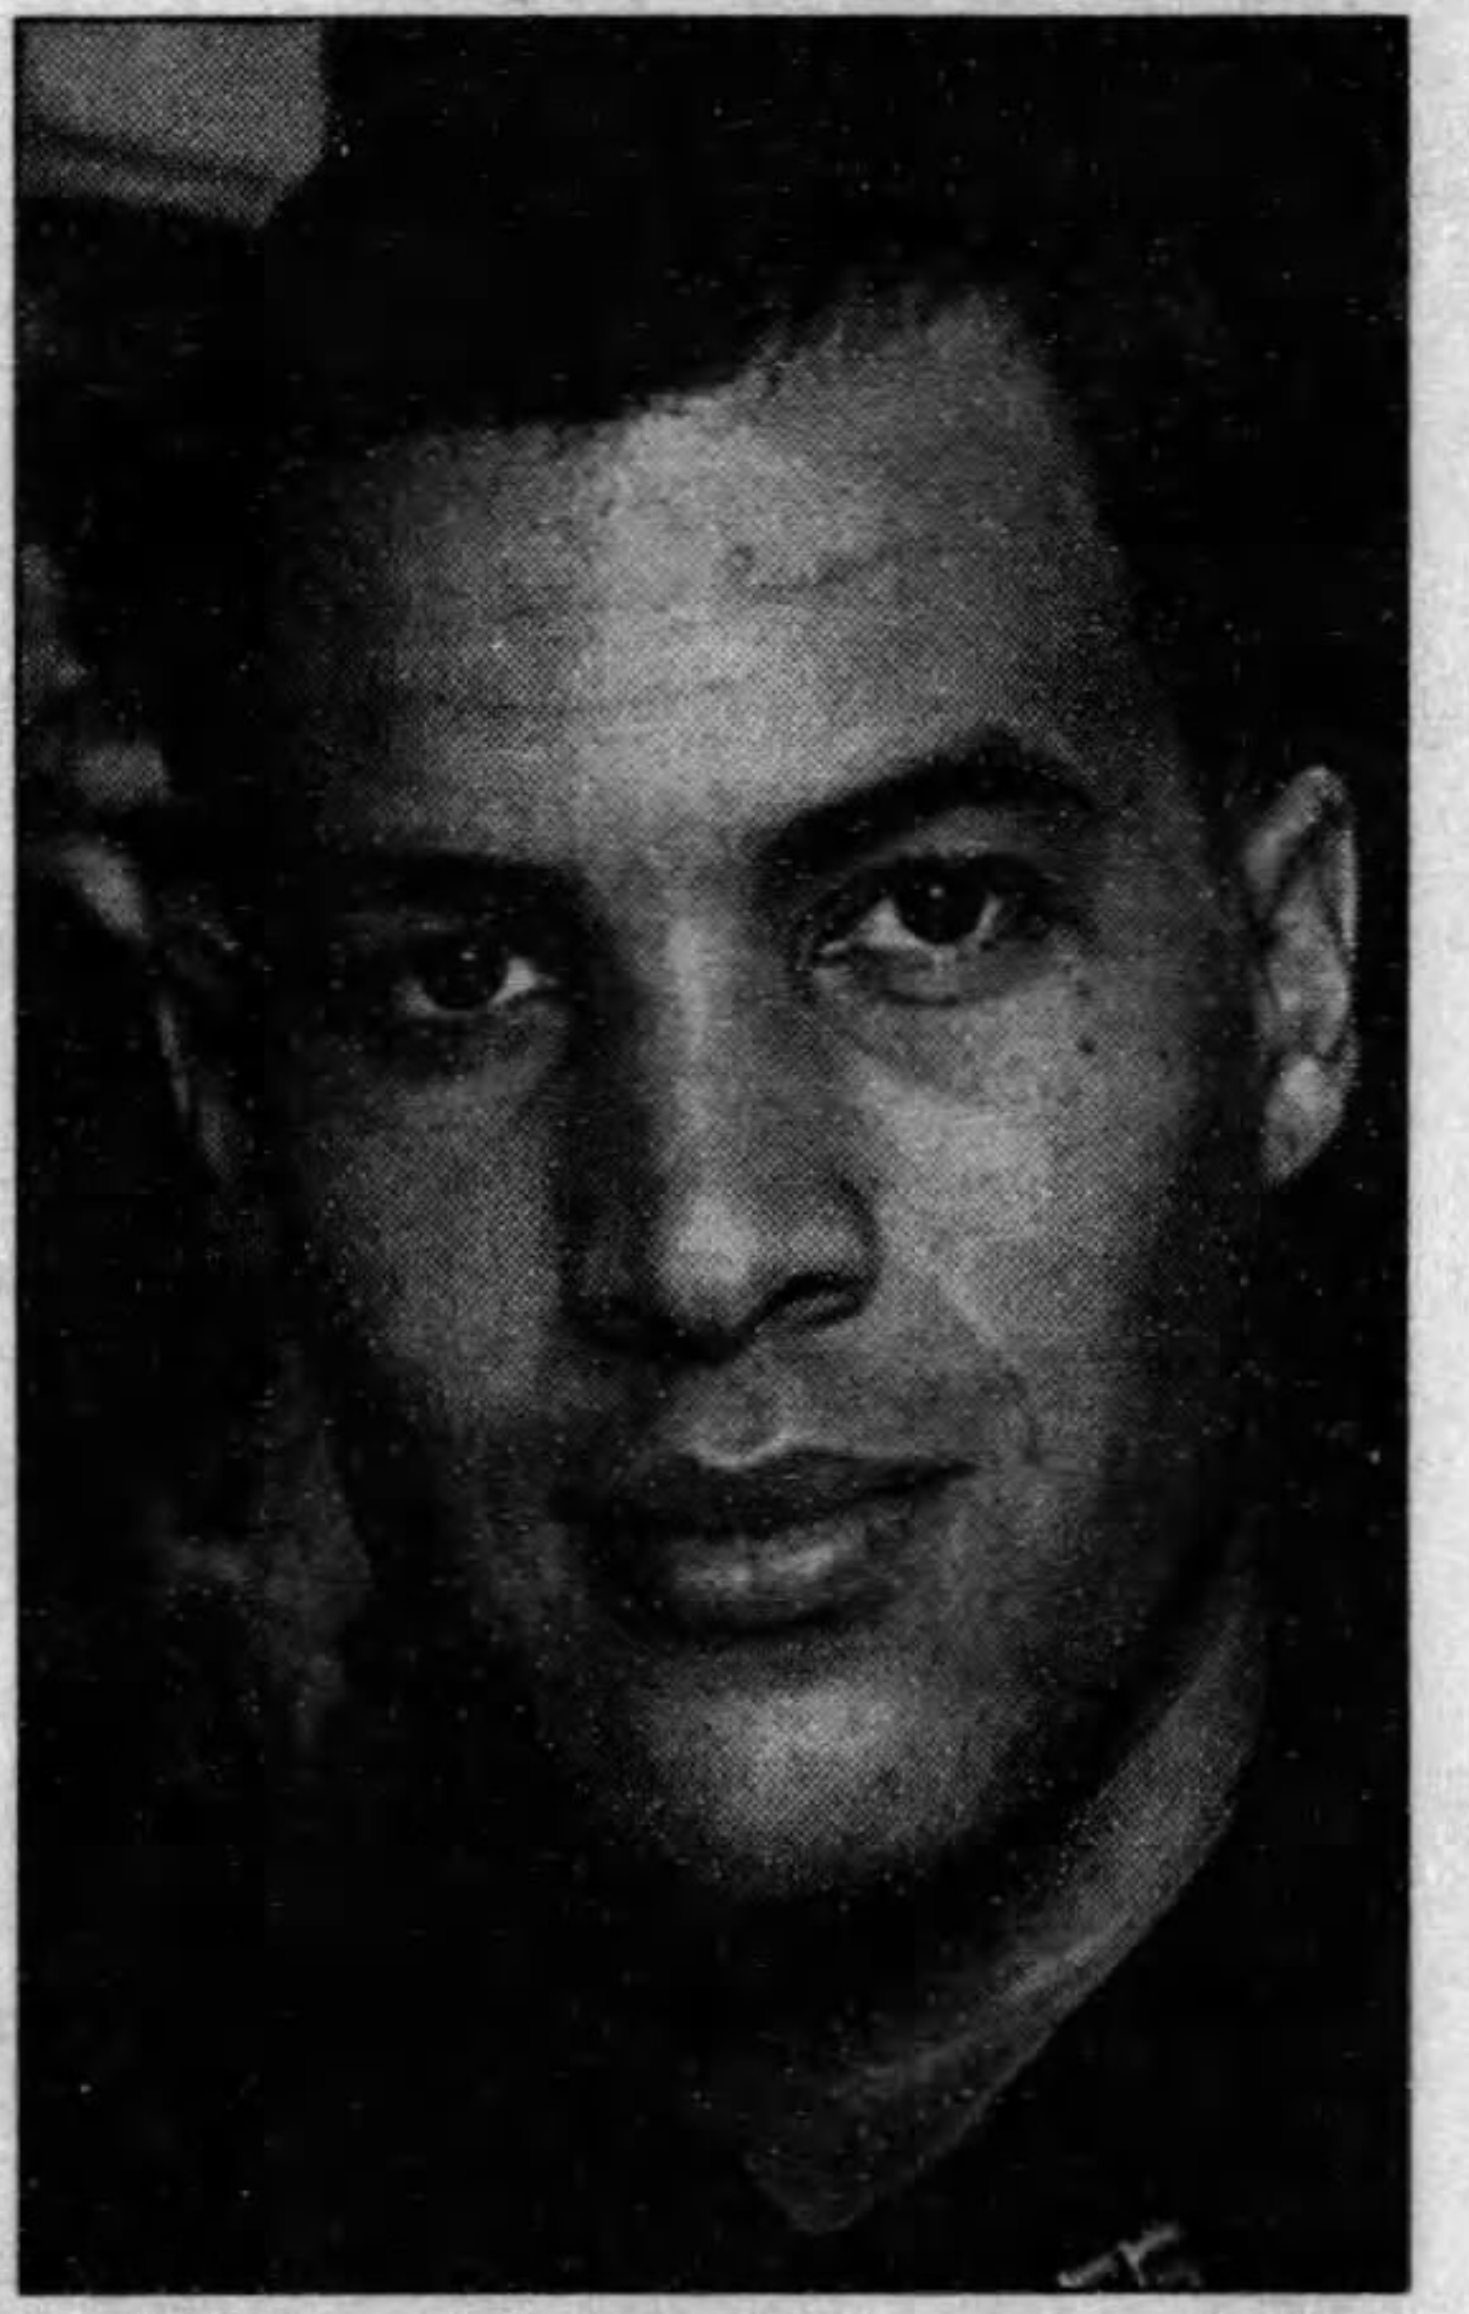
Bell of 'Third Watch' was in 'L.A. Doctors'



Coby Bell
THIRD WATCH

Pipeline

By Taylor Michaels

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Coby Bell, who plays Officer Ty Davis Jr. on "Third Watch," looks familiar. Have I seen him in any movies or TV shows? -Melissa Gicherma, Giessen, Germany.

You may remember Bell from his featured role as Patrick Owen on "L.A. Doctors," the ill-fated 1998-99 CBS medical drama.

The son of Broadway veteran Michel Bell, the young actor scored a 1987 guest spot on "ER" just a few months after graduating with honors from San Jose State University in California. That hit show's creator, John Wells, remembered Bell when he was casting "Third Watch."

Bell has also made guest appearances on "Buffy the Vampire Slayer" and "Smart Guy."

A singer like his dad, Bell often enjoys weekend jam sessions with his "Watch" castmates Anthony Ruivivar, Skipp Sudduth and Jason Wiles. He is single but has a steady girlfriend who is not in show business.

We thought John Schneider did a great job hosting the Memorial Day concert from Washington, D.C., but what happened to Ossie Davis, who originally was announced as host? -Rita Bobbio, Oroville, Calif.

Davis was forced to withdraw at the last minute due to illness. Schneider was an 11th-hour substitute.

Some years ago a famous singer was raped in a motel. I think it was Connie Stevens, but my friend insists it was Connie Francis. Who is right? -Monique Clayton, McAlester, Okla.

Your friend is. Connie Francis, now 61, was raped at knifepoint at a Howard Johnson motel following a 1974 appearance at the Westbury Music Fair in New York.

She reportedly received a multi-million-dollar award after suing the hotel chain for failing to provide adequate security.

Soap Synopsis

All My Children

Edmund and Dimitri shared a touching reunion. Tad told Dixie he turned down a lucrative job offer to spend time with her and the boys. Edmund convinced Alex not to go with Charlotte. He also neglected to tell her Dimitri was still alive. Jack realized he remembered Elliot from Statesville Prison. Ryan was placed in a difficult position when Greenlee asked him to spend the night. Adrian discovered Dimitri was alive and tried to convince Charlotte he wanted to work with her. Stuart accepted Marilyn's offer to help him get his memory back. Tad accepted the job after all, and worried about telling Dixie.

As the World Turns

Lily depended on Simon's survival skills to cope with life on the island. Holden returned to town and tried to salvage his marriage. Molly tried to stick to her promise to Jake, but discovered Lily was very persuasive. Emily was caught in her own web of lies. Julia discovered what Jack was doing.

The Bold and the Beautiful

Morgan told Clarke that she had slept with Ridge and Taylor didn't know. Sally tried to stop Thorne from giving Macy the divorce papers. Macy begged Brooke to stop interfering in her marriage. Thorne did give Macy the divorce papers and she tore them up. Eric demanded that Thorne end things with Brooke. Macy decided to leave town and asked Thorne to meet her.

Days of Our Lives

Eric was stunned when he saw the porn video with Nicole's picture on the front of it. Victor and Nicholas had a violent confrontation over Kate. Lexie was deeply concerned over the health of Hope's baby. Hope wondered why she was unable to bond with her son. Nancy was horrified when Chloe said Philip was taking her to the dance. Nicole feared the worst when she went to the hospital for some medical tests. Kate tried to convince Nicholas that she was in love with Victor.

General Hospital

Sonny and Carly made love at the island retreat. A.J. charmed Hannah into forgiving him. Tony and Lucas caught Bobbie and Roy in a compromising position. Mac had to bail Laura out of trouble again. Helena was convinced Mac was trying to frame Luke. Monica confided to Bobbie that she might be pregnant. When Juan kissed Alison, Emily began flirting with an older stranger.

Guiding Light

Reva and Noah made love. Josh learned Noah was hiding something significant. Rick and Abby reached an exciting decision. Edmund helped Cassie, but he still had some tricks up his sleeve. Claire's interference threatened Rick and Abby's future.

One Life to Live

Ben helped Viki deal with the side effects of her chemotherapy. Todd and Ben didn't get along. Blair gave Skye truth serum to find out where she hid her confession. Joey and Kelly fought over her decision to pose as Rae's daughter. Kevin was put in a difficult position when Joey asked him for advice about Kelly. R.J. dropped his lawsuit and told Roseanne he had a better idea for revenge against Bo. Blair left Max for good, after he refused to choose between Blair and Skye.

Passions

Hank refused to tell Sam he was in trouble. Whitney wondered why Chad had her picture on his wall. Tabitha gave Charity a pendant that made her susceptible to the dark forces. Sheridan wanted to know why Hank was carrying a gun. Hank was stunned when Charity had a premonition about his shady life. Luis told Sheridan he believed Alistair or Julian killed his father. Sam was annoyed when Ivy dropped by and offered to be a chaperone for the prom.

Port Charles

Frank tried to convince Neil that he was not responsible for Frank and Courtney's problems. Scott and Lucy realized their relationship was in real danger. Alison spent the evening with Jamal after her friends forgot her birthday. A sickly Rachel accused Kevin of trying to poison her. Ian began to suspect Jill was HIV-positive. Joe was relieved when he learned the results of his HIV test. Ian examined Rachel and ordered an immediate appendectomy.

The Young and the Restless

Everyone was shocked when Mac was picked as prom queen over Brittany. After their dance as king and queen of the prom, Billy and Mac kissed. Nina was surprised when Tomas reacted positively to her story outline. Victoria was devastated when she learned her mother was working at Jabot. Mac discovered Jill had been digging into her past. Ashley accepted Brad's offer to be her childbirth coach. Ryan told Victor he wanted to work with Victoria.

Sunday's Best Bets

Auto Racing

12 p.m. on ABC

Juan Montoya will be among the racers to watch at the CART FedEx Championship Series Grand Prix of Cleveland. Montoya's CART season got off to a slow start, but the defending Indy 500 champion got his game together with a dominating performance last month in the Miller Lite 225 in Milwaukee. Last year, Montoya won seven times as a rookie, including here in Cleveland, on his way to the overall championship.

PGA Golf

2 p.m. on ABC

Brent Geiberger tees off as defending champion in the final round of the Greater Hartford Open. The tournament has provided fans in Connecticut with a chance to see top PGA players make history, dating back to the first GHO in 1952. Arnold Palmer even gained his first U.S. victory at this event in 1956 and became the tournament's first two-time winner four years later. Another first occurred last year as Geiberger held off Skip Kendall for his first PGA win.

Movie: To Brave Alaska

6 p.m. on ABC

Roger and Denise (Cameron Bancroft, Alyssa Milano) want to go where it's warm: the South Seas. First, though, they go someplace cold — a gold mine in Alaska — to build up their bank accounts. But financing their dream quickly takes a back seat to surviving their present nightmare of freezing cold, no food and no contact with the outside world. Duncan Frasier also stars in this 1996 adventure based on a true story.

AUTO RACING

The Simpsons

7 p.m. on FOX

In "Tree House of Horror X," the just-ended season's Halloween anthology, Bart and Lisa gain superpowers after X-raying their treats, and the Y2K bug stings the nuclear plant, thanks to Homer. The obligatory movie parody is a spoof of "I Know What You Did Last Summer," with Ned Flanders as the victim.

Movie: Murder in a Small Town

7 p.m. on A&E

Gene Wilder is co-writer and star of this mystery set in the then-small town of 1930s Stamford, Conn. He plays Cash Carter, a theater director who puts his people-reading skills to use as an amateur detective when an unpleasant local tycoon is murdered. Mike Starr plays Cash's police lieutenant friend who asks him to help solve the case. Cherry Jones and Frances Conroy also star. Wilder's second Cash Carter mystery, "The Lady in Question," follows.

New show reunites 'ET' hosts?

Talk the Talk

Rob Weller says he loves cable TV.

This is evident in all the cable channel shows he and partner Gary Grossman produce, including A&E Network's "Biography" and "Top 10" (Weller also hosts the latter); Discovery Channel's "Interior Motives"; and HGTV's "The Carol Duvall Show," "Smart Solutions" and "Star Gardens."

Weller predicts the line between cable and the Big Four networks will eventually blend.

"The network people will start to steal the cable programmers," he says. "There are about 34 people in the business who keep moving from place to place, and the cable people are a valuable commodity."

Weller says he thinks the cable industry really figures out what viewers want to see, but he hasn't given up on the networks.

Weller/Grossman is currently developing some shows for syndication, including — you guessed it — a talk show. Would he host?

"Hmmm ... if we were producing it ... it's important to have control," he says. "Look at Oprah Winfrey (and) all she's done for the business, women, topics, the book business. ... She's a dynamo. That's the benchmark, and unless you could do it that way, I don't know."

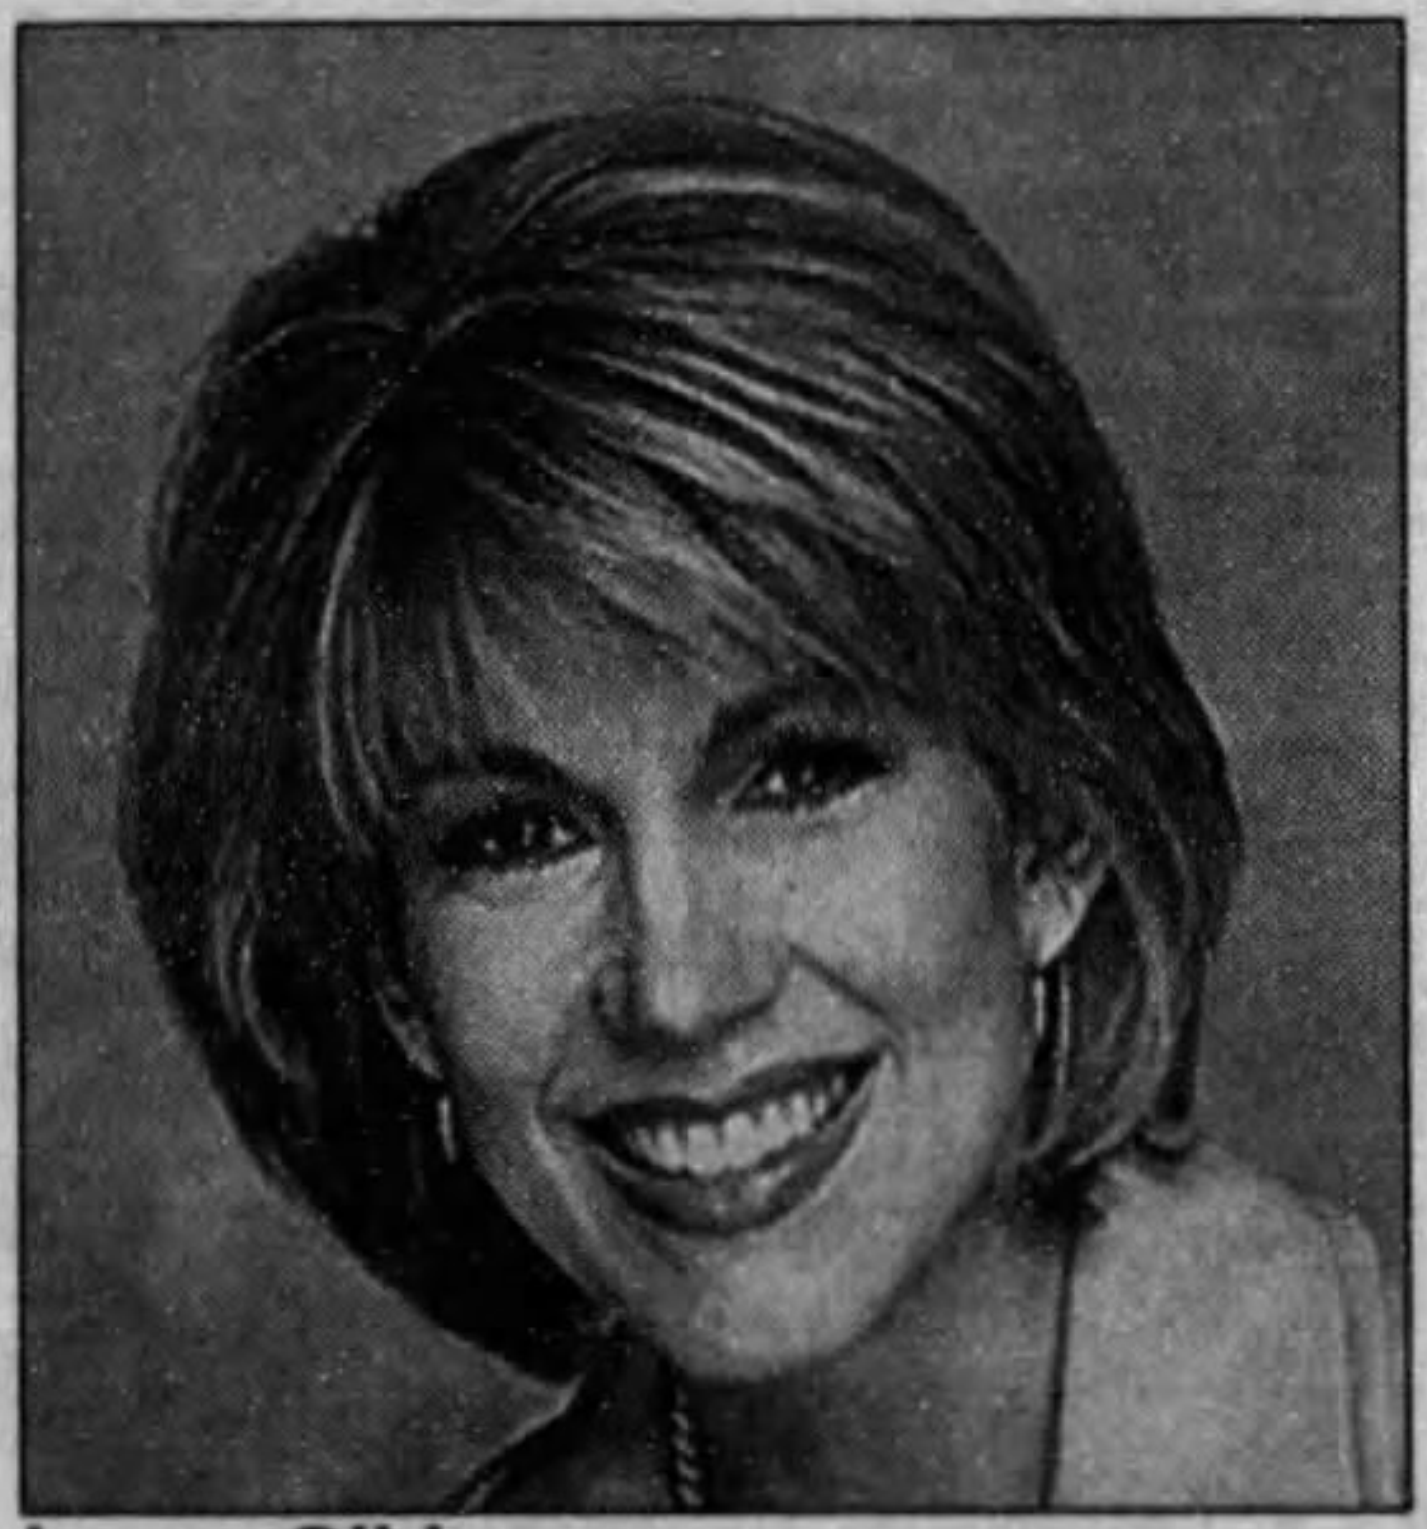
He won't give any details on the new show other than to say it deals with therapeutic issues.

When reminded that his former "Entertainment Tonight" co-host, Leeza Gibbons, is also developing a therapy-related talk show, Weller seemed interested. What if the two combined efforts?

"I'd love to work with Leeza," Weller says.

Although it appears the trend is toward therapy shows, the troubles of existing psychology-based shows might serve as a warning.

"The Dr. Joy Browne Show," the first show hosted by a bona fide psychologist, garnishes less than stellar ratings. And Dr. Laura Schlessinger, whose show isn't even on the air yet, has taken a major hit from activists who don't appreciate her anti-gay remarks. She's already lost sponsors.



Leeza Gibbons

The creators of AfterCare, the intervention program offered on several shows to guests in need, are developing a national service to all talk shows.

A couple of shows offer their troubled guests the opportunity to go into treatment at selected therapy centers at no cost. The goal of AfterCare is to create a franchise of treatment centers around the country where guests and viewers could go for help.

Monday's Best Bets

Intimate Portrait

6 p.m. on LIFE

"Judy Collins" profiles one of the queens of the 1960s folk music revival, a versatile artist who didn't fade into the woodwork when the nation's musical tastes changed. Maybe that's because hers were eclectic from the beginning, encompassing Broadway and the Beatles as well as traditional and contemporary folk. In addition to music, she's also acted onstage and in film and co-produced an Oscar-nominated documentary. Alec Baldwin narrates the hourlong chronicle of her career triumphs and personal tragedies, including the suicide of her only son. Interviewees include feminist leader Gloria Steinem, entertainer Joan Rivers and President Bill Clinton — whose choice of a name for his daughter was inspired by Collins' rendition of Joni Mitchell's "Chelsea Morning."

Major League Baseball

6:35 p.m. on TBS

The Atlanta Braves and their vaunted pitching staff face the up-and-coming Montreal Expos, a team led by two of the National League's top players. Get used to the names Vladimir Guerrero and Jose Vidro, because they'll be around for a while. Guerrero, 24, is already a superstar. He set seven offensive club records last season, and he hasn't slowed down one bit with the bat this year.

Marin Hinkle
ONCE AND AGAIN

The King of Queens

7 p.m. on CBS

Doug (Kevin James) loses his money and then his cool when he and Deacon (Victor Williams) head to Atlantic City, N.J., without telling their wives. The lost money is no big deal to Doug; he figures it's just karmic payback for lying to Carrie (Leah Remini) about the trip. But when Deacon begins a winning streak, Doug cries foul. Jerry Stiller also stars in "Wild Cards."

City Confidential

8 p.m. on A&E

The murder of a young mother exposes an ugly side of a beautiful city in "New Orleans: Betrayal in the Big Easy." Kim Groves died in 1994 after witnessing a case of police brutality and filing a complaint against the officer. He happened to be Len Davis, center of a ring of corrupt cops supplementing their salaries with drug deals and payoffs enforced by violence.

Once and Again

9 p.m. on ABC

In "The Mystery Dance," there's still hope for Rick and Lily's (Billy Campbell, Sela Ward) relationship as they pick up the pieces and try to put it back together. Even Judy (Marin Hinkle) is feeling hopeful these days; a new man (guest star Steven Weber, "Wings") has her daring to dream that her single years may be over soon.

Tuesday's Best Bets

Pops Goes the Fourth! 2000

6:30 p.m. on A&E

The Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra continues a tradition begun in 1929 with its annual Fourth of July concert on the banks of the Charles River. Keith Lockhart conducts the orchestra in the customary program of patriotic melodies that includes, a sing-along, Sousa's infectious "The Stars and Stripes Forever," and Tchaikovsky's rousing "1812 Overture."

JAG

7 p.m. on CBS

Harm's first case upon returning to JAG is politically touchy and virtually unwinnable: defending a young lieutenant (Tony Crane) — whose father happens to be secretary of the Navy. The charge: disobeying an order at sea. The accuser: Cmdr. Burke (James Pickens Jr.), who's been making the young lieutenant's life miserable on general principle for some time.

3rd Rock From the Sun

7 p.m. on NBC

"Dick and Tuck" may remind you of that "Twilight Zone" episode in which lovely Donna Douglas plays a misfit in a world of uglies. Dick (John Lithgow) consults a plastic surgeon (guest star David Hasselhoff) who turns out to have a warped idea of beauty; he's underwhelmed by Sally (Kristen Johnston) and considers Harry (French Stewart) a perfect specimen. Jane Curtin also stars.

3RD ROCK FROM THE SUN

Movie: Footloose

7 p.m. on TNT

Noted mainly for the number of top 10 hits on its soundtrack, this old-fashioned musical drama from 1984 stars Kevin Bacon as free-spirited city boy Ren, who moves to the country and discovers the one town in the United States where dancing is forbidden. John Lithgow ("3rd Rock From the Sun") plays the uptight local minister, and Lori Singer portrays Ren's love interest. Sarah Jessica Parker ("Sex and the City") also stars.

Macy's 4th of July Fireworks Spectacular

8 p.m. on NBC

Why should Boston and Washington have all the fun? And why should Macy's host a national holiday celebration only on Thanksgiving? "A New Millennium: Beyond the Dream" is the theme of this giant Fourth of July fireworks show from New York. In addition to the fireworks at several locations around the city, the special includes a gathering of tall ships and Navy vessels and performances from the Broadway revivals of "Kiss Me, Kate" and "The Music Man."

Wednesday's Best Bets

Dawson's Creek

7 p.m. on WB

In "Stolen Kisses," the opener of a "Dawson" doubleheader, a spring-break trip to the mountains has its tense moments for the gang, especially Joey and Pacey (Katie Holmes, Joshua Jackson), who are still trying to sort out their feelings for each other. Then "The Longest Day" offers three different characters' takes on the fireworks that ensue when Pacey and Joey go public. James Van Der Beek and Meredith Monroe also star.

Big Brother

8 p.m. on CBS

Think "Survivor" without the island wildlife. This new reality series puts 10 strangers in a California house where cameras record their every move. They have indoor plumbing, but few other modern conveniences. As in "Survivor," a participant is voted out each week, but the audience gets to choose whom to boot out from two nominees selected by the housemates.

Great Streets

8 p.m. on PBS

Stop and smell the roses — and admire the architecture, and watch the people, and soak up the local color. This five-part miniseries offers armchair walking tours of some of the world's best-known thoroughfares. In "Fifth Avenue With Brian Stokes Mitchell," the Tony-winning star of "Kiss Me, Kate" hikes the famed Manhattan street from Greenwich Village to Harlem, visiting, among other things, Harry Winston's jewelry studio and the New York Public Library. Later episodes take viewers to Italy, Scotland, France and Los Angeles.

Benjamin Bratt
LAW & ORDER

Junkyard Wars: Power Pullers

8 p.m. on TLC

The silly British series returns with more contests pitting teams of amateur tinkerers against each other to build machines from junkyard parts. In "Power Pullers," the teams' assignment is to create a working tractor, with the resulting creations competing in a tractor pull. Will they be lean, mean machines or junkyard dogs?

Law & Order

9 p.m. on NBC

Benjamin Bratt, now departed from the series, gave one of his best performances in last season's "Empire" with his real-life sweetie, Julia Roberts, as guest star. A tycoon dies of a heart attack after overdosing on a drug designed to enhance sexual performance, and McCoy and Carmichael smell a crime. They ask Detective Curtis (Bratt) to help them establish a motive — although he's putting his personal life and career in jeopardy by taking the stand after an innocent but incriminating stint guarding a key witness.

Thursday's Best Bets

riends

p.m. on NBC

"The One That Could Have Been" inds the friends speculating on hat their lives would be like if hey'd made different choices. In his alternate universe, Ross (David chwimmer) is still with Carol Jane Sibbett), Phoebe (Lisa udrow) is on Wall Street, Monica Courteney Cox Arquette) has kept he weight on, and Joey has kept his Days of Our Lives" gig.

Movie: The Frighteners

p.m. on FOX

A hearse-chasing ghostbuster (Michael J. Fox) becomes the prime suspect when previously healthy people in his town start dropping dead from heart attacks. He induces his own temporary death to travel to the other side with three ghostly buddies and find the real killer. Trini Alvarado, Jake Busey, Jeffrey Combs and John Astin also star in this 1996 thriller.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

The 1996 profile "Jim Carrey: The Joker's Wild" profiles the crazed Canadian who went from struggling stand-up comic to superstar in just a few short years. Not everything he's touched has turned to gold — critics hated "Dumb & Dumber," while audiences cut off "The Cable Guy" — but he continues to be full of surprises, such as his affecting work in "The Truman Show" and "Man on the Moon."

FRIENDS

Broken Child

7 p.m. on HBO

Child abuse often begins before the victim is even born, in the form of drug or alcohol abuse by the pregnant mother. And when does it end? In many cases, never, as the abused child grows up to abuse his own offspring. Actress Susan Sarandon narrates this disturbing documentary on the subject, which asks whether the cycle can be broken before more innocent bodies and souls are. Michael Mierendorf ("Without Pity: A Film About Abilities") is the producer, writer and director.

Will & Grace

8:30 p.m. on NBC

Joan Collins joins the cast in the recurring role of Helena Barnes, a renowned interior designer who's Grace's hero. She's also a friend of Karen's — and, we might add, they're perfect for each other — so you'll be seeing more of her. In this one, Grace discovers the mutual-friend connection to Helena and the fact that they're competing for the same job. Jack seeks Will's (Eric McCormack) help with a new project: the Subway Tush (don't ask) in "My Best Friend's Tush."

Friday's Best Bets

Melina Kanakaredes
PROVIDENCE

Providence

7 p.m. on NBC

Syd (Melina Kanakaredes) has a case that's very close to home: her little niece, Hannah (Emily and Elena Bodkin), who Joanie (Paula Cale) fears may have caught tuberculosis from one of Jim's (Mike Farrell) animal patients. Robbie (Seth Peterson) is in the middle of another family crisis — not his own. Heather and her mom (Dana Daurey, Victoria Principal) are at odds over Heather's marriage plans.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Raymond Burr: The Case of the TV Legend" profiles the actor best remembered for his long tenure as television's favorite legal eagle, Perry Mason. The hour sheds some light on the real-life mysteries surrounding the private Burr, a generous man who loved wine, art, flowers and children.

Movie: King Kong

7 p.m. on AMC

Forget Godzilla. The granddaddy of all movie monsters is the unforgettable Kong. Fay Wray, Bruce Cabot and Robert Armstrong are the human stars of the 1933 classic about a giant ape brought down by human greed and his own soft spot for a certain blond beauty. But the real star is the great beast himself, who remains impressive even by today's special-effects standards. The film anchors an evening of "Gorilla Thrillas" that also includes the 1933 sequel "Son of Kong"; 1949's "Mighty Joe Young," another ape-in-the-city tale; and 1961's "Konga," the story of a good chimp gone bad.

Movie: The English Patient

7 p.m. on TNT

Nine Oscars, including best picture, went to this lush adaptation of Michael Ondaatje's World War II novel. Ralph Fiennes plays the title character, a mapmaker for the Allies who is badly burned in a plane crash over North Africa. On his deathbed, he flashes back to a heart-wrenching story of intrigue and doomed love. The 1996 drama also stars Kristin Scott Thomas, Willem Dafoe, Colin Firth and Juliette Binoche, who took home the best supporting actress Oscar.

Making the Band

8:30 p.m. on ABC

Now that the roster is finalized, it's time for O-Town to buckle down. Currently it seems everyone's preoccupied with the band members' appearances — experimenting with new looks and capturing them on film in an endless cycle of makeovers and photo shoots. And while all five of them are thrilled to be in the band, they're starting to realize just what they need to sacrifice to go to the top.

Saturday's Best Bets

Major League Soccer

12:30 p.m. on ESPN

The MetroStars have their work cut out for them when they travel to Kansas City, Mo., to take on the Wizards in Major League Soccer action. The 'Stars sport one of the league's top scorers in Adolfo "El Tren" Valencia but have otherwise struggled on offense.

Golf

3 p.m. on NBC

The golf skills of a gallery of stars are on display in Lake Tahoe, Nev., during the second round of the 11th annual American Century Celebrity Golf Championship. More than 70 sports and entertainment figures, including John Elway, Jerry Rice, Mario Lemieux, Jack Wagner, Ray Romano and Bryant Gumbel, compete for a total purse of $500,000. Former major league pitcher Rick Rhoden has won this event five times, including last year by a whopping nine strokes. NBC airs the final round on Sunday.

Movie: Pacific Heights

5:15 p.m. on MAX

"Fatal Attraction" meets "The Money Pit" in this 1990 thriller. Matthew Modine and Melanie Griffith play a yuppie couple with a three-family house whose newest tenant is more than a deadbeat. He not only stiffs them on the rent but trashes the place, fills the neighbors' unit with roaches and commits other unspeakable acts, all aimed at forcing them into foreclosure.

GOLF

Movie: Ground Control

7 p.m. on ABC

Air traffic controllers confront every imaginable disaster, from bad weather to overcrowded skies to equipment breakdowns, on a turbulent New Year's Eve in Phoenix. Kiefer Sutherland plays a controller who quit after a devastating crash but reluctantly comes in to help on this nasty night. Robert Sean Leonard, Kelly McGillis, Henry Winkler and Michael Gross also star in this low-budget, high-anxiety 1998 drama.

Freaks and Geeks

7 p.m. on NBC

The dramedy about 1980s high-school life ends its freshman season with a three-episode mini-marathon. In "Smooching and Mooching," Sam is shocked to discover that his newly unattached cheerleader pal, Cindy, wants more than friendship. In "The Little Things," Sam's new romance hits a snag, and a vice presidential visit gives Lindsay a lesson in real-world politics. Finally, in "Discos and Dragons," Nick dates a dancing queen, Lindsay considers following the Grateful Dead, and Daniel gets sucked into a Dungeons and Dragons game with the geeks. Seth Rogen also stars.

Baseball's All-Star Game heats up Atlanta's summer sky

By Josh Greene

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

It's surprising to think some people consider baseball's All-Star Game a simple exhibition.

They argue the game statistics don't mean anything, and the results have no effect on the pennant chases. But to others, the All-Star Game is a precursor to bigger things later in the season.

Carl Hubbell and Ted Williams would agree with the latter.

New York Giants pitcher Hubbell went from striking out future Hall of Famers Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Jimmie Foxx, Al Simmons and Joe Cronin in succession at the 1934 All-Star Game to posting 21 wins for the season.

Williams' bottom-of-the-ninth, game-winning three-run homer gave the American League a win in the 1941 Midsummer Classic. That was the same year the Splendid Splinter became the last man to top the .400 mark, finishing with a .406 average.

What will this year's Midsummer Classic preview? You'll have to take your seats to find out.

From Turner Field in Atlanta, the 71st annual Baseball All-Star Game airs Tuesday, July 11, on NBC. Bob Costas and Joe Morgan take to the broadcast booth to call the game.

In a veritable who's who of the sport, baseball's biggest names take the field to settle the ongoing question: Which league is better?

Atlanta Braves manager Bobby Cox has a mixed bag to look forward to at this year's game. Not only does he get to coach the National Leaguers, he gets to do it at his home ballpark.

"I'm sure he can think of worse scenarios," National Baseball Hall of Fame spokesman Jeff Idelson says, "like having to manage at Yankee Stadium."

Cox is all too familiar with the opposition's manager. AL skipper Joe Torre led the New York Yankees past the Braves in last year's World Series.

The biggest new face in the National League is a familiar powerhouse with an ever-present grin who came over from the American League during the off-season. Star center fielder Ken Griffey Jr. gets his first NL All-Star start.

Griffey's defection makes the game's home-run derby potential a one-league affair. With him and sluggers such as Mike Piazza, Chipper Jones and Mark McGwire on the same team, you don't have to look far for power.

The AL counters with stars including 1998 All-Star Game MVP Roberto Alomar, Cal Ripken Jr. and Ivan Rodriguez.

The great thing about the All-Star Game is that sometimes it's the guys you don't expect to come through who end up winning the game.

"(The American League) certainly doesn't have the number of prodigious home-run hitters that the National League does," Idelson says, "but in any given game, baseball has proven that any player is capable of hitting a home run, especially in the All-Star Game."

Hot starts by "unknown" All-Stars such as Jermaine Dye, Carl Everett and Jim Edmonds have earned them spots on their respective All-Star teams and worldwide exposure.

"The new names every year help build a new fan base," Idelson says. "The fact they pick someone from each team also helps to keep every team's fans interested.

Alexander is a 'NewsRadio' alumna

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

I loved the HBO miniseries "The Corner." What can you tell me about Khandi Alexander, T.K. Carter and Sean Nelson? -C.B., Evanston, Ill.

Alexander and Carter have been around for years, in several movie and TV projects.

She was a series regular on the sitcom "NewsRadio," leaving when she grew frustrated with her character's story lines. She also has a high-profile recurring role on "ER" as the sister of Eriq La Salle's Dr. Peter Benton.

Alexander has toured in the stage musical "Chicago" and has lent her voice to the animated series "Spawn." Her many film credits include "There's Something About Mary," "Terminal," "What's Love Got to Do With It" and "Harlem."

Carter, who began performing as a stand-up comic at the age of 12, has been a regular on "The Sinbad Show," "Jem," "Punky Brewster" and "Just Our Luck" and made guest appearances on "NYPD Blue," "The Steve Harvey Show," "A Different World," "Family Matters" and "Good Times." His movie credits include "A Rage in Harlem," "Space Jam" and "My Favorite Martian."

By comparison, young Nelson is a relative newcomer who first attracted serious attention in the title role of the 1994 movie "Fresh." He also had strong screen performances in "American Buffalo," "Stranger in the Kingdom" and "The Wood."

He has appeared on the TV series "The Client," "New York Undercover," "Homicide: Life on the Street" and "Law & Order."

I seem to be the only one who remembers a TV series called "Honey West." Who starred in it, and when did it air? -J.P., Harlingen, Texas.

Anne Francis played Honey West, who took over her father's private-eye business after his death.

The character first appeared in an April 1965 episode of "Burke's Law," where Francis made enough of a sensation to get her own series the following fall. However, the unusually sophisticated show ran on ABC for only a single season.

Sunday's Best Bets

Movie: The Adventures of Pinocchio

6 p.m. on ABC

Jonathan Taylor Thomas ("Home Improvement") stars as the puppet boy who comes to life and gets into big trouble in this 1996 adaptation of the classic tale. Oscar winner Martin Landau ("Ed Wood") plays Geppetto, Pinocchio's creator and father. In this version, the wooden kid gets to play matchmaker for his adoptive dad, who has been carrying a torch for the lovely Leona (Genevieve Bujold) for decades. Bebe Neuwirth ("Cheers") also stars.

Movie: Legends of the Fall

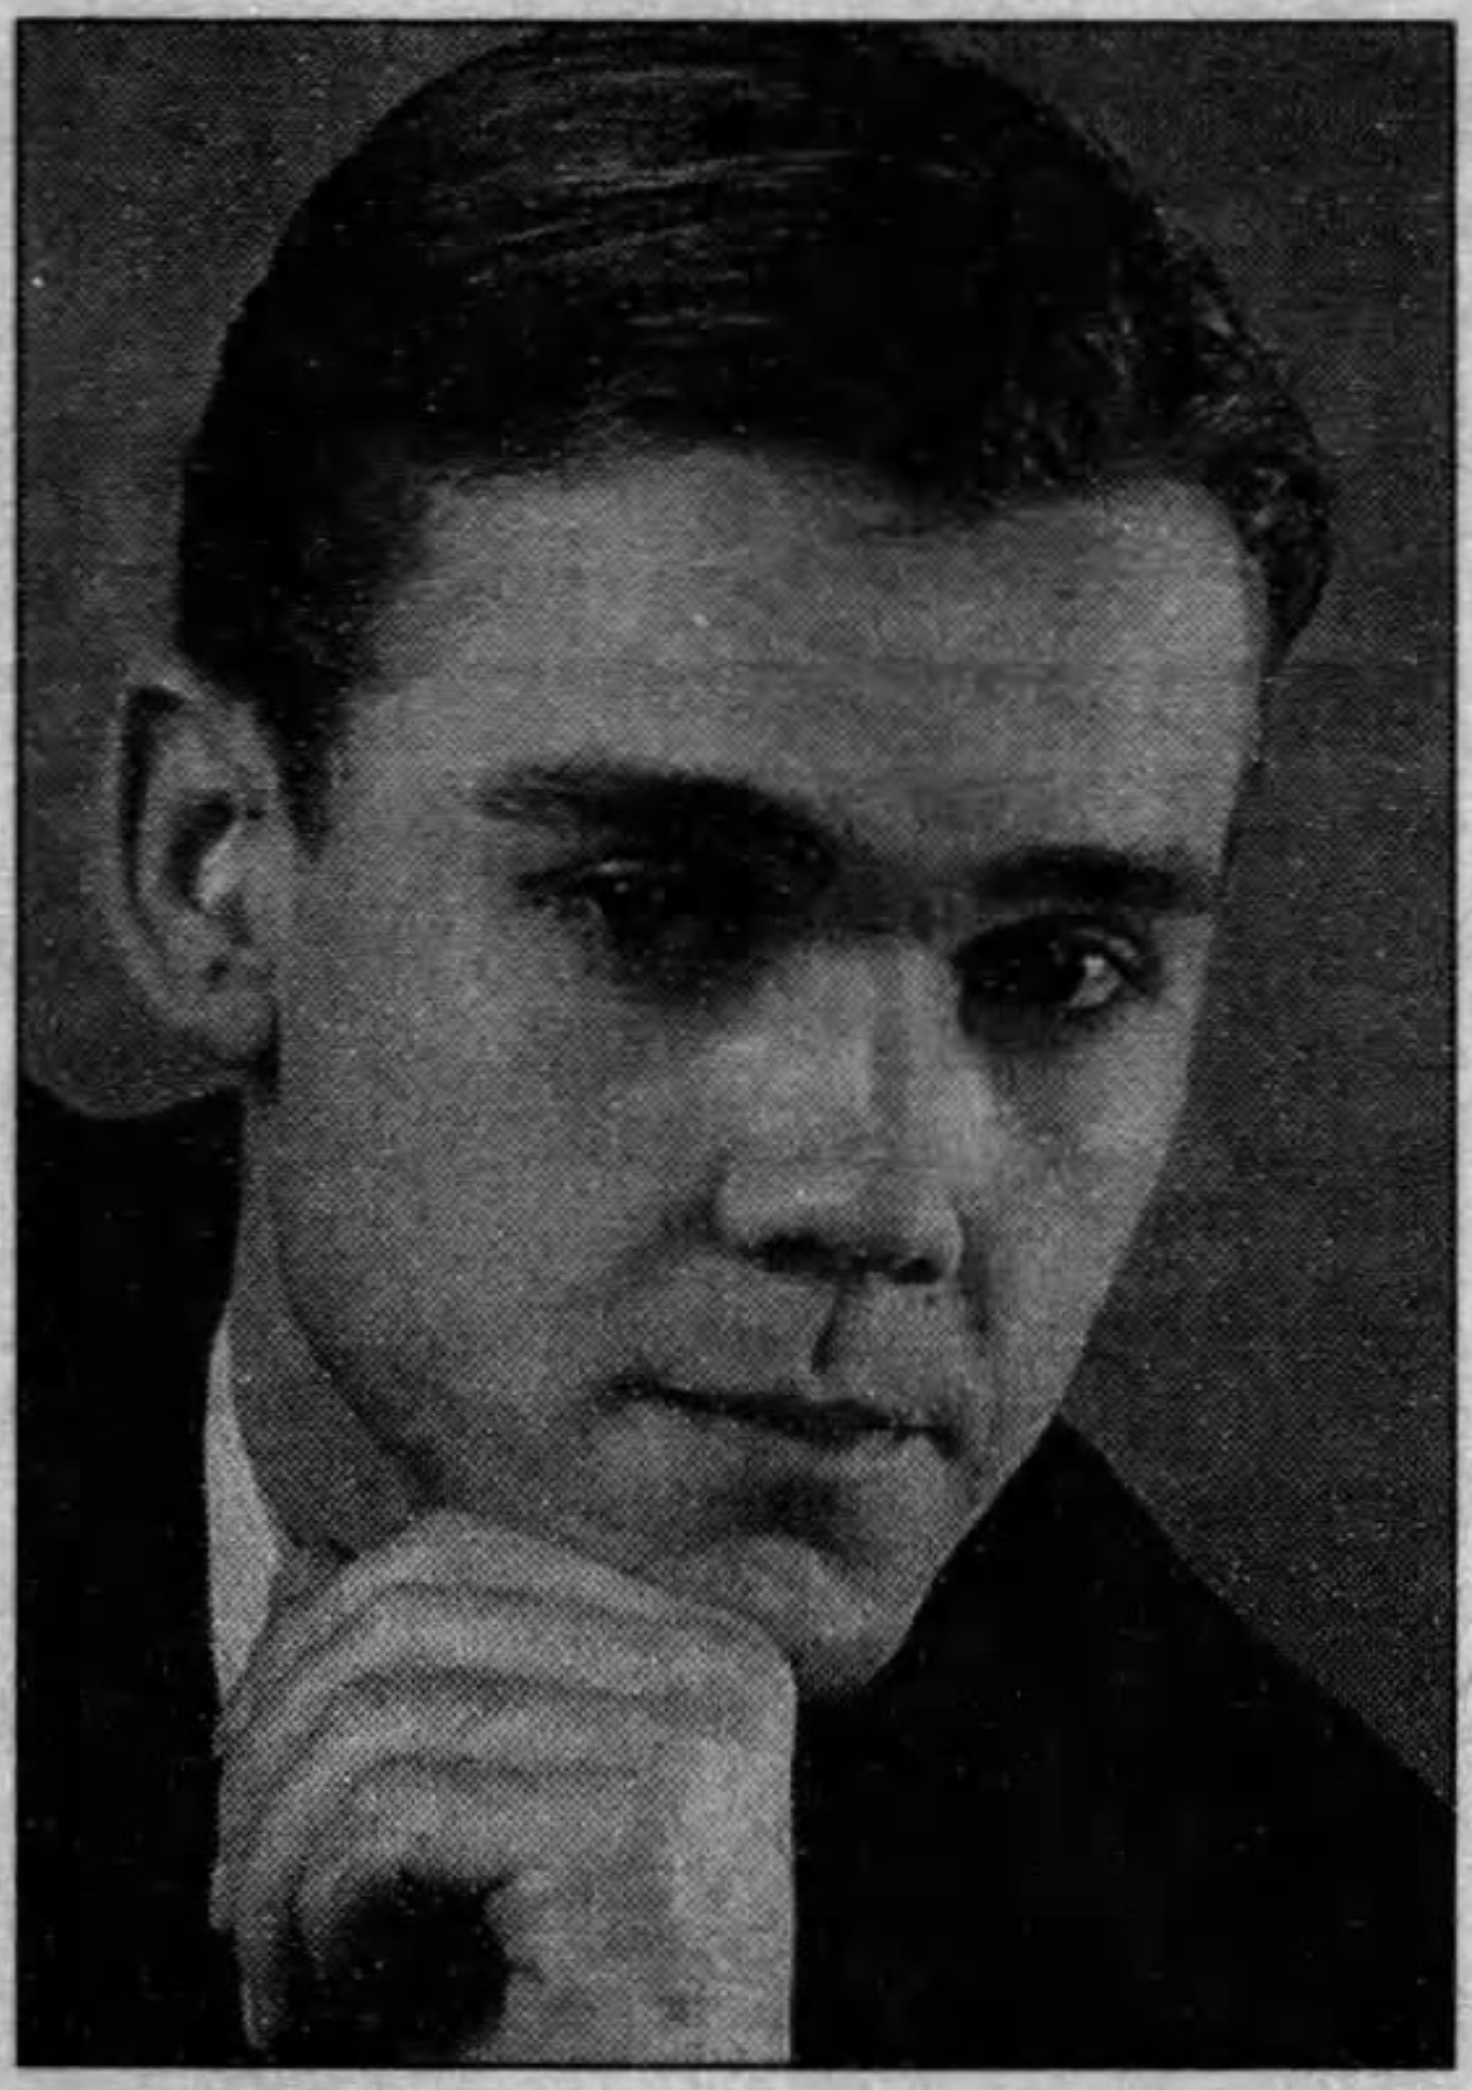
7 p.m. on NBC

Brad Pitt stars in this lyrical romance about three Montana brothers who are rivals for the love of the same woman. Anthony Hopkins stars as the family patriarch, a retired Army officer, with Pitt, Henry Thomas and Aidan Quinn as his sons. Julia Ormond plays the beauty who captivates them. Edward Zwick ("Glory") directed.

Movie: Longitude

7 p.m. on A&E

If you think calculating a ship's location at sea sounds like a dull subject for a TV movie, you're not alone, but you're wrong. Dramatic sea scenes and excellent performances by the lead actors enliven the true tale of John Harrison, the 18th-century inventor whose clock-type device for determining longitude receives a chilly reception, even after he uses it to save an entire fleet from shipwreck. It isn't until the 20th century that Harrison's life- and cargo-saving invention gets the respect it deserves, as a shell-shocked sailor devotes his life to restoring four of those old clocks.



Rick Schroder
TOO CLOSE TO HOME

Movie: Ratz

7 p.m. on SHOW

A junk-shop proprietor finds a magic ring that she uses to transform herself into a glamorous actress. While she's at it, she turns a couple of rats into Prince Charmings for two local teen-age girls, with weird and wacky results. Ron Silver also stars in this new family fantasy directed by Thom Eberhardt.

Movie: Too Close to Home

8 p.m. on CBS

Judith Light stars in this fact-based 1997 drama as Diana Donahue, a possessive mother who becomes unglued when her 29-year-old son, Nick (Rick Schroder), wants to get his own apartment. Mom will have none of that and ruins his plans. Furious, Nick moves in with a friend, and a grief-stricken Diana attempts suicide.

Talk show hosts branch out

By Lorri Antosz Benson

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

The dog days of summer give vacationing talk show hosts a chance to spread their wings and try new things.

Sally Jessy Raphael is taking on the big screen, but her role isn't too much of a stretch.

The host plays herself in "Double Whammy," a new movie starring Elizabeth Hurley and Denis Leary. While shooting her scene, Raphael also played child psychologist.

Raphael's role required her to interview 8-year-old Kevin Olson. It was the first day of shooting, and the location was her New York studio. Newcomer Olson, already nervous, suddenly found himself in front of a real-life "Sally" audience. His job was to walk out and be interviewed in character, and he was intimidated.

Enter the calming, soothing presence of Raphael. She comforted and reassured Olson, going over the whole scene with him.

Talk the Talk

Bolstered by Raphael, he was ready, and the scene began. The audience went wild with Olson's entrance, Raphael did the interview, and everything went perfectly.

Not so fast! "Sorry, folks, we have to do it again — technical problem," said an apologetic voice from the control room.

Welcome to show biz, kid!

Ricki Lake also is taking advantage of her show's hiatus. She is appearing in the off-Broadway play "The Vagina Monologues" from July 11 through 23.

Seems everyone who is someone is taking a turn on that stage. Joy Behar ("The View") headlined in May, and Melissa Joan Hart ("Sabrina, the Teenage Witch") finishes up her stint on July 9.

Lake also is teaming up again with director John Waters, the man who first made her a household name.

Sally Jessy Raphael

Waters' 1988 film "Hairspray" was Lake's first foray into show business years ago. She continued her collaboration with him in a variety of projects, including "Serial Mom" and "Cry Baby." Their latest production is "Cecil B. DeMented."

Scheduled to be released sometime this year, it's about an insane independent film director who kidnaps a famous actress, forcing her to be in his movie.

Monday's Best Bets

SportsCentury: Joe DiMaggio

6 p.m. on ESPN

Expanding upon its award-winning "50 Greatest Athletes" series, ESPN unveils "SportsCentury," an hourlong biography series profiling different athletes in sports history. Tonight's premiere features baseball Hall of Famer Joe DiMaggio. It's a fitting beginning, since it immediately precedes ESPN's coverage of the Home Run Derby at the All-Star festivities in Atlanta. DiMaggio, among his many legendary feats, appeared in 11 Midsummer Classics. The series, produced by ESPN Classic, is hosted by Chris Fowler.

Movie: For Hope

7 p.m. on ABC

Dana Delany plays a schoolteacher afflicted with the autoimmune disorder scleroderma. When she becomes too sick to care for herself, she rejoins her parents and married brother in California. The 1996 film, a mixture of humor and drama, is based on the personal experiences of comic Bob Saget, who directed the movie. Polly Bergen and Henry Czerny also star.

Ally McBeal

8 p.m. on FOX

Ally (Calista Flockhart) thinks she's found the perfect guy: a homeless man who's actually a writer researching the subject. But Mr. Writer has a dark side that rules out his Mr. Right potential. Ling (Lucy Liu) is arrested for operating a brothel. Greg Germann also stars in "Out in the Cold."

ALLY MCBEAL

Third Watch

9 p.m. on NBC

A misunderstanding turns into a political mess for the police in "Officer Involved." It starts when Sully (Skipp Sudduth) is injured and loses his gun during a pursuit. A black man picks up the weapon and is returning it to Sully when Davis (Coby Bell), misinterpreting his intentions, shoots him. Bosco (Jason Wiles) urges Yokas (Molly Price) to stay with her husband for the kids' sake, while Kim (Kim Raver) is the recipient of a bombshell from her ex-hubby (Eddie Cibrian).

Finest Hour: The Battle of Britain

9 p.m. on PBS

Personal stories from those who lived through it bring to life the critical few months in 1940 when Britain took on the German Goliath and won. The two-part special opens with the election of Winston Churchill as prime minister and the death-defying evacuation of troops from Dunkirk as France fell to the Nazis. Soon the war would not just come close to home but all the way, as Part 2, airing next Monday, illustrates with its riveting tale of the Battle of Britain itself.

Tuesday's Best Bets

Major League Baseball

7 p.m. on NBC

Atlanta's Turner Field, home of the Braves, is the setting for the 71st All-Star Game, pitting the top players in the National League against their American League counterparts. The outcome doesn't count, but all that star power can make for some pretty dramatic moments. Bob Costas and Joe Morgan call the action.

X-Men: The Mutant Watch

7 p.m. on FOX

In the new feature film "X-Men," a U.S. senator (Bruce Davison) is out to find and destroy the titular mutants. This behind-the-scenes special takes that story line and runs with it, using a mock hearing of the senator's Subcommittee on Mutant Activities as the springboard for a peek at the making of the movie. Among other things, it sorts out the "good" and "bad" guys, visits with the director, and reveals some of the secrets behind the special effects and stunts.

On the Inside

7 p.m. on DISC

Like any other athlete or entertainer — and these folks are both — pro wrestlers need to learn their trade and pay their dues. "Inside Wrestling School" follows would-be wrestlers through the grueling training they must undergo to get good enough to join the likes of "Stone Cold" Steve Austin, Chyna and other superstars in the big time. Of course, as in other athletic and showbiz endeavors, many never do.

X-MEN: THE MUTANT WATCH

Dharma & Greg

8 p.m. on ABC

TV commercial producers see Dharma (Jenna Elfman) in a spot for Greg's (Thomas Gibson) law practice and make her an offer she can't refuse: a part in a major ad for major bucks. But even though Greg was indirectly responsible for getting her the gig, he can't help but feel threatened by the size of her paycheck, especially since his practice is still struggling. Susan Sullivan and Alan Rachins also star in "Lawyers, Beer and Money."

Movie: Childhood Sweetheart?

8 p.m. on CBS

Karen Carlson (Melissa Gilbert), a 29-year-old woman who has been missing since the age of 12, appears on the doorstep of her childhood sweetheart (Michael Reilly Burke). Old feelings are rekindled, but several in the community begin to doubt that Karen is who she claims. Barbara Babcock and Ronny Cox also star in this suspenseful, romantic drama.

Wednesday's Best Bets

wo Guys and a Girl

p.m. on ABC

Berg (Ryan Reynolds) realizes at the romantic sparks with Ashy (Suzanne Cryer) are at their ttest when the angry sparks are ying. So he introduces a secret eapon to keep things fired up: his om. Sharon and Johnny (Traylor oward, Nathan Fillion) get some lp with their love life from an unpected source: Pete (Richard uccolo). Cheryl Ladd guest stars "Foul Play."

iography

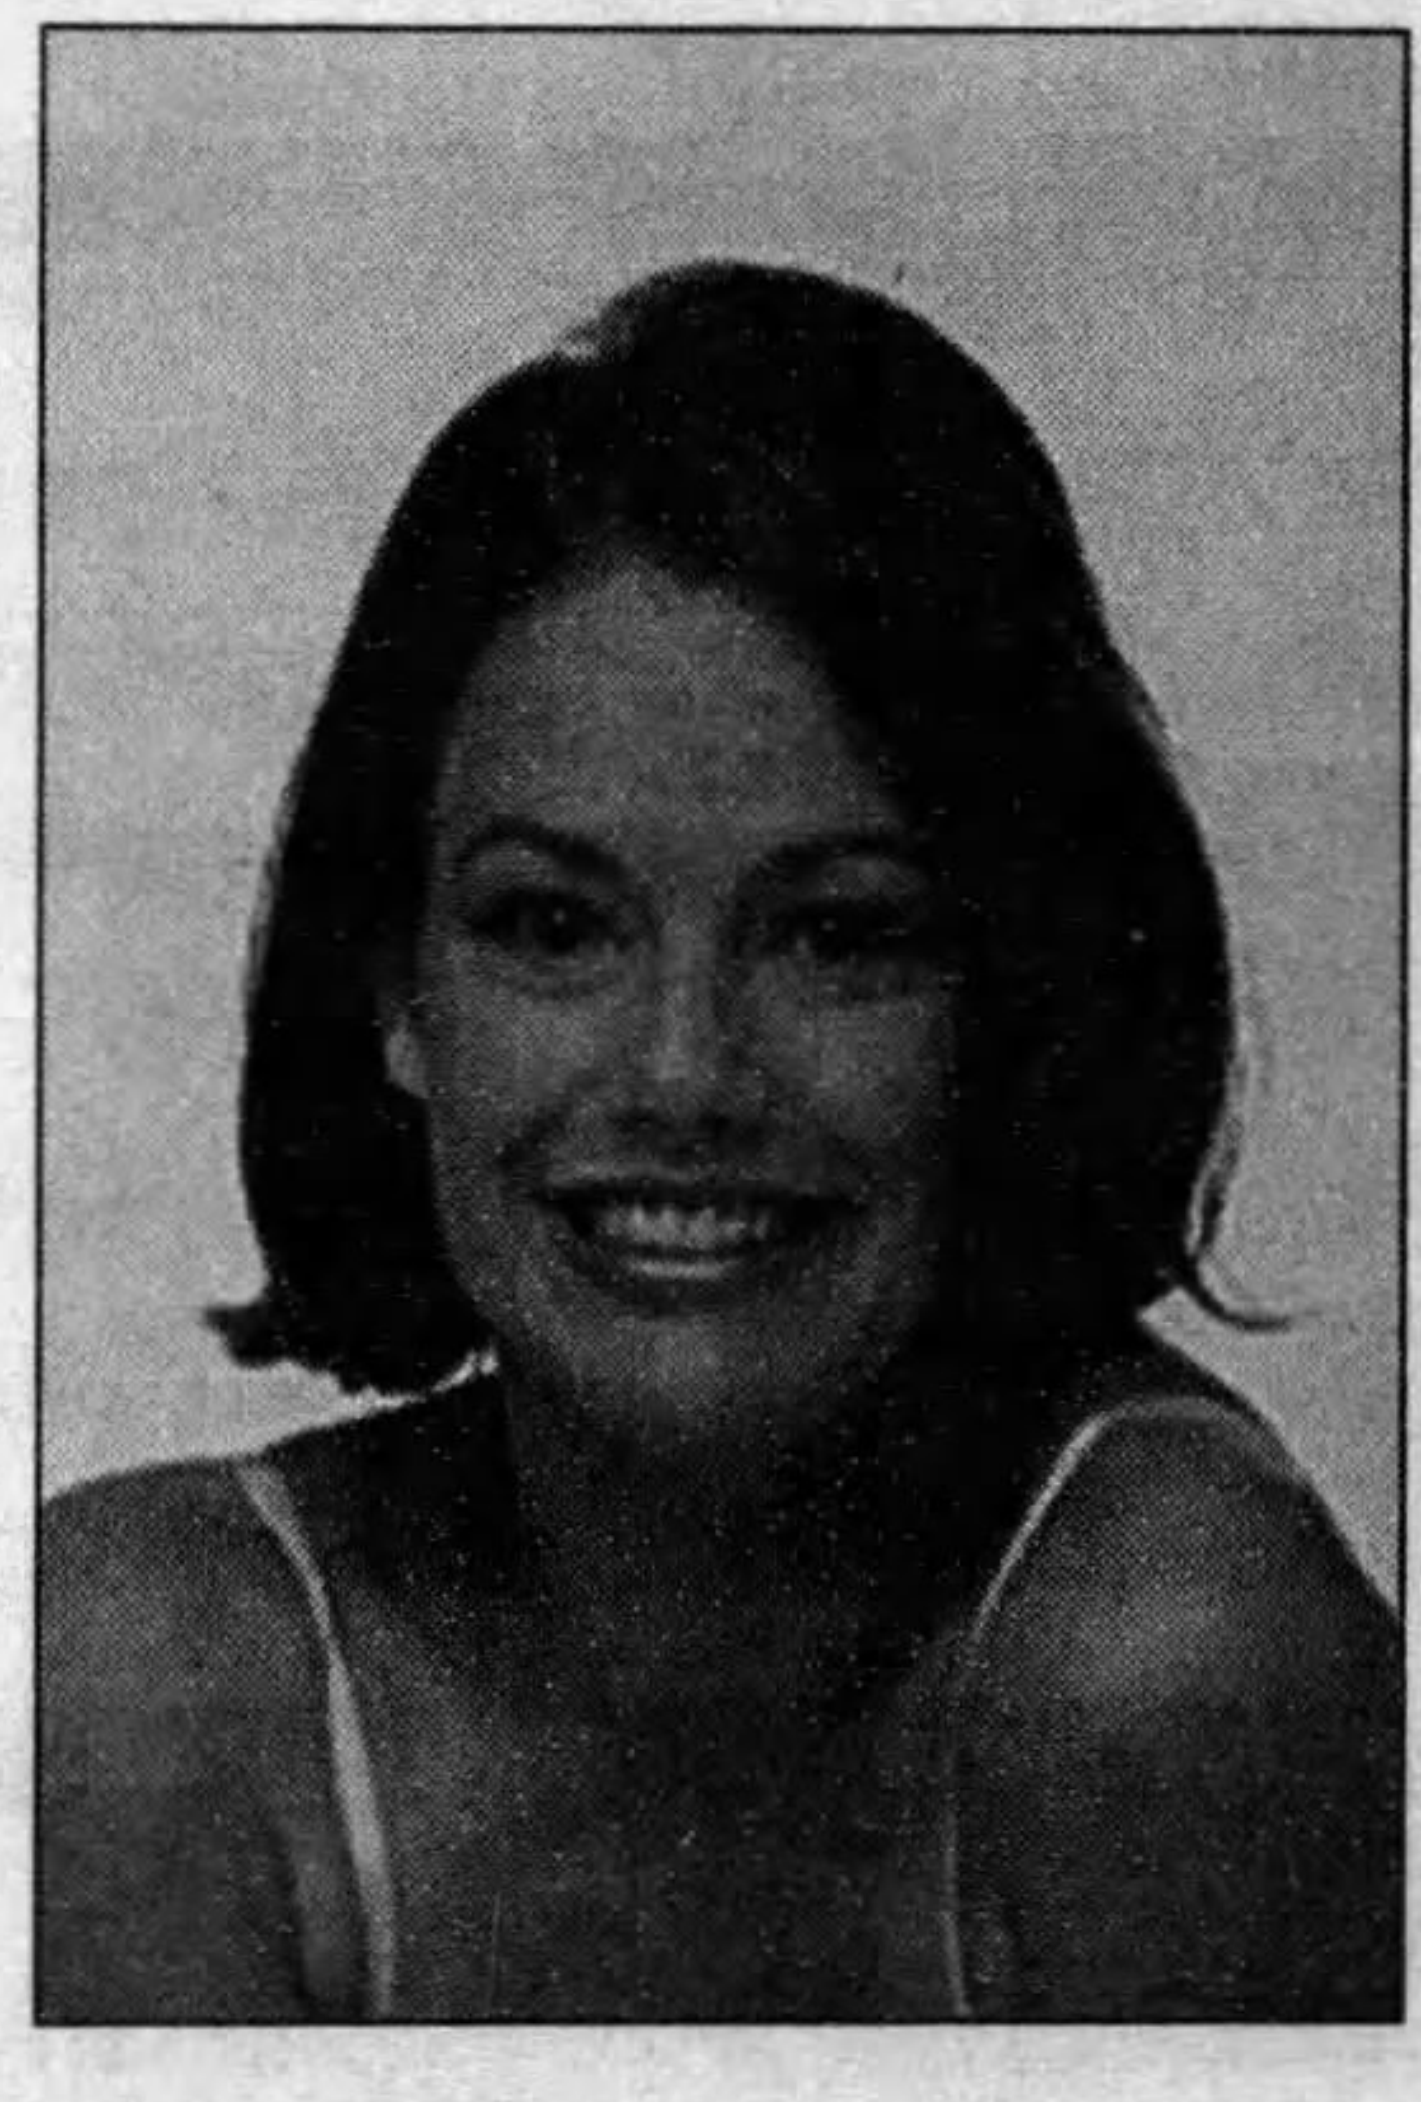
p.m. on A&E

"Mackenzie Phillips: Nine Lives" the riches-to-rags-and-backgain story of a precocious showbiz youngster who grew up before her time. Born into an atmosphere of partying and drugs as the daughter of rocker John Phillips of the Mamas and the Papas, she rose to stardom as a difficult teen-ager who played one on TV. Now 40 and a veteran of several trips to rehab, she's a mother in real life and on TV ("So Weird") and living by the title of the show that made her a star: "One Day at a Time."

The Drew Carey Show

8 p.m. on ABC

Talk about taking work home. In "Drew Cam," Winfred-Louder puts a 24-hour Internet camera in Drew's (Drew Carey) house as part of its new online marketing program. His new career as full-time store pitchman and Web star leads to some big changes in his life ... especially his relationship with Kate (Christa Miller).



Suzanne Cryer
TWO GUYS AND A GIRL

The West Wing

8 p.m. on NBC

As the president's staff meets with an assortment of special-interest groups — some of them downright strange — Josh wonders why he's been honored with instructions on where to go in case of a nuclear attack, which most of his colleagues haven't received. Toby has a question of his own: Was he the first choice for his position? The commander in chief plays commander in chili, insisting his underlings sample the spicy concoction he's prepared for his daughter's going-away-to-college party.

Movie: Out of Sync

8 p.m. on VH1

Despite the title, this TV movie isn't about an evil-twin counterpart of the boy band 'N Sync. Gail O'-Grady stars as a housewife whose beautiful singing voice catches the ear of a record producer in need of a hot act. He's already signed a drop-dead gorgeous diva who could be the next big thing ... if she could only sing. You can guess what bright idea starts percolating in his head. Kari Wuhrer and Peter Outerbridge also star.

Thursday's Best Bets

Friends

7 p.m. on NBC

Janine (Elle Macpherson) is hired to dance on Dick Clark's New Year's Eve special, and Joey, Monica and Ross (Matt LeBlanc, Courteney Cox Arquette, David Schwimmer) tag along for the taping. Of course, most of the show is live, but Joey's fingers are crossed that they'll at least rehearse the midnight part, so he can steal a kiss from Janine. While Monica's off making a fool of herself dancing with her brother, Phoebe and Rachel (Lisa Kudrow, Jennifer Aniston) raid her place to see what she got them for Christmas. Matthew Perry also stars in "The One With the Routine."

Movie: Supercop

7 p.m. on FOX

What's better for martial-arts fans than a Jackie Chan movie? A Jackie Chan movie with a female co-star who can match him kick for kick. Michelle Khan (a k a Michelle Yeoh, "Tomorrow Never Dies") stars as an uptight police inspector who helps Chan's character, a Hong Kong detective, bring down a drug ring. Maggie Cheung also stars in this 1992 action-adventure.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Raymond Burr: The Case of the TV Legend" profiles the actor best remembered for his long tenure as television's favorite legal eagle, Perry Mason. The hour attempts to shed some light on the real-life mysteries surrounding the private Burr, a generous man who loved wine, art, flowers and children.

Movie: Bullitt

7 p.m. on AMC

Fans of cinematic car chases rank the one in this 1968 action drama one of the best ever. Set in San Francisco, it stars ultracool Steve McQueen as Frank Bullitt, a police lieutenant helping to guard a witness for the prosecution in a high-profile trial. When the witness and a fellow cop are shot, an angry Bullitt makes it his personal mission to find out who and why. Jacqueline Bisset and Robert Vaughn also star.

ER

9 p.m. on NBC

In "Be Patient," Dr. Kovac (Goran Visnjic) has second thoughts about his decision to transport a young hit-and-run victim to the hospital himself instead of waiting for an ambulance. Hathaway (Julianna Margulies) frets over a sexually active 14-year-old's (Cara DeLizia, "So Weird") refusal to tell her parents she has cervical cancer. Abby and Dr. Weaver (Maura Tierney, Laura Innes) clash over Weaver's snap diagnosis of a patient (Christopher Rich, "Murphy Brown"). Anthony Edwards also stars.

Friday's Best Bets

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch

7 p.m. on ABC

Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart) has a few surprises waiting as she starts her senior year. First, she discovers she's not the only witch on campus anymore when she meets Dreama (China Shavers), a precocious newcomer who enlists Sabrina's help with her magic. Then there's the news that Principal Kraft is dead-set against her becoming yearbook editor.

Movie: Ghosts of Mississippi

7 p.m. on TNT

Byron De La Beckwith was tried twice in 1964 for the murder of civil rights activist Medgar Evers. Despite ample evidence implicating De La Beckwith, he was set free both times by hung juries comprised entirely of whites. This well-intentioned 1996 drama chronicles his final trial in 1994, when he was prosecuted by a liberal white attorney (Alec Baldwin). James Woods plays an over-the-top bigoted De La Beckwith. Whoopi Goldberg is powerfully moving as Evers' widow.

Boy Meets World

7:30 p.m. on ABC

In "Seven the Hard Way," a practical-joke war turns into a serious feud among the friends, with Cory, Shawn and Topanga (Ben Savage, Rider Strong, Danielle Fishel) on one side and Rachel, Angela and Jack (Maitland Ward, Trina McGee-Davis, Matthew Lawrence) on the other. Not even Mr. Feeny (William Daniels) can put them back together again.

BOY MEETS WORLD

Geraldo Rivera Reports: Smashed

8 p.m. on NBC

For many young people, drinking alcohol is a rite of passage into adulthood, a rite they'll find a way to celebrate no matter how many laws are passed to thwart them. Often teen drinking has tragic consequences; young bodies unused to alcohol and unfamiliar with its power can be fatally poisoned by too much, too quickly. Geraldo Rivera reports on the ongoing problem of teen-age alcohol use and abuse and asks whether there's any way to stop it.

Movie: Cujo

8 p.m. on USA

Man's best friend is Mom's worst nightmare in this 1983 suspense tale based on a novel by Stephen King. A Saint Bernard becomes a killing machine after a close encounter with a rabid bat, and a broken-down Pinto is all that stands between a mother and son (Dee Wallace, Danny Pintauro) and his vicious jaws. Adding to their terror — and ours — is the intense heat and the fact that help is nowhere to be found.

Tuesday

Blues Clue's

8:30 a.m. on NICK

Blue wants to play a game, but she can't verbally tell Steve what it is in "Blue's Senses!" Steve must put on his thinking cap and deduce what Blue is trying to say by putting together audio, tactile and verbal clues. TV-Y

Friday

The Famous Jett Jackson

5 p.m. on DISN

Hawk and Silverstone (Lindy Booth, Lee Thompson Young) are coerced into watching the director's 11-year-old son, Corky, in "Hello, Goodbye." The gig turns out better than expected when Corky helps his sitters win a computer game. TV-G

Saturday

Movie: Baby Geniuses

7:30 a.m. on HBO

In this 1999 comedy, scientists believe the silly noises that babies make are actually a highly evolved form of communication. And the children aren't just saying "hello"; they're sharing the secrets of the universe. PG

Saturday

A Dog's Life

3 p.m. on DISC

Doesn't it often seem like man's best friend can understand what his master is saying, especially words like "food," "out" and "play"? "The Language of Dogs" explores the psychology of dog behavior and the human-canine bond. A man who lives among wolves also is profiled. TV-G

Saturday's Best Bets

Movie: The Poseidon Adventure

5 p.m. on AMC

Ronald Neame's 1972 tale of a capsized ocean liner was no "Titanic," but the visual effects were spectacular enough by the standards of the day to win a special Oscar. The large, star-packed cast and the presence of Shelley Winters make this the quintessential '70s disaster film. Ernest Borgnine, Gene Hackman, Red Buttons, Carol Lynley and Stella Stevens also star.

Love Chronicles

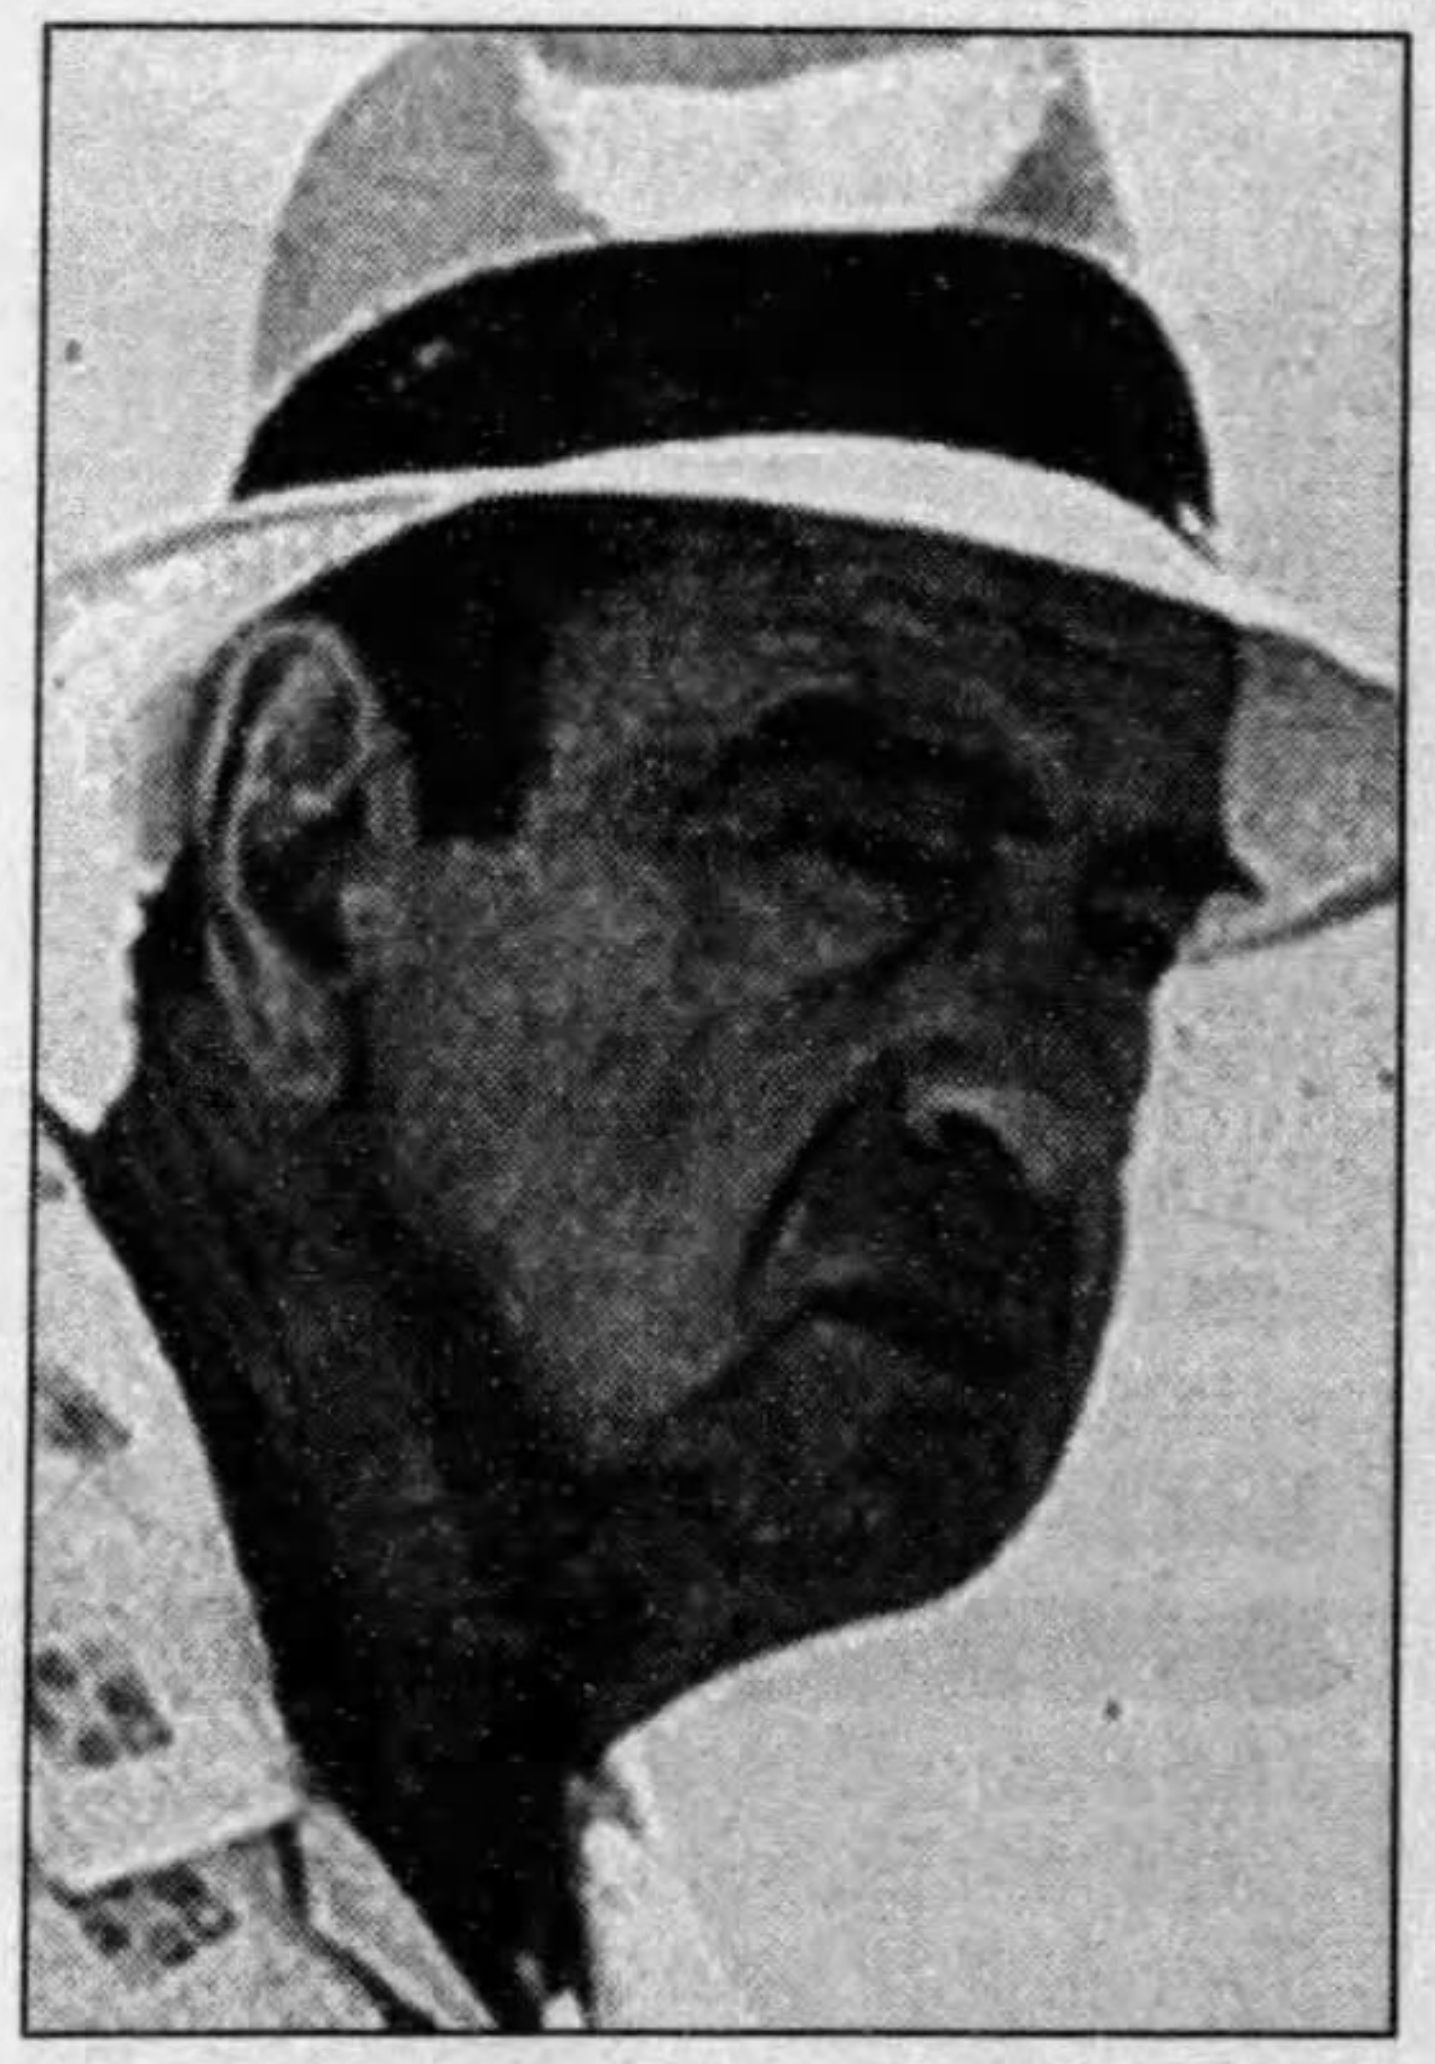
6 p.m. on A&E

Why do some people prefer one-time-only sex with strangers to a long-term love relationship? "Strangers in the Night" visits with several veterans of the one-night stand scene, including a man who lost 150 pounds and found an amazing array of sex partners; a woman whose one-night lover turned into a stalker; and a woman struggling to recover from sex addiction. A psychologist, a sexologist and an anthropologist discuss the thoughts, feelings and cultural mores that contribute to these brief encounters.

Movie: Never Say Never Again

6:30 p.m. on MAX

This 1983 James Bond thriller was notable not for its plot, which bears a striking resemblance to 1965's "Thunderball," but for the return of Sean Connery to the role of Bond 12 years after leaving it behind. Bond, who's retired as the film opens, is called back to active duty when NATO is held hostage by a madman wielding stolen nuclear warheads.



Walter Matthau
GRUMPIER OLD MEN

Track and Field

7 p.m. on NBC

The network of the Olympic Games begins its first of two weekends covering the U.S. Olympic Trials in track and field, the biggest meet in this country since the 1996 Atlanta Games. All the top athletes will be on hand in Sacramento, Calif., since the Trials are an all-or-nothing proposition in the United States. Tonight, the finals in the women's and men's 100-meter dash are highlighted, featuring two-time women's defending world champion Marion Jones and men's world record holder Maurice Greene.

Movie: Grumpier Old Men

8 p.m. on NBC

Max and John (Walter Matthau, Jack Lemmon) are back in this 1995 comedy, which picks up where 1993's "Grumpy Old Men" left off. This time, they're taking out their grumpiness on the beautiful Maria (Sophia Loren), who wants to turn their beloved bait shop into a restaurant.

WNBA's Brandy Reed scores big with the Phoenix Mercury

By Josh Greene

Cover story

It doesn't get much hotter than Arizona in July, but even the air-conditioned confines of America West Arena can't cool off the hot shooting of Phoenix Mercury forward Brandy Reed.

The 23-year-old WNBA player returned to the Mercury this season after being whisked away from them following her rookie year in 1998. Reed spent 1999 in Minnesota, thanks to the expansion draft.

"It was sort of, 'Oh, I have to go,'" Reed says. "I wasn't bummed out. It was a surprise. I really thought I'd be returning to Phoenix."

Aside from the extreme difference in climates, Reed is happy to be back in the Southwest for another reason. This time around, she's brimming with confidence.

"I feel more assertive and aggressive as a person and player than I was here my first year," Reed says. "I was sort of sitting back, going with the flow, letting people do their thing. Now I'm more assertive."

Reed hopes her steady play all year will earn her a starting spot on this year's All-Star team. Phoenix is hosting the game, which airs Monday, July 17, on ESPN.

"Hopefully, I can get out there and play like an All-Star," Reed says. "Hometown crowd ... yeah, that would make it cool."

Reed got off to a fast start this season. She became the first WNBA player to ever score more than 30 points against the defending champion Houston Comets in a game back in June. Her 32-point performance earned her player of the week honors and national exposure, but for her it was all in a night's work.

"It doesn't mean as much to me as everyone else," Reed says. "I just feel everybody has the opportunity (to excel). It was just my turn. Next week, it'll be somebody else. That was just one game."

It takes a lot of practice to earn your way into the WNBA, let alone onto the All-Star team. The Mercury forward spends all season practicing between games. Reed even spends her off-season working on her game; she headed to Spain for more practice and to keep those paychecks rolling in.

"It was European League, a Spanish League," Reed says. "It was work, taking care of myself. The WNBA only lasts for four months, so I still have to support myself for the remainder of the year. The only way I can do that with the type of lifestyle I like to live is by playing basketball and earning good money."

Money aside, the extra work paid off. Reed was named MVP of the Spanish League, leading the league in scoring with a 25.2 points-per-game average.

Growing up, Reed didn't question her on-court talents; she questioned where she would be able to showcase them.

"I felt growing up I would be a professional basketball player," she says. "They didn't have the WNBA, so I always thought I would go overseas to play. They formed the (WNBA) in the states. I was still in college, so I didn't really think about turning pro, but when the time came to make that decision, I went out there and gave my effort and was chosen in the draft by the Phoenix Mercury."

For all of her recent accomplishments, Reed has a narrow list of professional goals she still wants to accomplish, and nothing's hotter than her burning desire to succeed.

Fans 'Stark Raving Mad' about cancellation

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

Has "Stark Raving Mad" really been canceled? I thought it won an award for best new sitcom. -S.A. in Wisconsin.

The Tony Shalhoub-Neil Patrick Harris sitcom won a People's Choice Award as favorite new television comedy series in one of the worst seasons for new sitcoms in recent memory.

I've heard from a lot of fans who are unhappy about this cancellation and baffled at how a show in the top 20 for the season could get the ax.

Here's how: A time slot in NBC's high-profile Thursday lineup is a mixed blessing. A TV show between "Frasier" and "ER" is virtually guaranteed an above-average number of viewers, but it also is expected to hold the audience between those two hit shows.

That's where "Stark Raving Mad" faltered, losing about 20 to 25 percent of its lead-in from "Frasier" — and those viewers came back to NBC afterward for "ER." A network doesn't like to see that kind of audience "tune-out" during a show. The same fate befell "Jesse," which had even higher ratings than "Mad" yet lost about the same percentage of viewers from its "Friends" lead-in.

That said, an average of 15.5 million people watched "Mad" every week and, judging from my mailbag, they liked what they saw. My condolences to them for losing a favorite show.

Remember the Life cereal ad with Mikey ("He hates everything!")? Am I right in believing Mikey was Patrick Labyorteaux, who plays Bud on "JAG," or does my son win the steak and lobster dinner that is riding on this? -Douglas Christy, Warren, Mich.

Tell your son "bon appetit" for me. In this case, Father doesn't know best. Sorry, Douglas.

Sunday's Best Bets

Topspin

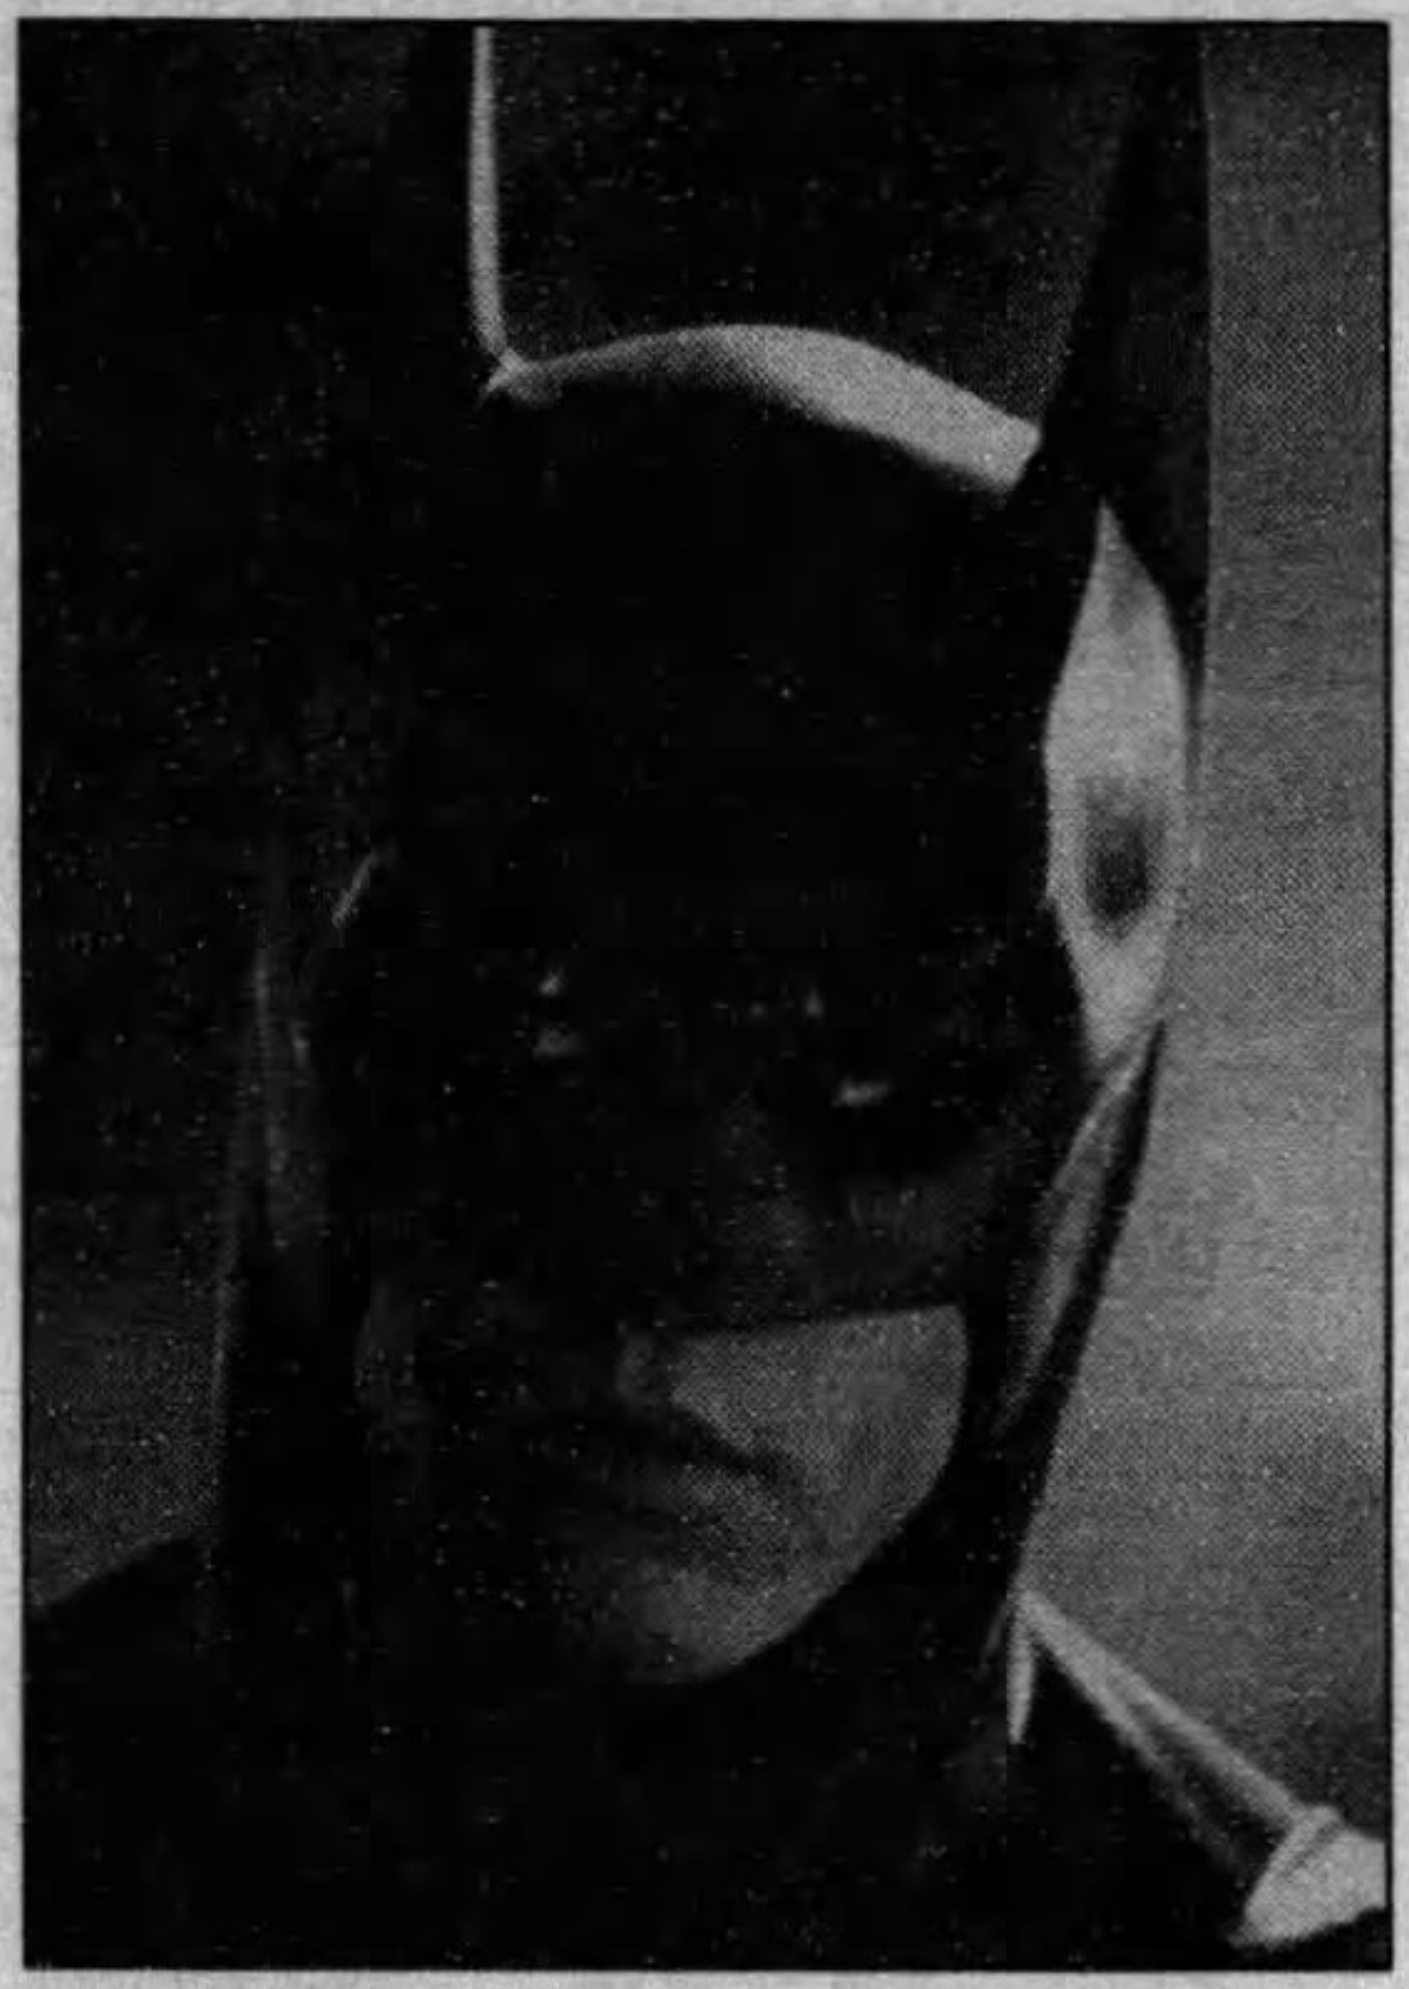
2:30 p.m. on CBS

How do tennis players play when they're not playing tennis? This series, returning for a third year, answers that by crisscrossing the globe with the cream of the court as they swim with dolphins, golf with the stars, ride along in a Grand Prix auto race, or try modeling and theater. Each episode promises segments on up-and-coming tennis stars along with the current top seeds.

Movie: Pooch and the Pauper

6 p.m. on ABC

A stray dog named Moocher lands in the White House, while his look-alike, the pampered presidential pet Liberty, winds up on the street in this enjoyable spin on Mark Twain's "The Prince and the Pauper." With his winning way with people, Moocher becomes a national treasure, prompting an unscrupulous gent to kidnap Liberty from the pound and turn him into a first-dog impersonator. As Moocher and a senior staffer's young son (every dog story needs a boy) join forces to save Liberty, everyone learns a lesson about walking in the other fellow's paws. Richard Karn ("Home Improvement"), Fred Willard, Cody Jones and Vincent Schiavelli star, with George Wendt ("Cheers") as the dog warden.



Val Kilmer
BATMAN RETURNS

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Shirley Jones" kicks off the series' "TV Moms" week with a two-hour profile of the squeaky-clean movie musical queen ("The Music Man," "Carousel," "Oklahoma!") who proved her versatility with an Oscar-winning performance as a prostitute in 1960's "Elmer Gantry." Later generations, of course, know her as the singing mother of TV's "The Partridge Family." In recent years, she's returned to her stage roots, touring as a singer and as the star of a revival of "The King and I." Interviewees include her husband, Marty Ingels, and her sons, Shaun, Patrick and Ryan Cassidy.

Movie: Batman Forever

7:30 p.m. on NBC

Val Kilmer takes over the role of the Dark Knight in this third in the series of Batman movies. With the help of Robin, Batman gets the best of two first-class villains who pose a threat to Gotham City: the Riddler and Harvey Two-Face.

Sciography

8 p.m. on SCIFI

Whether you're a die-hard Trekker to this day or just have fond memories of "Quantum Leap" or "Lost in Space," you'll find something to enjoy in this new series, which revisits sci-fi favorites.

Maury Povich scores in ratings

By Lorri Antosz Benson

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Summer vacation means time to relax, kick back, travel. You're not alone when you pack your bags and go explore the world. Your favorite talk show host is right out there with you.

Maury Povich, who is in the unique position of hosting the only daytime talk show whose ratings have gone up in the year-to-year rankings, is happy when he's relaxing on the golf course.

This summer, he has been catching up with some of the Midwest's finest greens and fairways. He plans to do the same out in Montana while spending time with his family.

Before heading to the links, Povich celebrated his successful season with his staff. He invited his entire office out to his home near the New Jersey shore for a big barbecue and pool party. After all their hard work, everyone was quite content to spend the afternoon poolside in the sun.

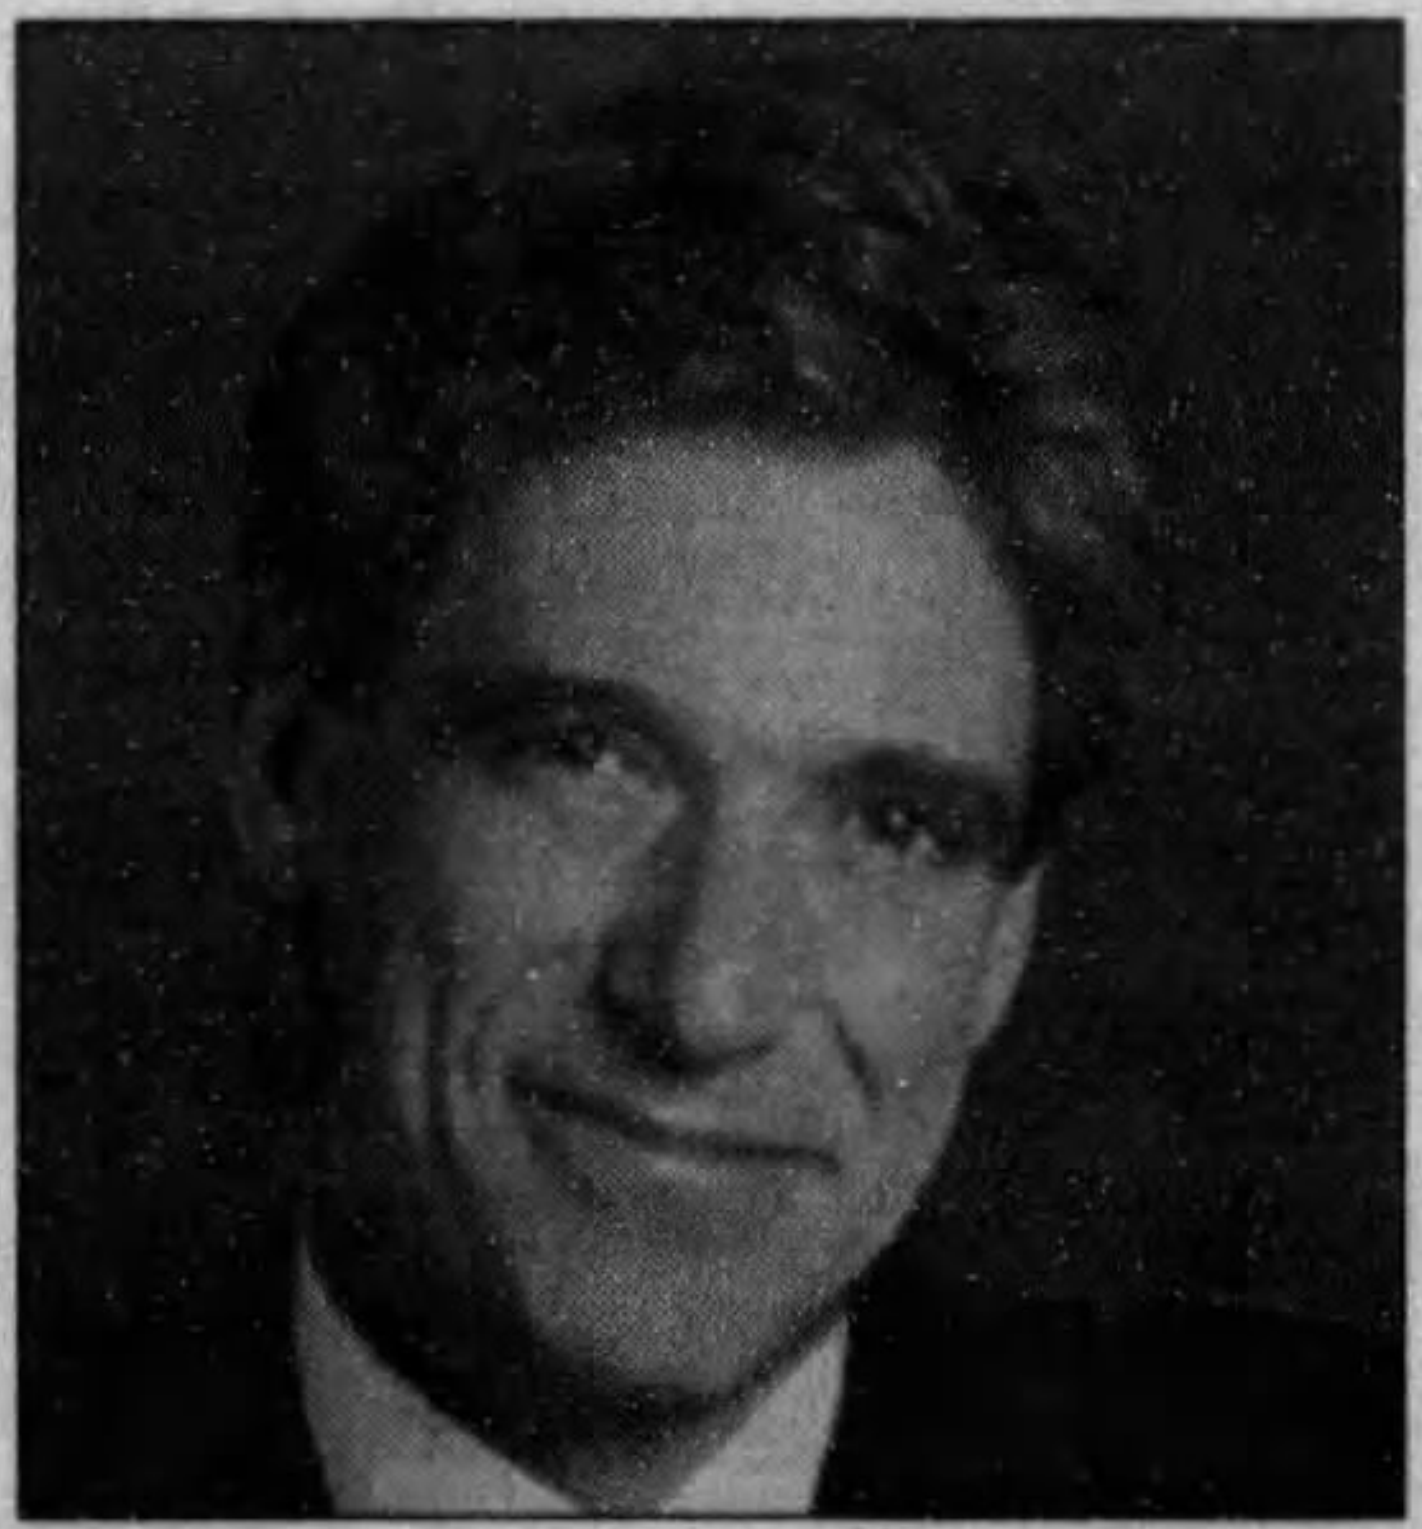
Talk the Talk

Host Sally Jessy Raphael also ended her season with a pool party, complete with burgers, chips and beer. Held at her house in Pawling, N.Y., the retreat was just the ticket for her exhausted staff.

Raphael most likely will spend much of her summer in her apartment in Nice, France, a very recent purchase. She has kept a place in Nice for some time, but is especially excited about her new property.

Before saying au revoir, Raphael surprised her director, Adam Sovota, with a few minutes of fame.

She had been complaining to him about the studio being too cold, and she called him to come on the set at the end of one of her recent shows. Sovota panicked, thinking the worst. He could only imagine Raphael yelling at him on-air about the air conditioning. He was pleasantly surprised when she introduced him, mentioning that he recently became a father.



Maury Povich

While Povich and Raphael enjoy the summer, Donny and Marie Osmond will be job hunting.

Despite gaining viewers in the daytime arena, their show has officially been canceled.

The everlasting rumors of Leeza Gibbons' show going on eternal hiatus have been confirmed.

Not to fear, though; the perky host is heading back to her "Entertainment Tonight" roots. She's accepted the anchor position on "Extra," replacing Maureen O'Boyle.

Monday's Best Bets

Movie: Dying to Be Perfect: The Ellen Hart Pena Story

7 p.m. on ABC

Crystal Bernard ("Wings") plays Olympic hopeful Ellen Hart, now the wife of U.S. Transportation Secretary Federico Pena (played by Esai Morales) in this 1996 drama. Hart was a runner and aspiring lawyer who hid the secret of her bulimia for years, until she learned she was putting another life in jeopardy.

Opposite Sex

7 p.m. on FOX

Fifteen-year-old Jed (Milo Ventimiglia) wants nothing more to do with girls after a recent relationship disaster. Imagine his shock when he discovers his new school is girls, girls, girls. It's recently gone coed, and Jed is one of only three male students. The others are Cary (Chris Evans), who's thrilled with the odds, and Phil (Kyle Howard), who's more excited about the school's record of graduating Ivy Leaguers.

Law & Order

8 p.m. on NBC

Solving an elderly woman's murder turns out to be easier said than done for Briscoe (Jerry Orbach). Although the killing happened in public, and he believes he heard someone confess, his fellow cops — including his own partner (Jesse L. Martin) — are second-guessing him and even implying that he might be getting too old.

OPPOSITE SEX

Family Law

9 p.m. on CBS

"The Nanny" guest stars Alex Rocco, whose Emmy-winning portrayal of a talent agent in the short-lived but well-done sitcom "The Famous Teddy Z" gave him some experience to draw on for this role. He plays the agent of Hy Aldin (Alan King), an aging actor suing for libel over greatly exaggerated rumors of his death. Danni (Julie Warner) takes the case, while Lynn (Kathleen Quinlan) handles a gut-wrenching custody suit. Her clients are a wealthy couple trying to take their granddaughter away from the poor nanny she loves.

Investigative Reports

9 p.m. on A&E

If a journalist, an accountant or a teacher makes an error, money or face may be lost. If a medical professional makes an error, lives can be lost. "Medical Mistakes" explores the tragedies that result from such wrongdoing — whether by a competent doctor who simply made a bad guess, or an incompetent one with a history of trouble. It also examines the reluctance of some doctors to acknowledge their own and their colleagues' mistakes, and the growing outcry for an end to that code of silence.

Tuesday's Best Bets

That '70s Show

7 p.m. on FOX

Was it good for them? After Eric and Donna's (Topher Grace, Laura Prepon) first time, Donna shares her thoughts on the experience with Jackie (Mila Kunis), including the less-than-positive ones. Of course, Eric finds out and isn't pleased. Ashton Kutcher and Wilmer Valderrama also star in "Afterglow."

Biography

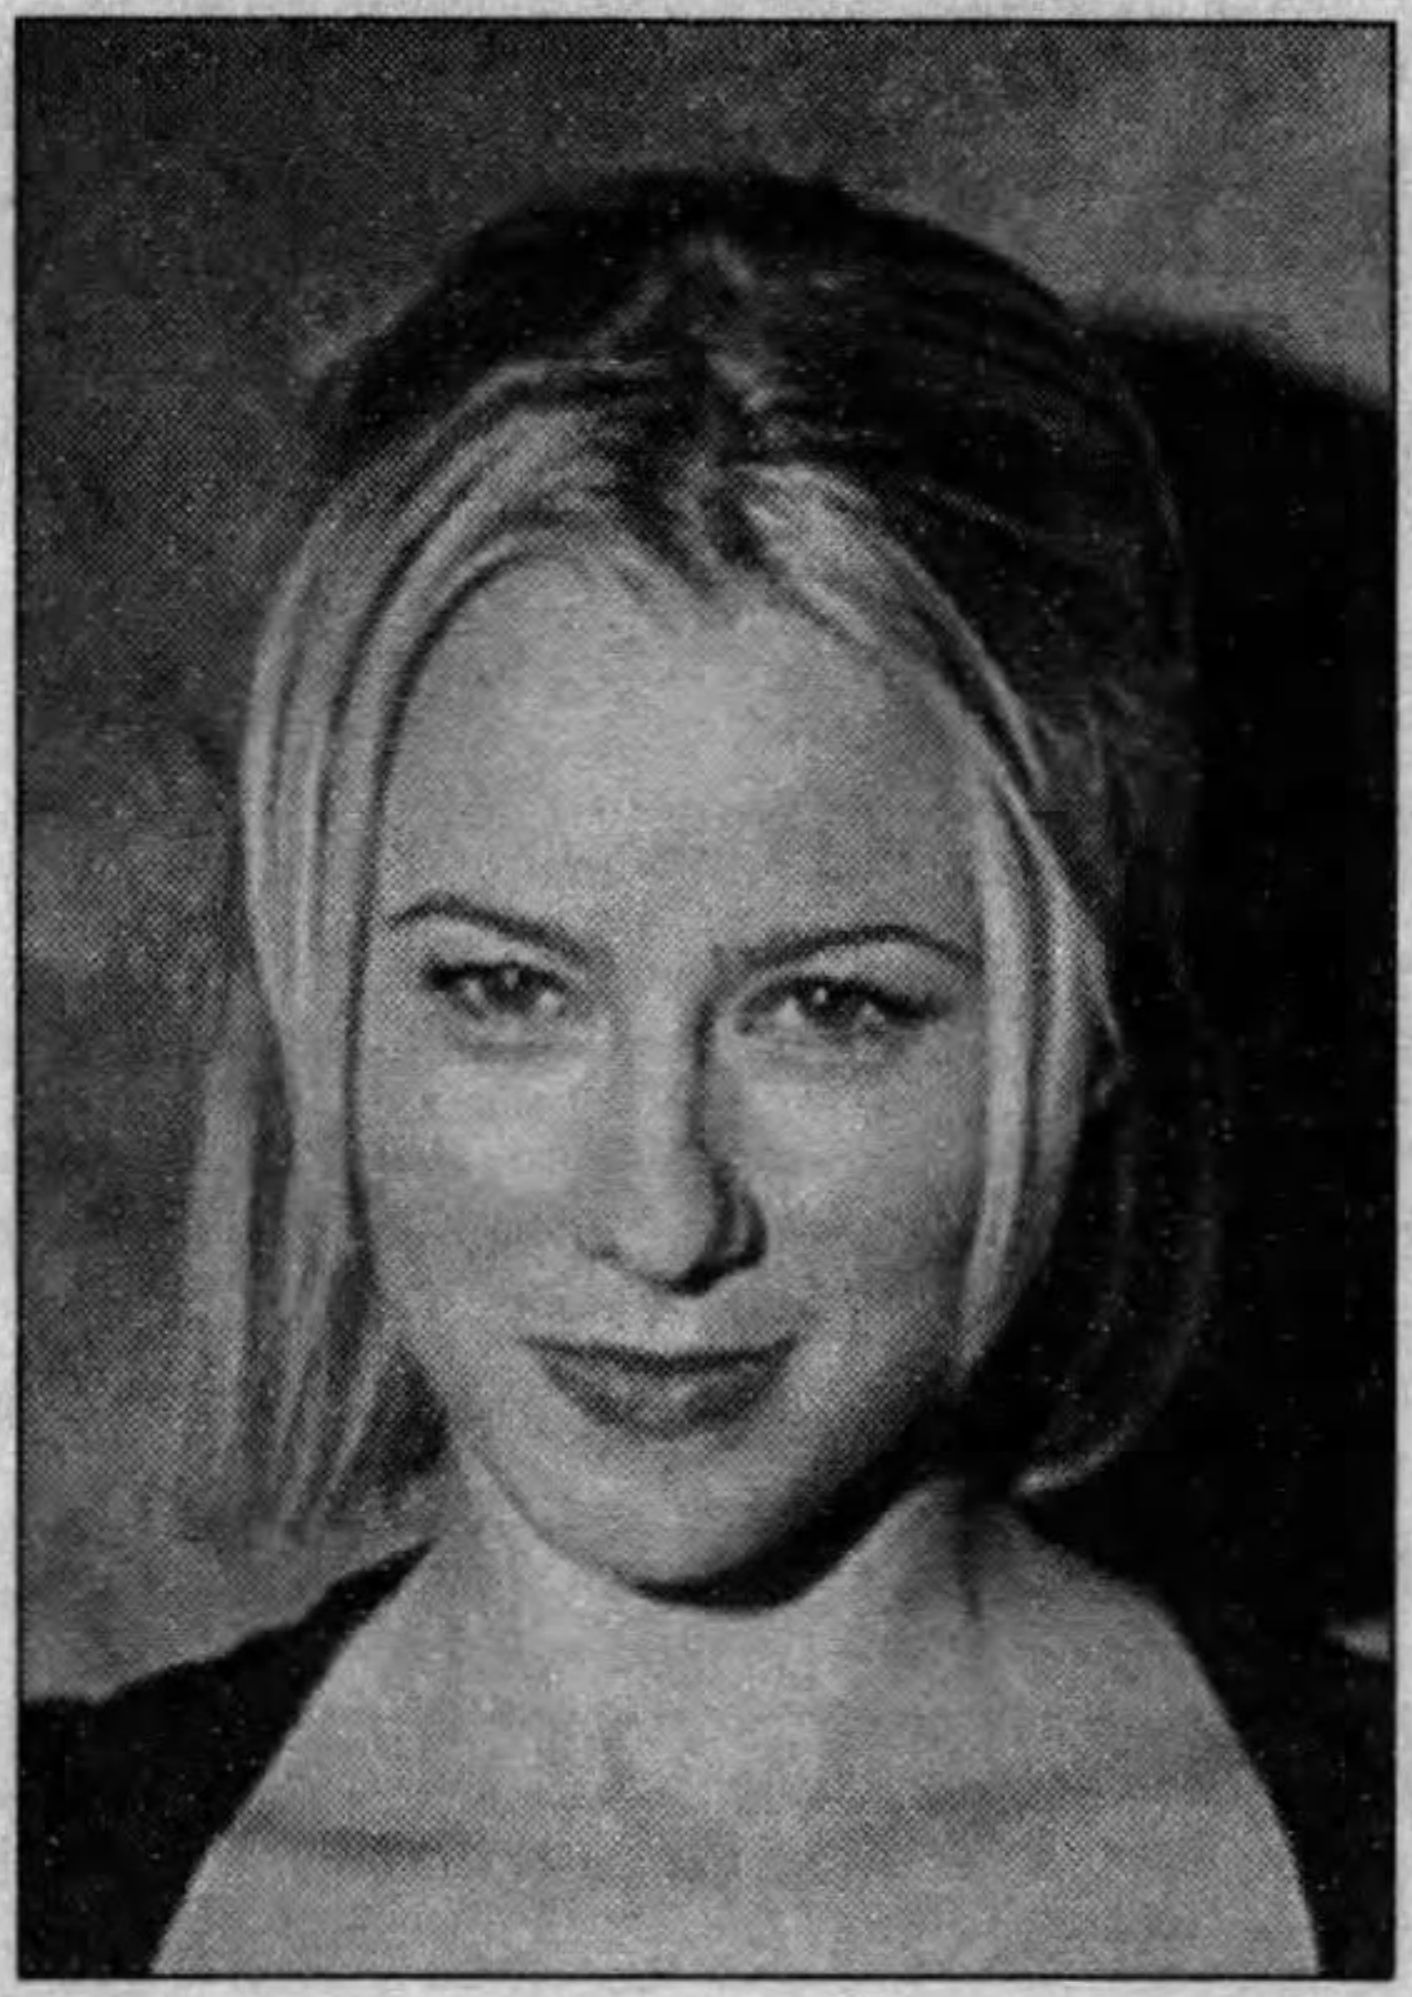
7 p.m. on A&E

"Yvonne De Carlo" profiles the actress whose beauty shone through the deathly pallor she wore for her best-known role: Lily Munster, daughter of Dracula, wife of Frankenstein's monster and mother of a wolf boy. Two co-stars from "The Munsters," Pat "Marilyn" Priest and Al "Grandpa" Lewis, help trace her eventful life and career, including the role in "The 10 Commandments" that broke her onto the A list.

Dilbert

7:30 p.m. on UPN

Dogbert's best-selling book on curing a fictional ailment called chronic cubicle syndrome has the Boss looking for a piece of the action. He assigns Dilbert to create a product to improve office workers' health. The result is shockpants, which give desk jockeys a jolt to make them sit up straight. But soon he's up on charges for creating a health hazard, and guess who's presiding over the court. None other than the evil human resources director, Catbert. Daniel Stern, Chris Elliott and Larry Miller lead the voice cast in "The Fact," with Jason Alexander providing Catbert's voice.



Traylor Howard
TWO GUYS AND A GIRL

Two Guys and a Girl

8:30 p.m. on ABC

As the big day approaches, Sharon (Traylor Howard) is getting a jump start on her role as loving wife by pressuring Johnny (Nathan Fillion) into penning his own wedding vows. Berg (Ryan Reynolds) is feeling the pressure that comes with freedom as he's finally allowed to work alone with his patients, which, depending on how he performs, could make or break his medical career. Richard Ruccolo and Suzanne Cryer also star in "Once Again From the Beginning."

NYPD Blue

9 p.m. on ABC

John Irvin is no cop, but you can't hang around a precinct as much as he has without picking up a little cop's intuition. His thoughts on Sipowicz and Sorenson's latest homicide case prove a big help in their investigation. Kirkendall and Russell (Andrea Thompson, Kim Delaney) call on all their sensitivity as they try to help a shattered gang-rape victim prepare to press charges. Gordon Clapp also stars in "Welcome to New York."

Wednesday's Best Bets

King of the Hill

7 p.m. on FOX

A classic from the animated sitcom's second season is resurrected in this special midweek airing. Hank (voice of Mike Judge) buys what he thinks is fishing bait from a man who turns out to be a crack dealer. Not knowing any better, he uses the drug for bait, and the fish are hooked in more ways than one.

Movie: Casualties of War

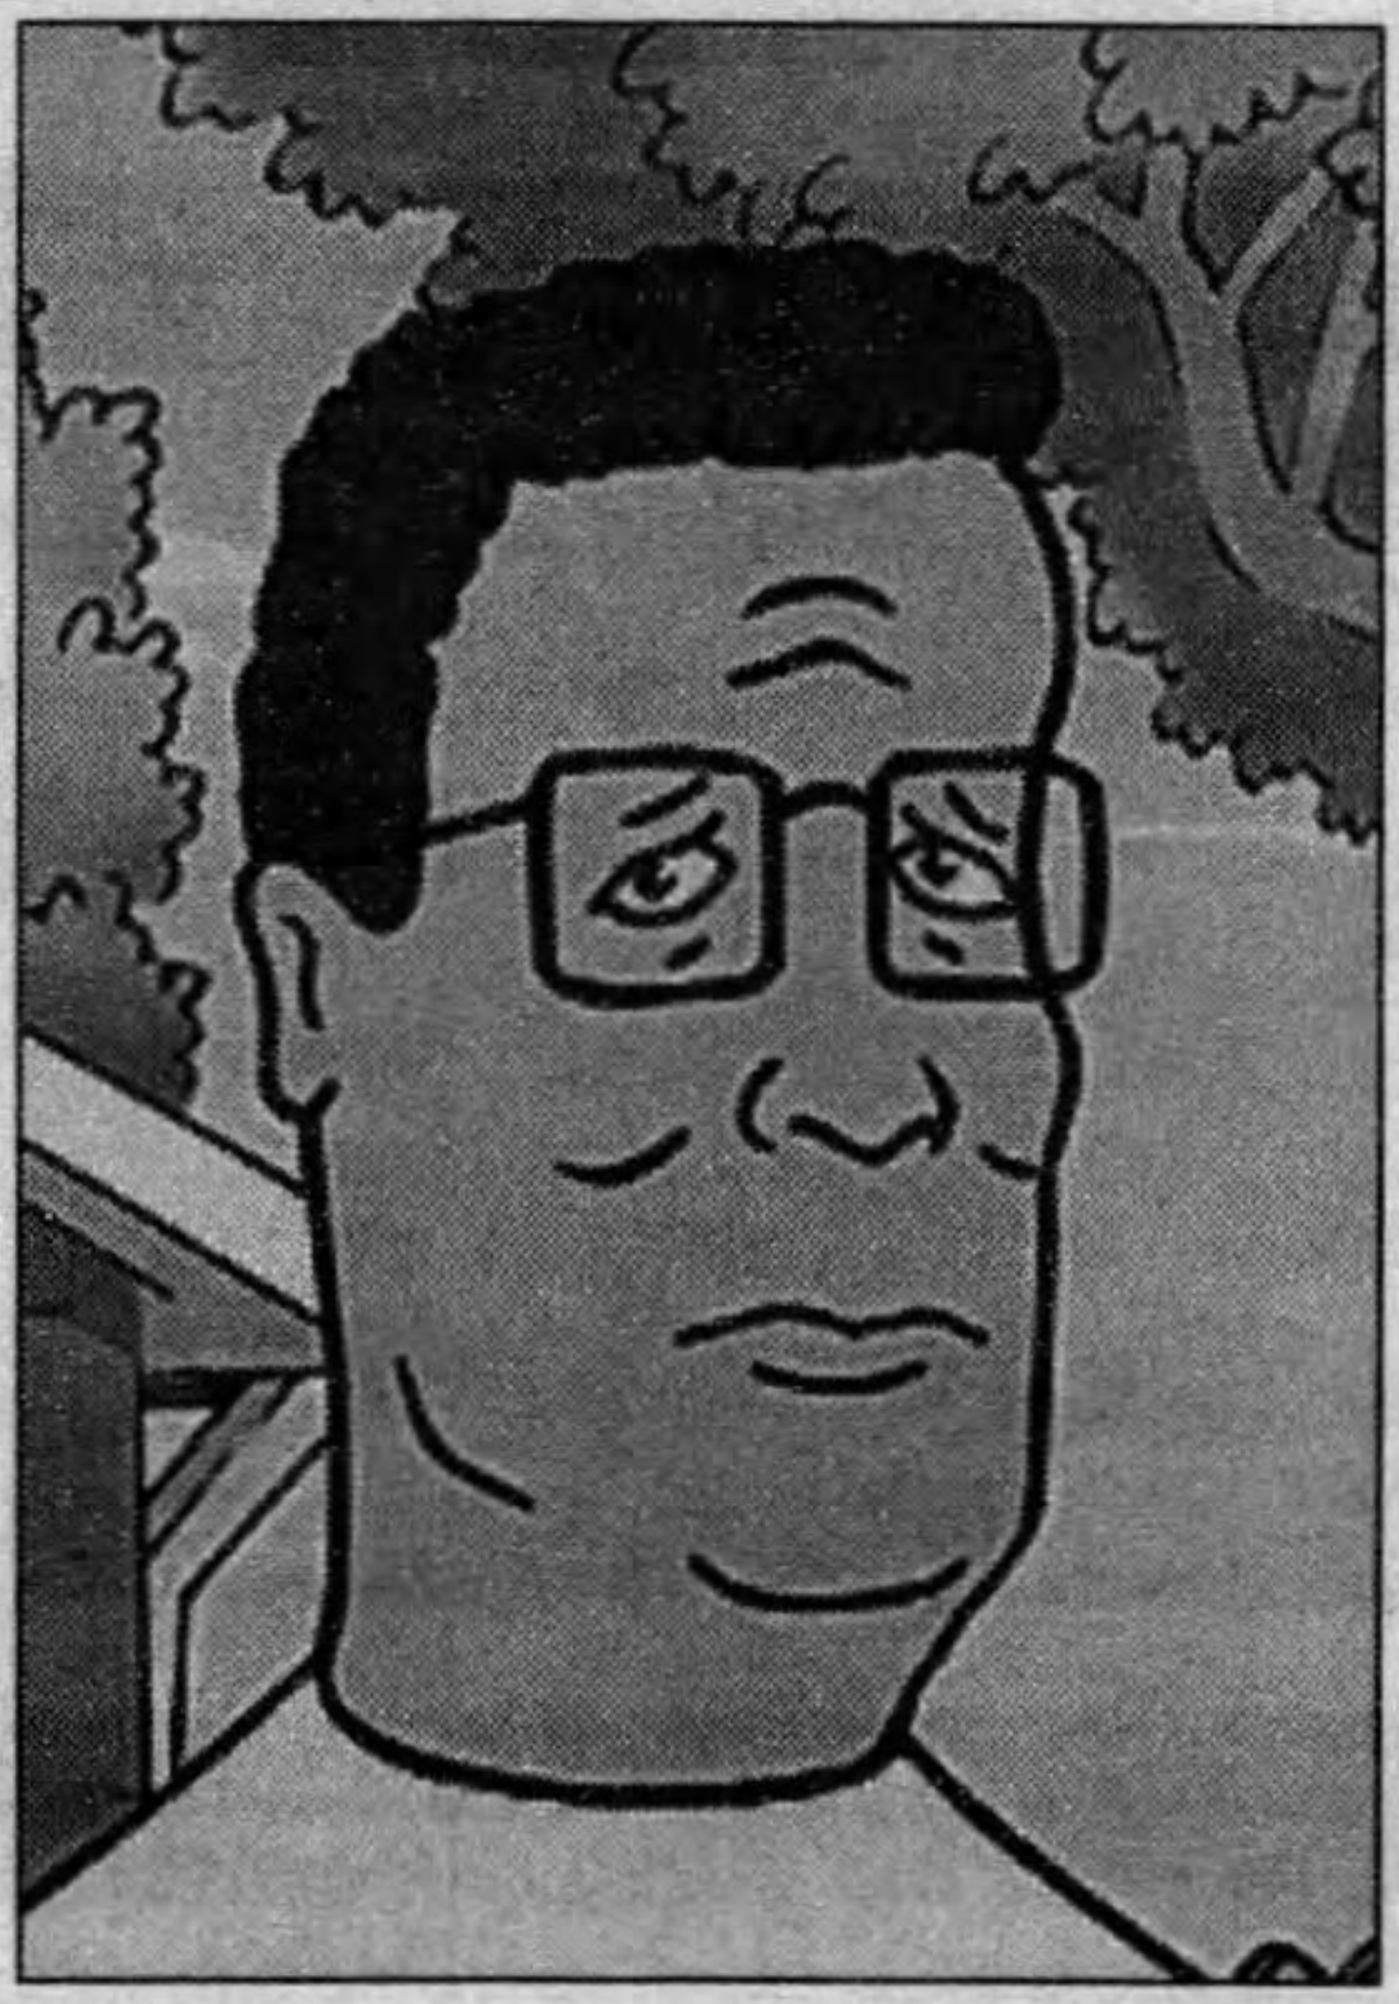
7 p.m. on TNT

Michael J. Fox gives one of his most affecting dramatic performances since his celebrated one-man turn in "Family Ties." He plays a green infantryman in Vietnam who is helpless to stop his comrades from brutally raping and killing an innocent village girl. Sean Penn is chilling as the sergeant who masterminds the attack. John Leguizamo and Ving Rhames also star in the 1989 drama from director Brian De Palma.

The Drew Carey Show

8 p.m. on ABC

Drew (Drew Carey) can't wait for Steve and Mimi (John Carroll Lynch, Kathy Kinney) to hit the road in their new mobile home. But he'll have to after pulling an oopsie that strands the happy couple in his backyard indefinitely. At the office, Mimi learns the hard way that the new boss (Mark Curry, "Hangin' With Mr. Cooper") won't be an easy fellow to put anything over on. Diedrich Bader and Christa Miller also star in "Mimi Moves In."



Hank Hill
KING OF THE HILL

American Justice

8 p.m. on A&E

It wasn't quite the trial of the century, but the arrest, prosecution and conviction of British nanny Louise Woodward for her young charge's death had the nation buzzing in the late 1990s. The 8-month-old Massachusetts infant had a fatal skull fracture, which the prosecution alleged Woodward had inflicted, while the defense claimed he fell accidentally. A jury found Woodward guilty of second-degree murder, but the judge disagreed, reducing the conviction to manslaughter and declaring her sentence complete. That started tongues wagging all over again on the issues of guilt, innocence and two-income families.

Spin City

8:30 p.m. on ABC

In "Suffragette City," Mike is in a dither over Caitlin's rekindled romance with her ex-husband (guest star Maurice Godin, "Working"). Speaking of relationships, Carter has one of his own going ... with Stuart (Alan Ruck). Well, they're not a real couple; they just play one on a mission to expose discrimination against gays.

Thursday's Best Bets

Golf
1 p.m. on ESPN

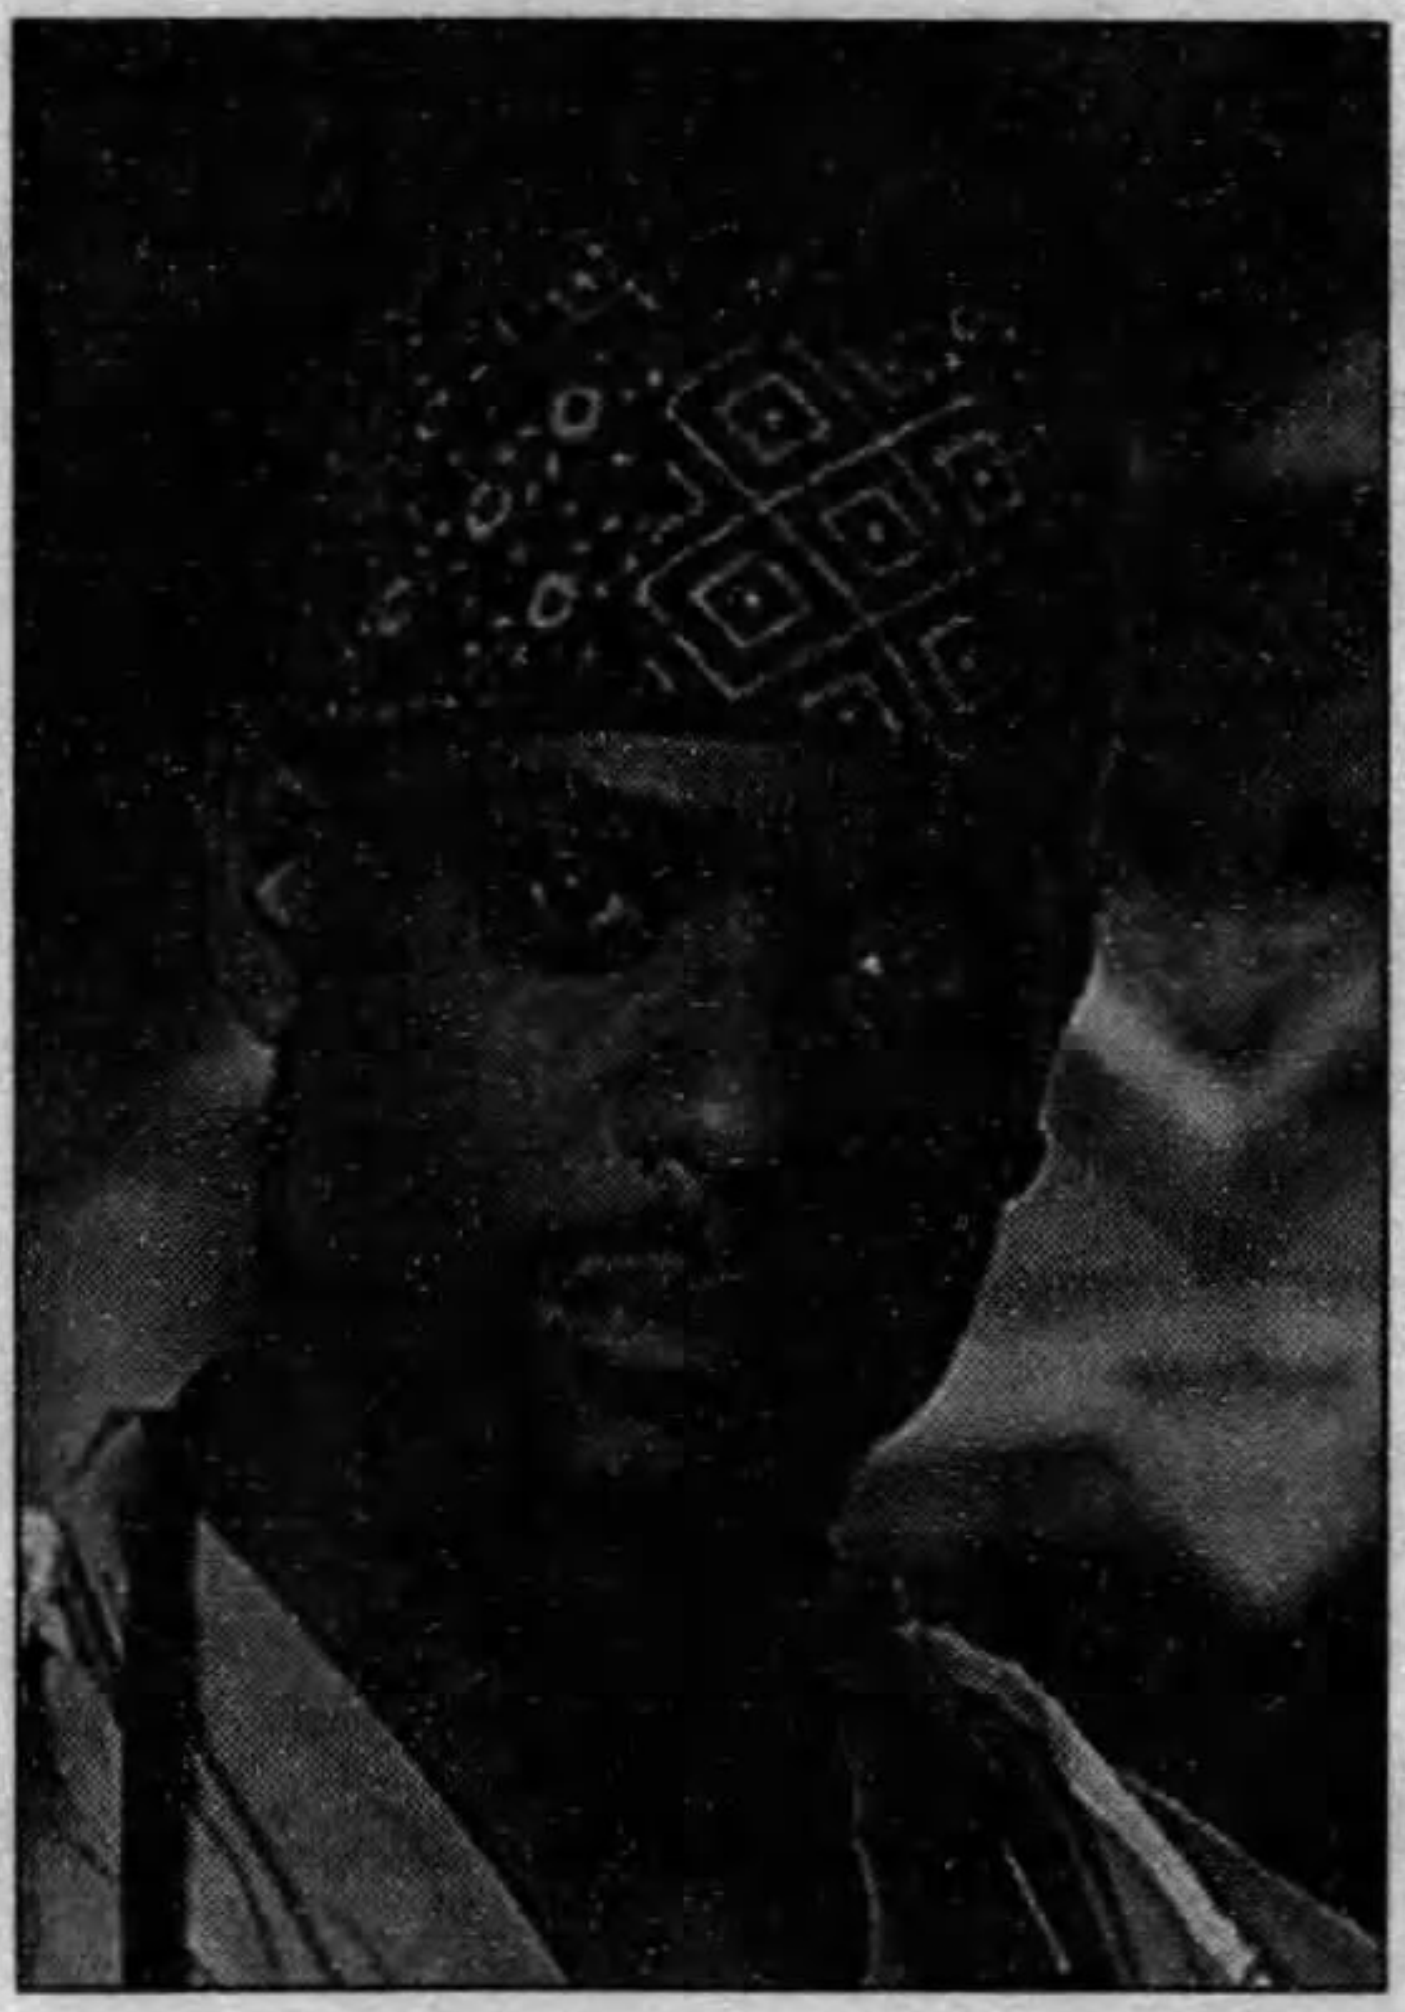
Golf junkies will get their fill today, as ESPN follows up coverage of the British Open with the opening round of the 55th U.S. Women's Open, from the Merit Club in Illinois. Hall of Famer Juli Inkster fired a record 16-under-par 272 to win by five strokes in 1999. She enters this week on a major hot streak that includes winning her second straight LPGA Championship title in June.

Friends
7 p.m. on NBC

Poor Joey (Matt LeBlanc). His relationship with Janine (Elle Macpherson) is heating up, but there's a problem: Her superior attitude toward his friends is driving him crazy. Just as he gets up the nerve to tell her off, she melts his anger with one of her incredible kisses. Rachel (Jennifer Aniston) has some fun with Phoebe (Lisa Kudrow), concocting a complicated scam to pass a new piece of furniture off as an antique. Courteney Cox Arquette also stars in "The One With the Apothecary Table."

Movie: Powder
7 p.m. on FOX

Sean Patrick Flanery ("The Young Indiana Jones Chronicles") stars as Jeremy, a k a Powder, a reclusive teen-age albino with an astronomical IQ and the power to conduct energy, the result of being struck by lightning in the womb.



Blair Underwood
CITY OF ANGELS

City of Angels
8 p.m. on CBS

In "Dress for Success," Dr. Turner (Blair Underwood) has the unenviable job of telling an NFL-bound football star that his playing days are over — and his walking days, too — after a devastating car accident. His colleagues, meanwhile, are dealing with some "inside jobs" — namely, Ed O'Malley's admission for overdosing on pain medication and Ron Harris' attempt to have some discreet surgery done. The latter is thwarted by Peeler (Viola Davis) and a cadre of fellow nurses who want to watch.

The Real Jesus Christ
8 p.m. on TLC

Several TV movies and a news special have attempted to tackle the mysteries surrounding Jesus Christ and the birth of the religion that bears his name. This special zeroes in on one in particular: the struggle to shape early Christianity. The infant church had two strong leaders: James, who many scholars believe was not just an apostle, but Jesus' biological brother, and Paul. The latter and his followers won out, and much of the New Testament's teachings are Paul's words. The program wonders how much more information about the mystery-shrouded life of Jesus himself James might have passed on.

Friday's Best Bets

Providence

7 p.m. on NBC

As his 60th birthday approaches, Jim (Mike Farrell) is thinking about setting down his stethoscope for good, a move that his children aren't wild about. They plan a surprise party in hopes of changing his mind. One of Syd's (Melina Kanakaredes) patients is also contemplating a big change. He's converting to Judaism and wants her to perform the necessary surgery. Robbie and Heather reach a crossroads in their relationship.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Donna Reed: I'll Take the Moon" profiles the Iowa farm girl who parlayed her beauty, talent and spunk into stardom, including a lead role in the beloved holiday classic "It's a Wonderful Life." She had a distinguished movie career, even winning an Oscar, but it was a TV role that made her a pop-culture icon and her name a synonym for "perfect mom." The hour remembers Reed the political activist as well as Reed the big- and small-screen star.

Invisible Man

7 p.m. on SCIFI

A high-profile case is just what the Agency needs to improve its standing with the Justice Department. So when a prominent technology tycoon is kidnapped, it sends Darien (Vincent Ventresca) jumping through the window of opportunity. But the man's death puts a serious crimp in the plan.

JAG

Movie: The Blair Witch Project

7 p.m. on SHOW

This superlow-budget horror tale was the hit of last summer, even sending shivers up the spines of those who knew it wasn't the true story it pretended to be. Heather Donahue, Michael Williams and Joshua Leonard star in the story of three student filmmakers who hit the woods in search of a legendary witch, never to return. Not scared enough yet? Stay tuned for "The Burkittsville 7," a short film about a hermit purported to have murdered seven children while under the influence of Her Witchiness.

JAG

8 p.m. on CBS

In "People v. Gunny," a fight outside a gay bar hits close to home for the folks in the JAG office. Two of their own were involved: Gunny (Randy Vasquez), now facing trial on gay-bashing charges, and Tiner (Chuck Carrington), whose companion was Gunny's target. Their colleagues may not look at either man the same way again ... especially Tiner. The rule is "Don't ask, don't tell," but Mac (Catherine Bell) thinks a little asking and telling is just what's needed to defuse the tension.

Track and Field

12 p.m. on NBC

The U.S. Olympic Track and Field trials continue, with the late-morning schedule in Sacramento, Calif., offering the beginning and end to various events. In the finals of the triple jump, seven-time national champion Sheila Hudson is a strong bet to make her second Olympic team.

Movie: The Huntress

6 p.m. on USA

Famed bounty hunter Ralph "Papa" Thorson is killed, and his widow, Dottie (Annette O'Toole), puts her own life on the line to find the person who did it. Aleksa Palladino ("A Cool, Dry Place") plays Thorson's 18-year-old daughter, who helps Mom hunt down the killer as well as rebuild Dad's business. O'Toole reprises the role of Dottie in USA's "The Huntress" series, premiering next week.

Movie: Ice

7 p.m. on ABC

Forget global warming. In this made-for-TV sci-fi thriller from 1998, the Northern Hemisphere is seriously chillin', thanks to a close encounter with a frozen planet. Things are particularly nasty in Los Angeles, where they're not used to temps in the 40s, let alone a new ice age. Soap stars Grant Show ("Melrose Place") and Eva LaRue Callahan ("All My Children") star.

Movie: Fluke

7 p.m. on NBC

Matthew Modine plays a young father who is reincarnated as a lovable dog named Fluke after dying in an auto accident. Missing his wife and son, Fluke sets out to find them, and encounters plenty of trouble along the way. Samuel L. Jackson lends his voice as one of Fluke's canine friends.

The Human Sexes

7 p.m. on TLC

The subject is sex in both senses of the word — gender and relations — in a trio of encore programs. First, "Gender Wars" looks at how the urban environment has fueled conflict between men and women. Then zoologist Desmond Morris looks at the science behind sexuality and falling in love, finally, an undertsanding special tackles the subject.

Movie: Tea With Mussolini

7 p.m. on SHOW

Maggie Smith won a BAFTA Film Award — the British equivalent of the Oscar — for her performance in this 1999 comedy-drama. She plays Lady Hester, the unofficial leader of the Scorpioni, an eccentric band of Englishwomen living in Florence, Italy, in the 1930s. Concerned about her countrymen's fate under Fascism, she takes tea with Il Duce.

Female doctors cross scalpels in new series "Strong Medicine"

By John Crook

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

Two female doctors in the field of women's medicine frequently find themselves on different philosophical sides of the operating table in "Strong Medicine," a new weekly drama premiering Sunday, July 23, on Lifetime.

"Medicine" marks a welcome return to series television by Janine Turner ("Northern Exposure"), who plays Dr. Dana Stowe, a Harvard-educated surgeon heading up research studies at Philadelphia's prestigious Rittenhouse Hospital.

Not so lucky is Dr. Luisa "Lu" Delgado (Rosa Blasi), a young Latina physician struggling to keep her inner-city clinic open with the help of a male "midwife," Peter Riggs (Josh Coxx), and her feisty receptionist, Lana Hawkins (Jenifer Lewis).

After Lu approaches Rittenhouse chief of staff Dr. Robert Jackson (Philip Casnoff) for a loan, he sends Dana to check out the clinic, where the two women instantly have a glaring clash in personal styles. Dana is aghast that Lu freely bends the rules to help her patients, many of them junkies, while Lu is dismayed that Dana seems to value policy over people.

Ultimately, Dr. Lydia Emerson (guest star Whoopi Goldberg, also an executive producer on the show) intercedes and brings Lu onto the staff of the Rittenhouse Women's Health Center, realizing that both Lu and Dana share a common passion for their field.

Hiring Turner to play Dana is an inspired piece of casting. The actress's natural warmth helps humanize the character, who comes off as emotionally detached in the first episode, at least in comparison with Blasi's endearing Lu.

"A lot of the scenes that show different colors to Dana's character were cut from the first script, because they decided to develop them more gradually," Turner explains, "but that left my character without some of the human aspects she reveals in later episodes, where you see many more dimensions to her.

"Dana is a character who has a lot of walls. As the series evolves, the walls start to come down and you begin to see what is really going on inside this woman."

Those upcoming revelations include Dana's Southern roots in Virginia, as well as some "mother issues" that would strike a familiar chord with Maggie O'Connell, the headstrong but adorable bush pilot Turner played on "Northern Exposure." Viewers also can expect Dana to get a well-deserved pie in the face (figuratively speaking) from time to time when she starts to take herself too seriously.

Blasi, a relative newcomer making her dramatic series debut here, only had two weeks between being cast and reporting for work. She visited a clinic in the Los Angeles area to soak up the atmosphere but says she mainly relies on an invaluable adviser on the set with her.

"What's really helpful is that every minute there is a paramedic and ER nurse at my side," Blasi says, referring to Susie Schelling, the show's medical and technical adviser. "She's there to explain to me what the words are or to show me how to use all the instruments in the proper medical procedure: 'Nope, do it again. Nope, you just killed that guy!'

Franken's Stuart Smalley hit the movies

By Taylor Michaels

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

How many "Saturday Night Live" sketches have evolved into full feature films? I know of "The Blues Brothers," "Superstar," "It's Pat," "Coneheads" and the "Wayne's World" movies. -A.M.S. in Indiana.

You missed a couple: "Stuart Saves His Family," featuring Al Franken's Stuart Smalley character, and "A Night at the Roxbury," with Chris Kattan and Will Ferrell as the club-hopping Roxbury Guys.

Currently in post-production is "The Ladies Man," with Tim Meadows bringing his Courvoisier-sipping Casanova to the big screen. Recently, Universal Pictures announced it was canceling "Dieter," a proposed film featuring Mike Myers' monkey-loving character from the "Sprockets" sketches.

I am an old lady in a constant argument with my son, who insists that Jean and Maureen Stapleton are sisters. I say they are not. Who is right? -Jeanne Markovits, El Paso, Texas.

You are. The two actresses are not related.

Who were the two actors who played Benny and Gary on "Rhoda"? Didn't the "Gary" actor later play Libby's boss on "Life Goes On"? Finally, who was the third girl in "Paper Dolls" with Leah Remini and Halle Berry? -Nancy Welty, Lawrenceville, Ga.

I'm afraid you have your "Rhoda" guys reversed. Ron Silver ("Veronica's Closet)" played Gary Levy. Ray Buktenica, who played Benny Goodwin, later starred as Libby's ad agency boss, Jerry Berkson, on "Life Goes On."

You also have your "Dolls" confused. Alison Elliott co-starred with Remini and Berry in "Living Dolls," a 1989 ABC sitcom. "Paper Dolls" was a 1982 TV movie starring Joan Collins, Daryl Hannah and Marc Singer. In 1984, the TV movie "Paper Dolls II" starred Lloyd Bridges and Morgan Fairchild, among many others.

Sunday's Best Bets

Movie: Larger Than Life

6 p.m. on ABC

A motivational speaker (Bill Murray) becomes a reluctant animal handler when his long-absent father, a circus clown, leaves him an elephant. Craziness ensues as he tries to get the big beast across the country with two possible goals in mind: another circus or reintroduction to the wild.

Movie: Race Against Time

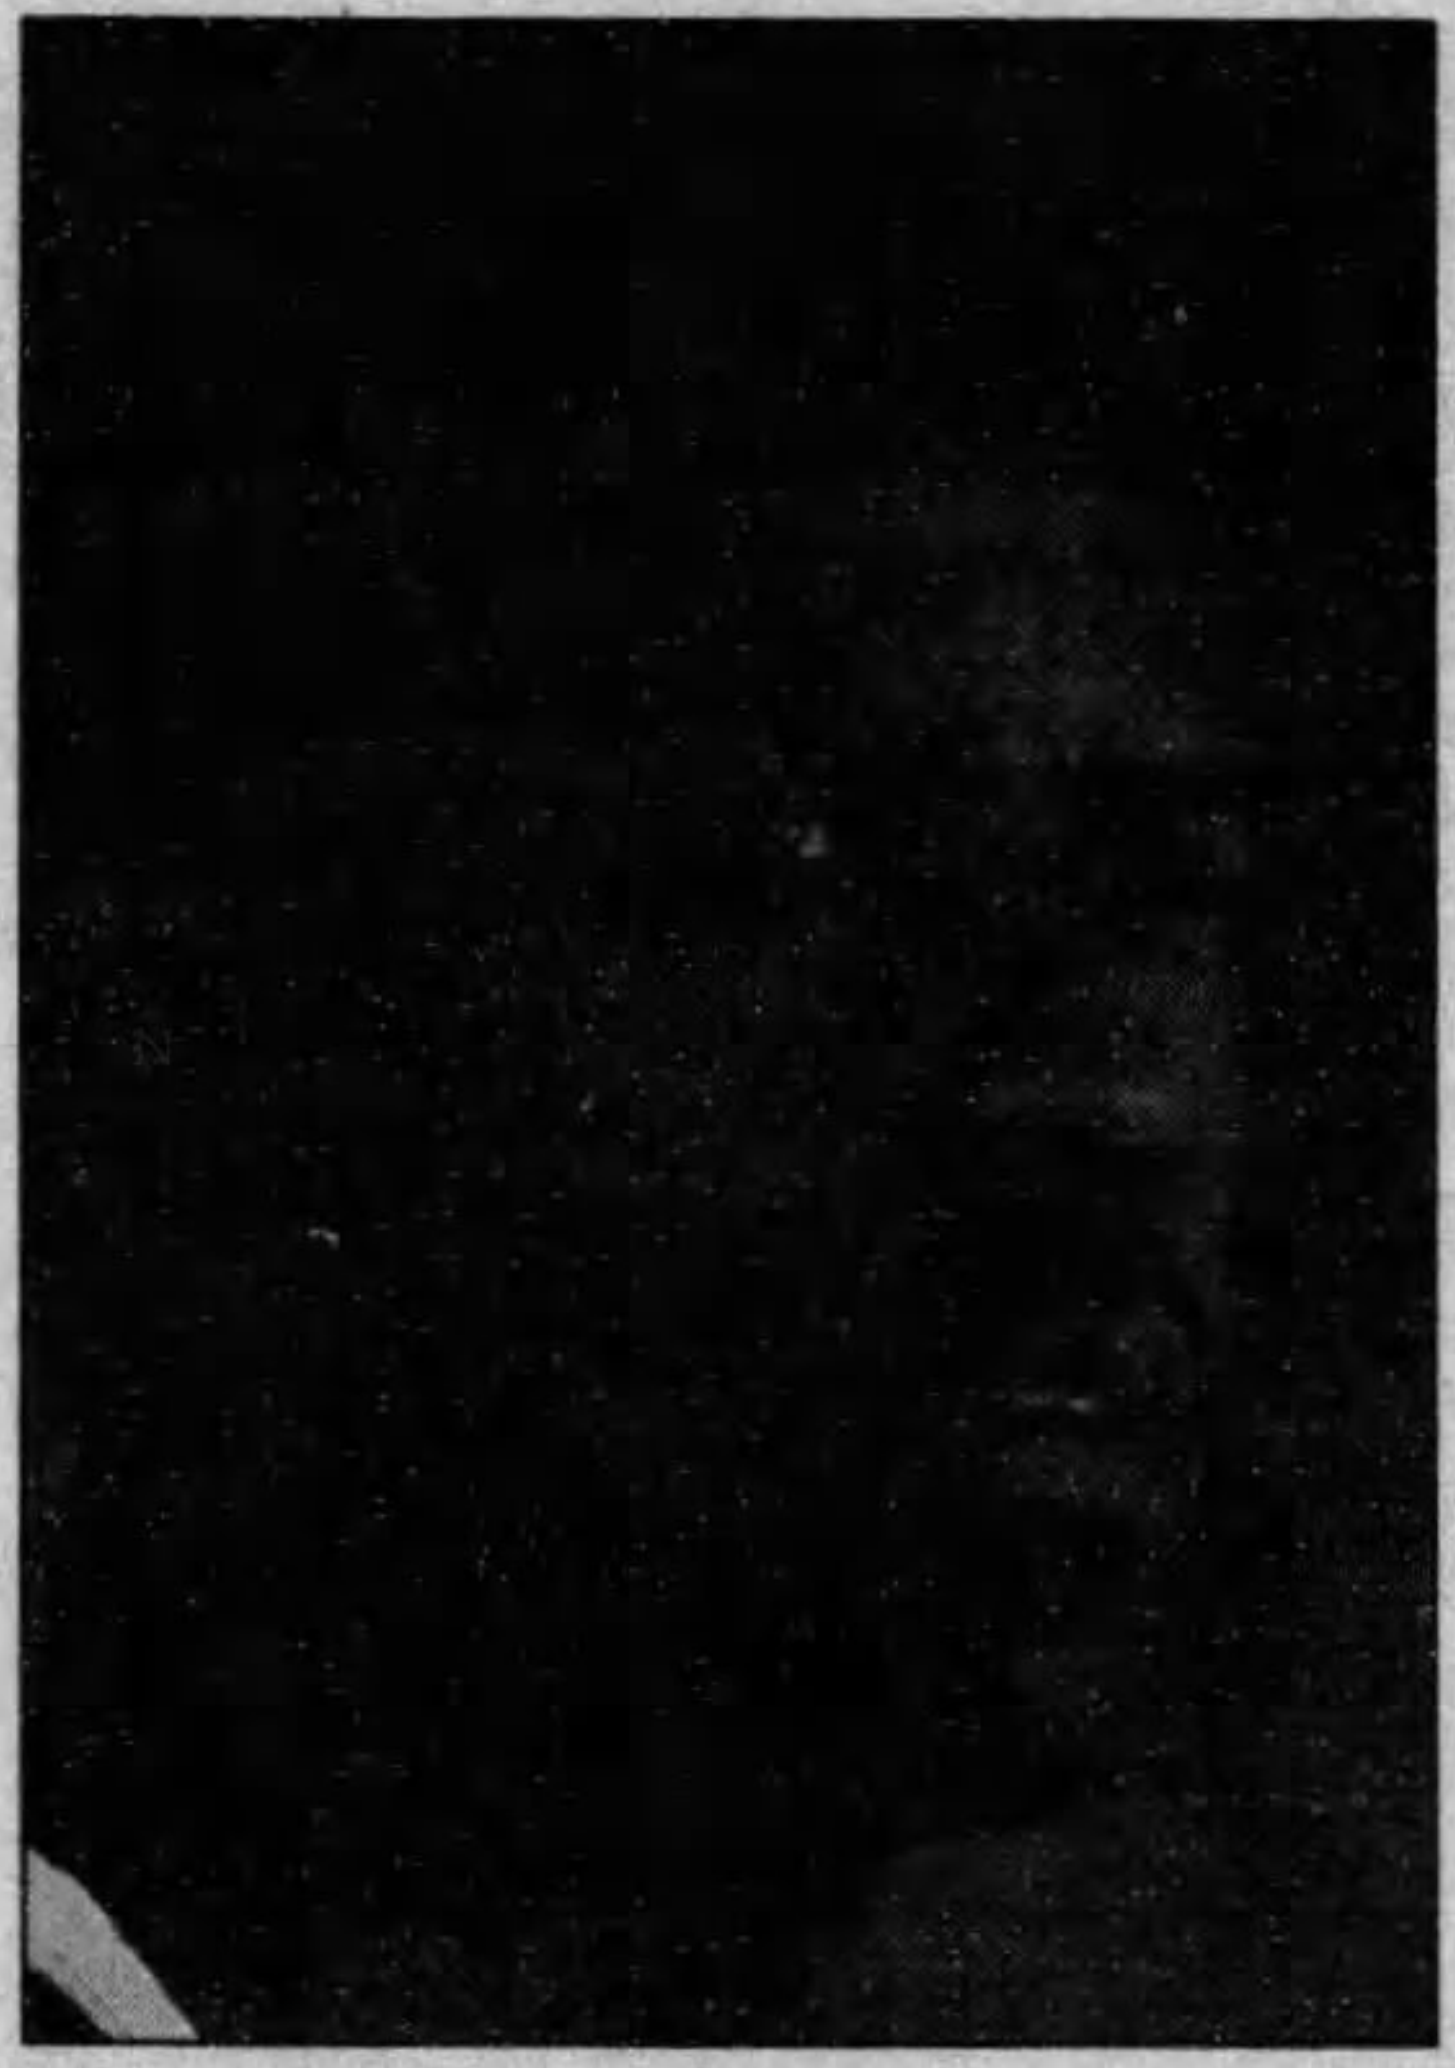
7 p.m. on TNT

Jim Gabriel (Eric Roberts) makes the ultimate sacrifice for his critically ill son: selling his own organs to pay the medical bills. He's to make payment in one year's time ... with his life. But when his son dies, the organ company wants the goods immediately. Jim flees for his life with the help of a bounty hunter (Sarah Wynter) and a dissident from the organ bank (Diane Venora). Chris Sarandon and Cary Elwes also star in this futuristic new thriller.

Major League Baseball

7 p.m. on ESPN

As the pennant races begin to heat up, the end of another weekend of baseball features the New York Mets at the Atlanta Braves, two teams battling atop the National League East. Coming into this three-game set, the Mets held a slight one-game advantage in the season series, an indication of how close these teams match up.



Denzel Washington
DEVIL IN A BLUE DRESS

Movie: Devil in a Blue Dress

8 p.m. on NBC

Downtrodden detective Easy Rawlins (Denzel Washington) is hired to locate a missing woman and uncovers the dark side of 1948 Los Angeles in all its sordid glory. The assignment leads him into a web of blackmail, murder, racism and corruption that reaches from the criminal underworld all the way to City Hall.

Strong Medicine

8 p.m. on LIFE

Dr. Luisa "Lu" Delgado is a street-smart doctor who's willing to ignore medical ethics to save the patients at her inner-city women's clinic. Dr. Dana Stowe is a no-nonsense, high-ranking surgeon at a prestigious hospital who's appalled at Lu's methods. When the two women clash over a funding request for the clinic, a visiting doctor (Whoopi Goldberg) offers a compromise: merging Lu's clinic with Dana's practice. That's the easy part; the hard part will be merging their very different approaches to medicine. Goldberg is executive producer of this new drama series, which also stars Josh Coxx and Jenifer Lewis.

New teen talk show developed

By Lorri Antosz Benson

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Vacation time brings a whole new group of viewers to daytime television: teen-agers.

High-school and college students, who spend much of their time during the year in classrooms or studying, spend their summers in front of the TV.

This may be a slight exaggeration, but the early summer ratings reflect a surge for the younger-skewing talkers, such as Montel Williams, Ricki Lake and Jerry Springer.

Does this information warm the hearts of parents everywhere? Are teen-agers nodding and saying, "Yeah, Jerry rules"? Yes? Fear not. Out of Carbondale, Colo., comes "Be Heard! America's Youth Forum","" a program designed to give youths a voice and fill a teen-age programming void in the marketplace.

The show's producer, Chris Tribble, hopes America is ready for a youth talk show, because he believes the nation's children need to talk and, of course, be heard.

Talk the Talk

"It's not a good sign that (the talk show) numbers go up in the summer," Tribble says. "Hosts like Ricki Lake and Montel hit subjects on youth issues, but it's never with the youth. It's some expert media person with the answers, not kids."

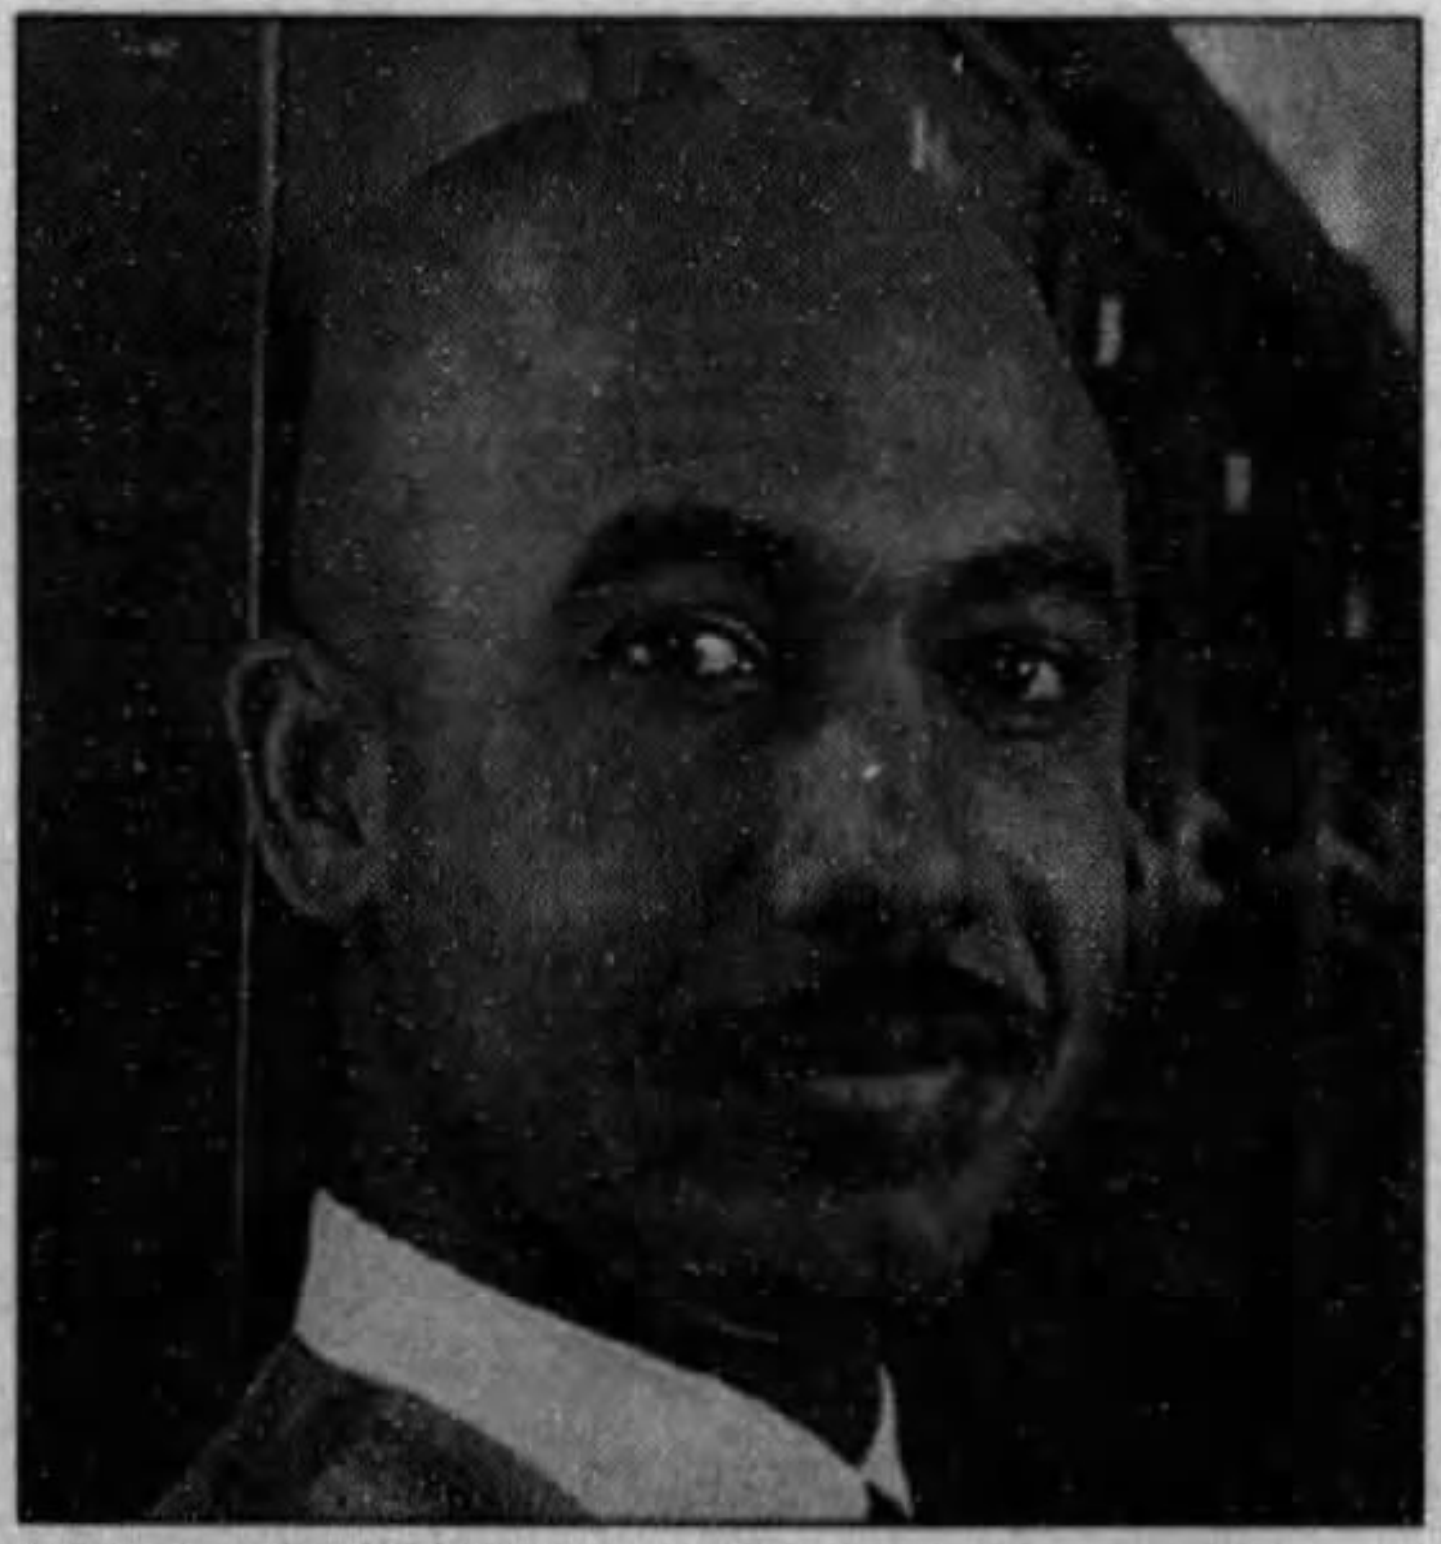
The father of two also sees more negative stories about adolescents in the news than positive stories.

"That really bothers the kids. They get a bad connotation that they don't deserve," he says.

"Be Heard" is in a six-part pilot stage, having shot the first of three shows. It is scheduled to air on PBS in August, in a "Politically Incorrect"-type format.

The remaining three pilot shows will be studio-audience-driven and will be taped next week in — where else? — a mall.

"That's where the kids hang out," Tribble says, "so I contacted a company with 52 malls in the United States. I wanted to see if they would underwrite the show, and they asked if we could shoot it in the Citadel Mall in Colorado Springs.



Montel Williams

"I can see traveling the show — "Be Heard" Colorado Springs, "Be Heard" L.A., "Be Heard" Chicago — in malls all over the country."

Tribble says he has teen advisory groups in place to identify issues and help with research because "kids need some kind of ownership. I'd even love to see it youth-produced eventually."

Monday's Best Bets

Sports on the Silver Screen

6 p.m. on HBO

Even nonfans of sports occasionally enjoy a movie with athletics as the theme; witness the popularity of "Space Jam," "Field of Dreams" and the "Rocky" series. This 90-minute special explores our fascination with such films through clips from a variety of sports movies and interviews with actors and athletes, including narrative by columnist Frank Deford. Interviewees include Billy Crystal, Gale Sayers, Jimmy Piersall, James Earl Jones, Tom Selleck and Talia Shire. Films include "Bull Durham," "Bang the Drum Slowly" and "White Men Can't Jump."

Movie: Double Platinum

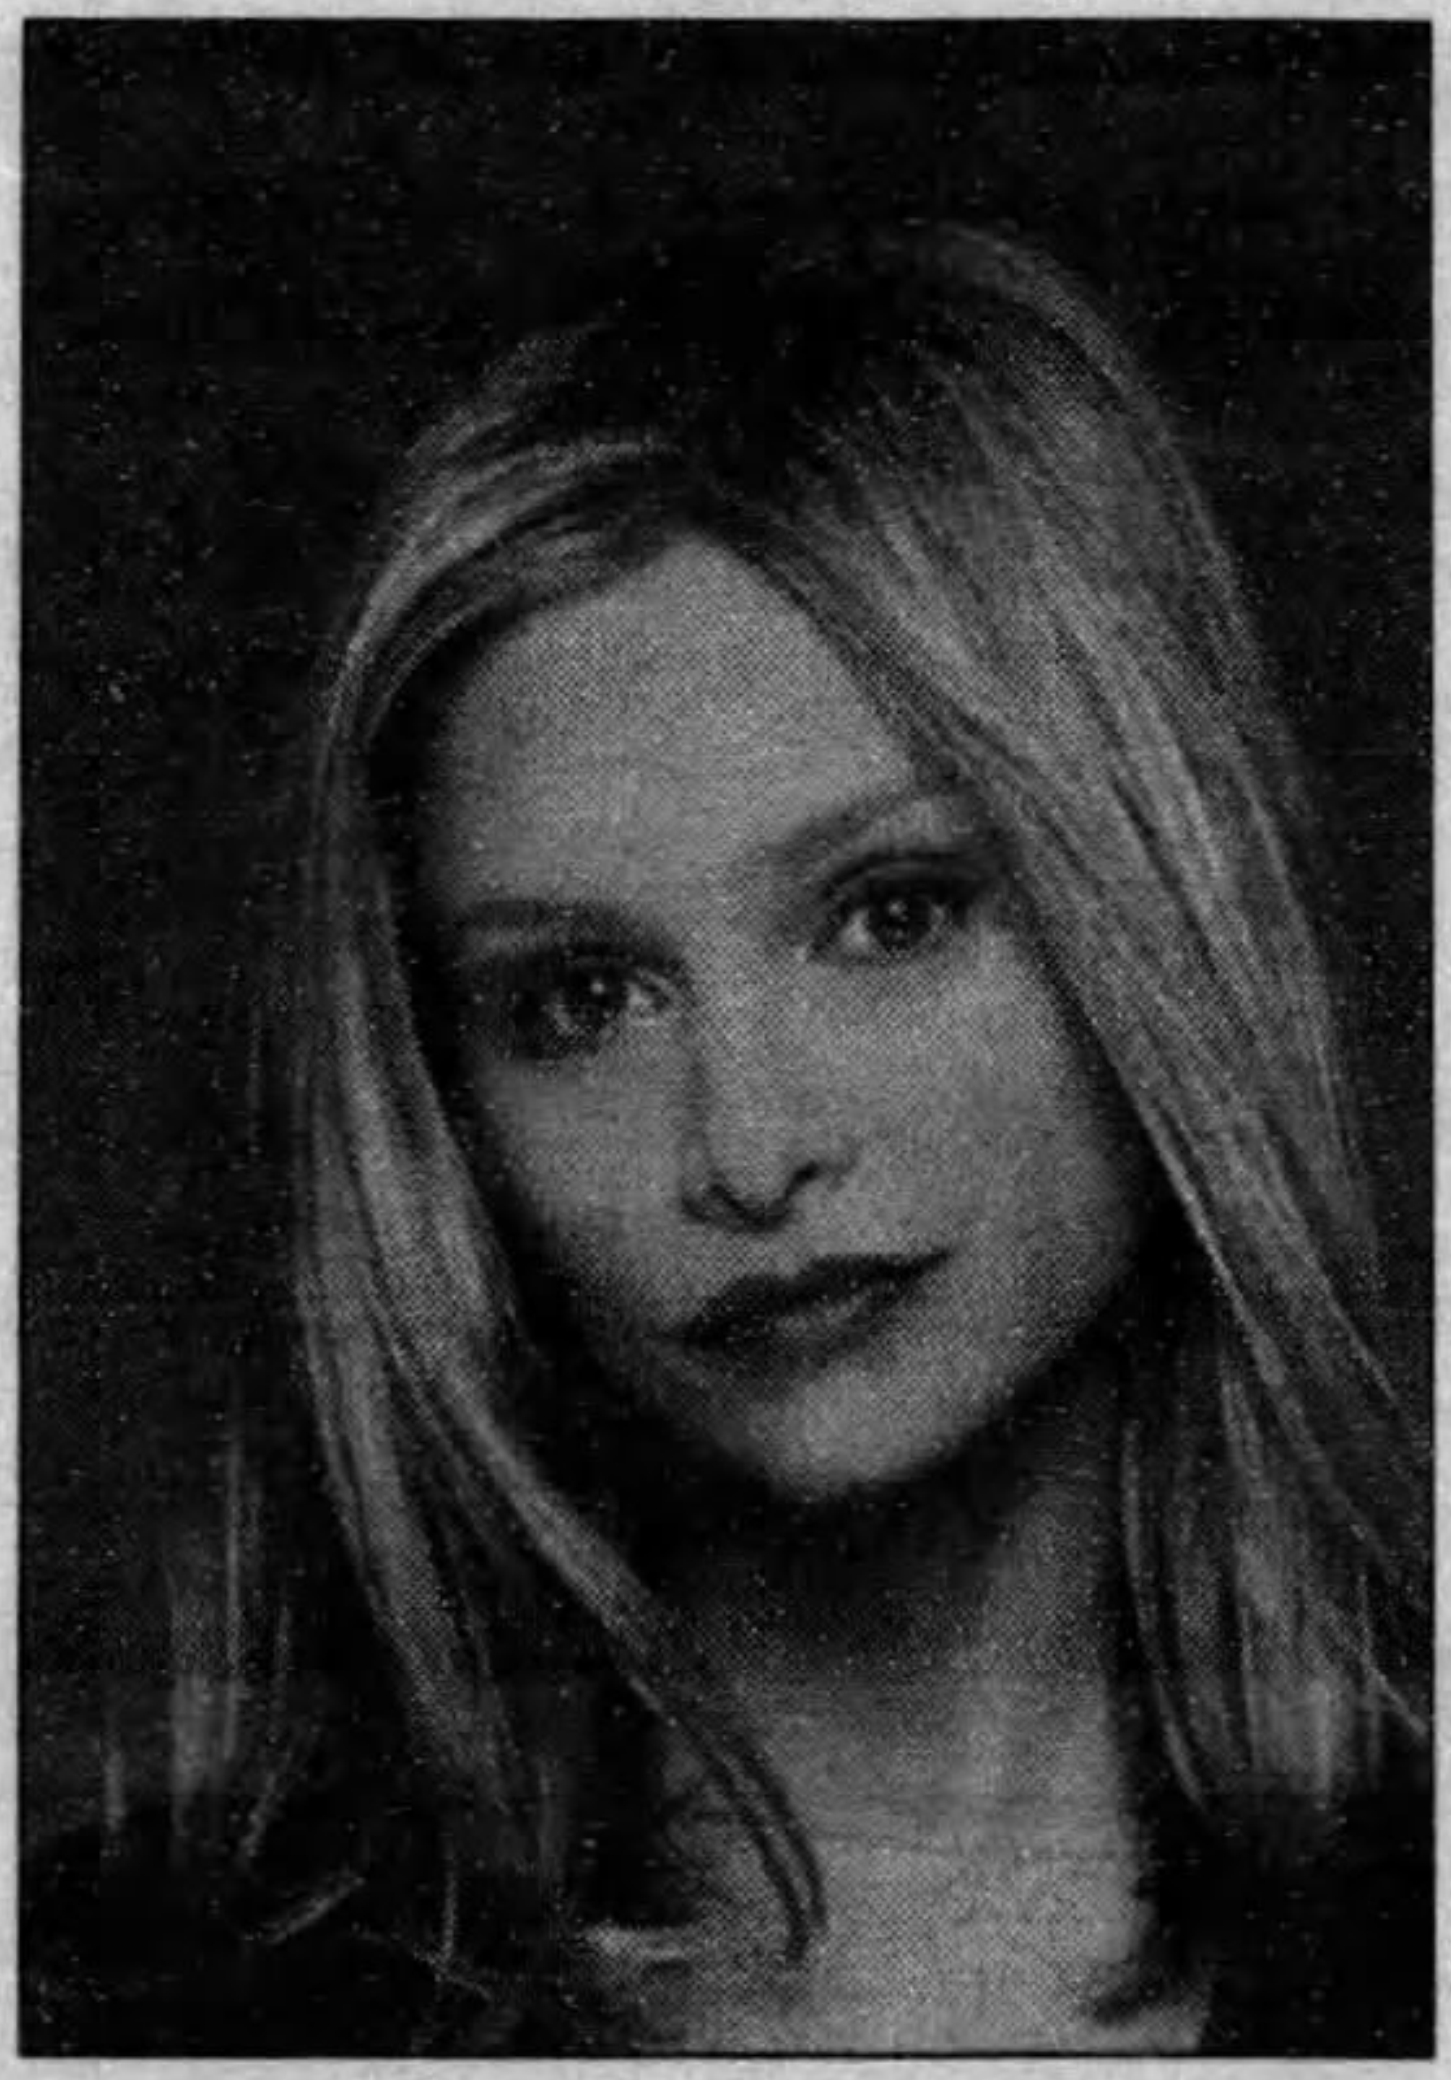
7 p.m. on ABC

Singing superstars Diana Ross and Brandy star in this poignant drama about family and fame. Ross portrays a woman who gives up her daughter to pursue a music career. Brandy plays the daughter as a young adult, who is following her own musical dreams when she is reunited with the mother who left her.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Harrison Ford: The Reluctant Hero" profiles the self-confessed underachiever from Chicago who had almost abandoned his dream of an acting career in favor of carpentry when director George Lucas cast him as Han Solo in "Star Wars." That intergalactic hit propelled Ford into a career that saw him rise to become the premier leading man of his day.



Calista Flockhart
ALLY MCBEAL

Ally McBeal

8 p.m. on FOX

In "Pursuit of Loneliness," Ally (Calista Flockhart) rebuffs the advances of a man at her favorite coffee shop but is no match for his persistence. Speaking of advances, Billy (Gil Bellows) is making some romantic overtures of his own to a coworker. Cage (Peter MacNicol) detects some snobbish tendencies in Nelle (Portia de Rossi). Greg Germann also stars.

Treasures of the Royal Captain

8 p.m. on DISC

Franck Goddio is at it again. The underwater explorer who brought us "Napoleon's Lost Fleet" and "Cleopatra's Palace: In Search of a Legend" goes treasure hunting off the Philippines, where the Royal Captain, a British trading ship, was wrecked in 1773. Footage of Goddio's crew retrieving precious porcelain and other artifacts is interspersed with re-enactments of life aboard the vessel in its heyday. Actor Laurence Fishburne narrates.

Tuesday's Best Bets

3rd Rock From the Sun

7 p.m. on NBC

The family's vintage Rambler needs replacing after Dick (John Lithgow) gets in a wreck. But he can't bring himself to say goodbye to the old car — or what's left of it. Speaking of inappropriate attachments, Harry (French Stewart) becomes best buddies with an overly friendly insurance agent in "The Fifth Solomon."

Buffy the Vampire Slayer

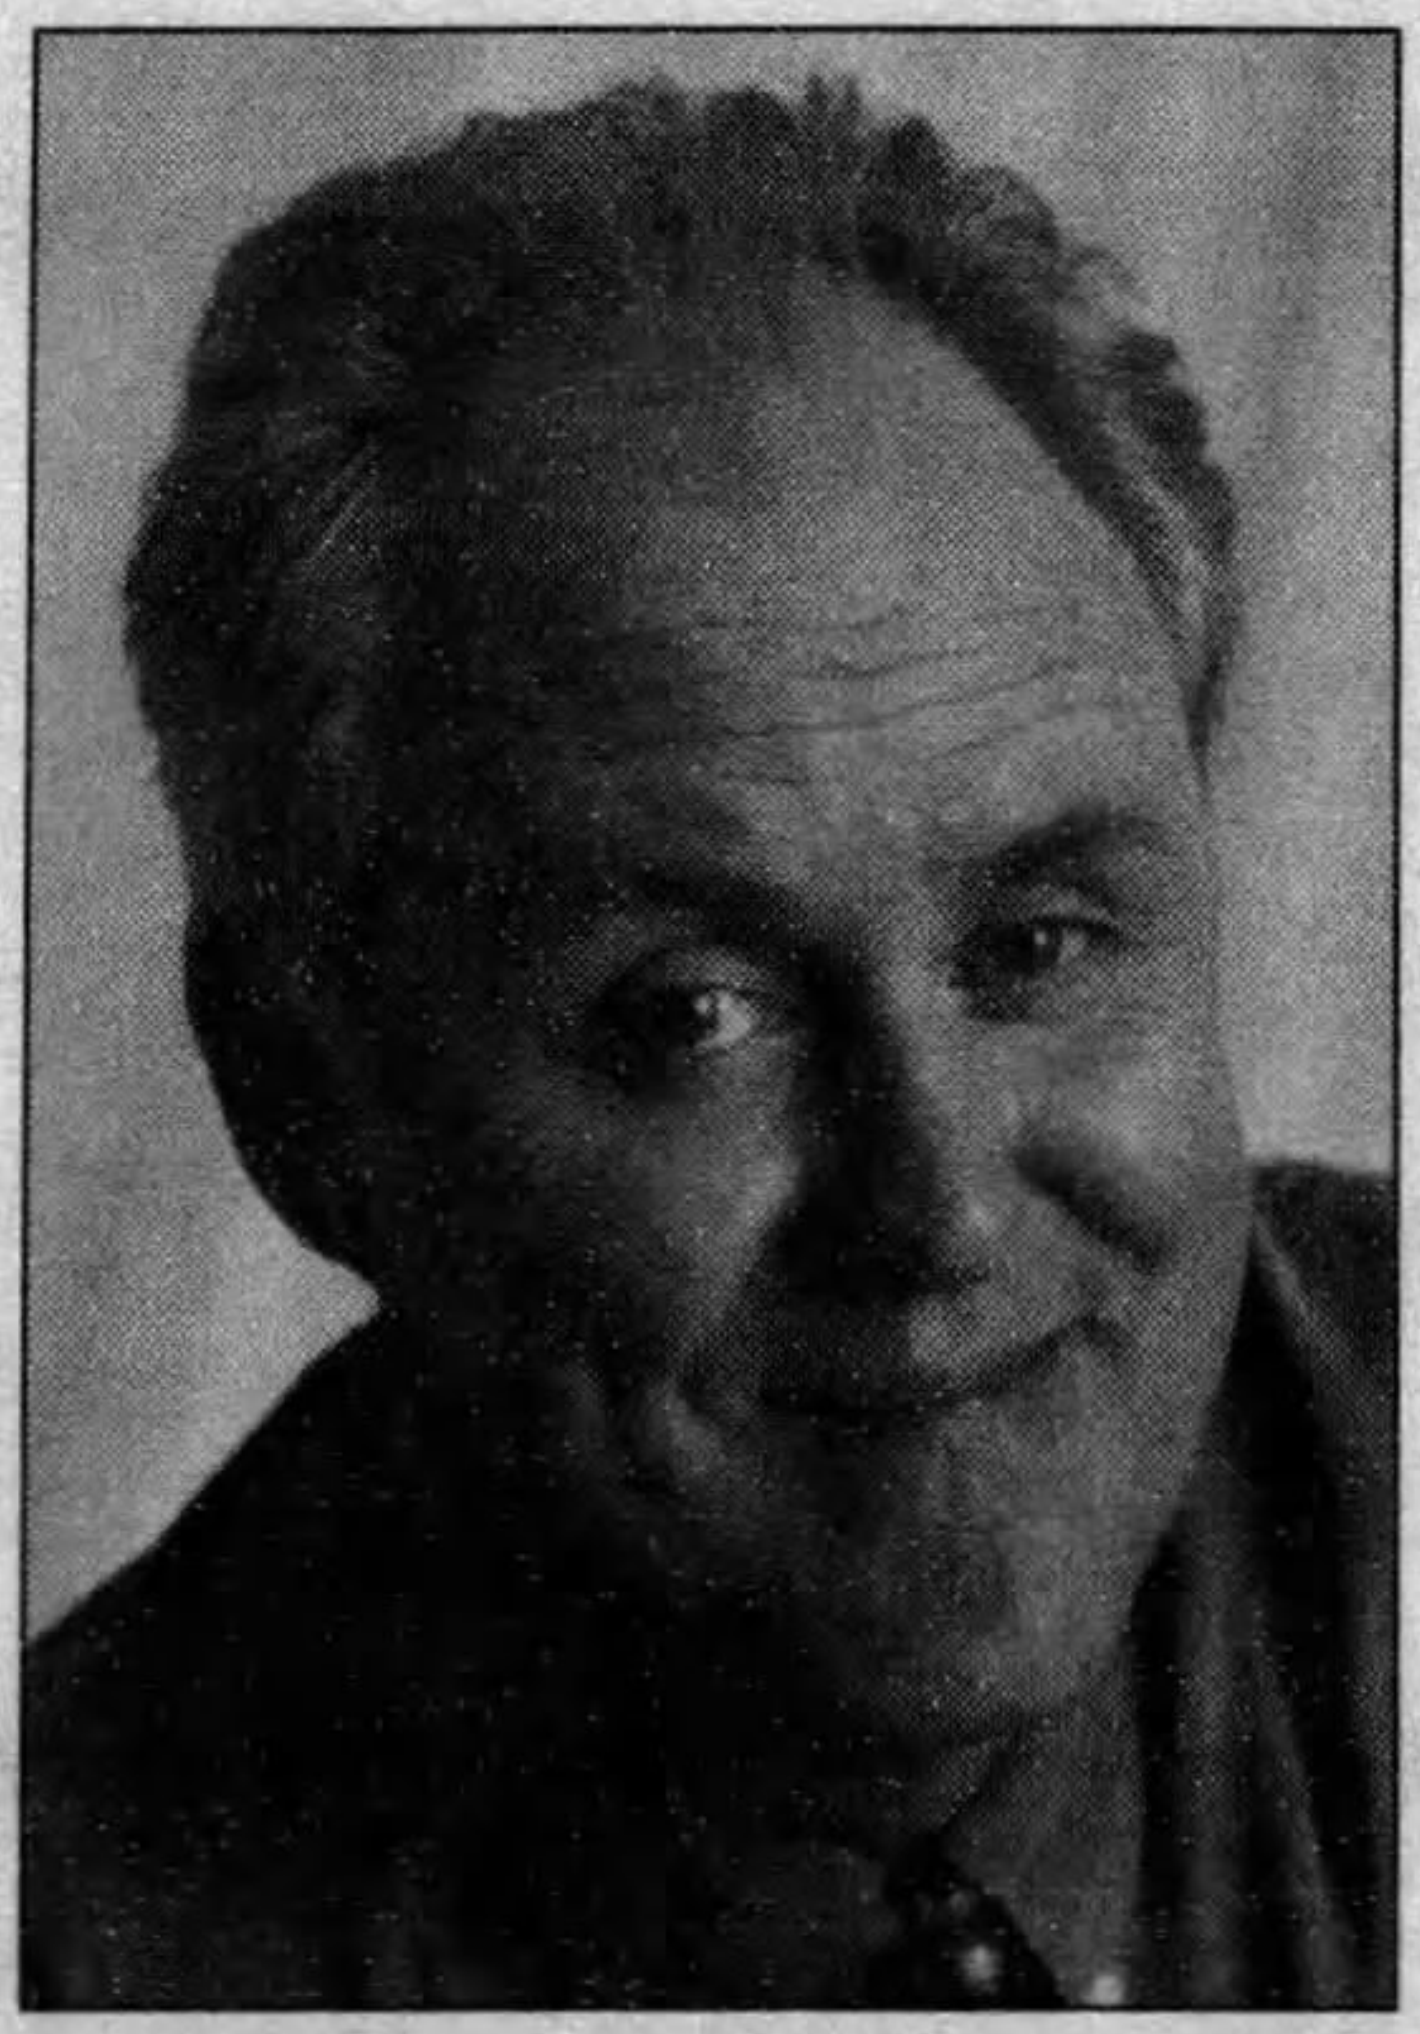
7 p.m. on WB

Angel (David Boreanaz) secretly visits Sunnydale to protect Buffy (Sarah Michelle Gellar) from vengeful American Indian spirits that materialize at Thanksgiving in "Pangs." The two-part encore crossover story continues on "Angel" with "I Will Remember You," as an incensed Buffy heads to Los Angeles to confront Angel about the trip. She finds him fresh from a battle with a demon that's given him some new powers ... and possibly a second chance with her.

Movie: They Nest

7 p.m. on USA

An African sailor's body washes up unseen on the shore of an island off the Maine coast, complete with a colony of deadly insects, which are soon in search of new human hosts. A troubled city doctor (Thomas Calabro, "Melrose Place") who owns a home on the island faces a pack of resentful locals as he tries to explain the danger they're in and get them out alive. Dean Stockwell, Kristen Dalton and John Savage also star in this new skin-crawler.



John Lithgow
3RD ROCK FROM THE SUN

Love & Money

7:30 p.m. on CBS

In "Make Doom for Daddy," Nicholas' (David Ogden Stiers) less-than-perfect relationships with son Nicky and prospective son-in-law Eamon (John Livingston, Brian Van Holt) are making him sick. After landing in the hospital with a stress attack, he decides to defuse the situation by getting to know them better. But after a "serious talk" with Nicky and a hockey game with Eamon, he realizes his attempt at a cure is worse than the disease. Paget Brewster and Swoosie Kurtz also star.

Dharma & Greg

8 p.m. on ABC

In "A Night to Remember," Greg (Thomas Gibson) is horrified when Dharma (Jenna Elfman) attempts to help Donald (guest star J.D. Walsh) have a remarkable first-time sexual experience. The discussion about memories of youth prompts Greg to become nostalgic about his own childhood, but ultimately he decides that there is nothing like the present.

Wednesday's Best Bets

On the Inside
7 p.m. on DISC

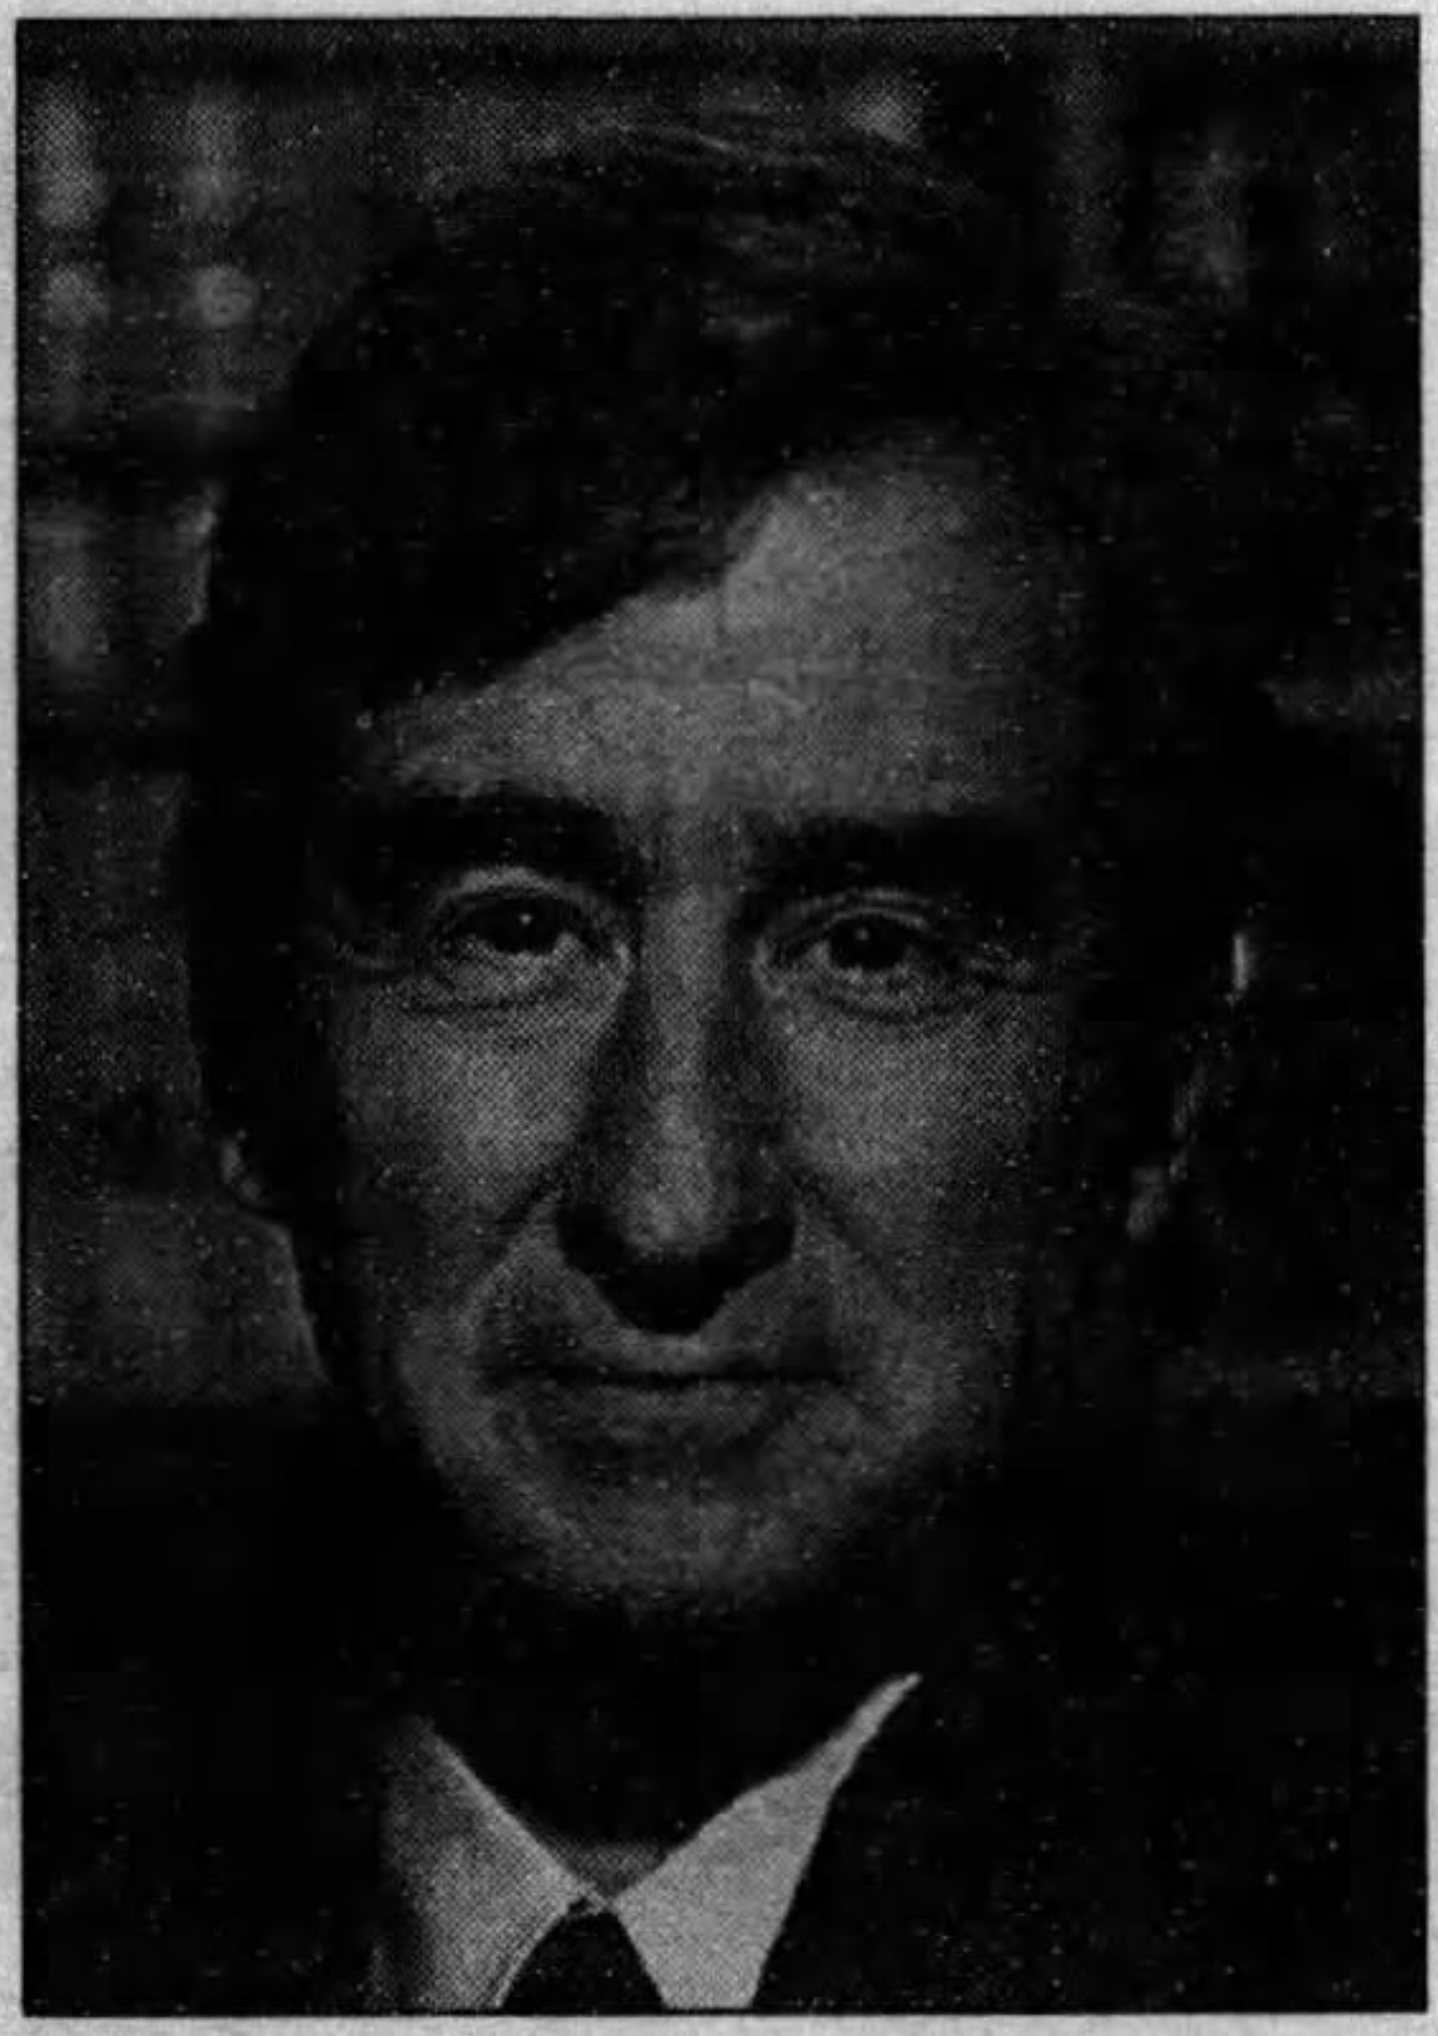
Those cigarette smokers who would rather fight than switch look wishy-washy next to Harley-Davidson aficionados. "Motorcycle Mania" explores the mystique of this American icon and the people who love their "hogs." There's a lot of the rugged individualist and a bit of the outlaw in the Harley image, and that's a blessing for bike customizers such as the aptly named Jesse James, who shows off some of his best work.

Norm
7:30 p.m. on ABC

In "The New Boss," Norm and Laurie's (Norm Macdonald, Laurie Metcalf) friendship is threatened by the arrival of the new man in charge, Mr. Denby (Max Wright). Norm thinks he's terrific, but Laurie can't stand him. To add insult to injury, Denby and Norm become best buddies, leaving Laurie standing on the sidelines and considering a new job.

The West Wing
8 p.m. on NBC

The president (Martin Sheen) and his staff have far more than place cards and protocol on their minds as they assemble for a state dinner honoring the Indonesian president. The FBI is in a standoff with survivalists, truckers across the country are threatening to strike, and a fleet of aircraft carriers is in the path of a hurricane. And guess who's coming to dinner! None other than Laurie (Lisa Edelstein), Sam's (Rob Lowe) call-girl pal. Stockard Channing also stars in "The State Dinner."



Sam Waterston
LAW & ORDER

Movie: Meat Loaf: To Hell and Back
8 p.m. on VH1

W. Earl Brown ("There's Something About Mary," "Deep Impact") stars in this new biodrama about the portly singer who scored a huge hit in the 1970s with his "Bat out of Hell." Actually, he scored several hits with that album: "Paradise by the Dashboard Light," "Two out of Three Ain't Bad" and "You Took the Words Right out of My Mouth." He fell as quickly as he rose, as emotional, drug and financial problems nearly destroyed him ... but not permanently. Dedee Pfeiffer ("Cybill," "For Your Love") also stars.

Law & Order
9 p.m. on NBC

Nobody does outraged intensity quite like Sam Waterston, and his character, prosecutor Jack McCoy, has plenty of it in "Gunshow." When a woman-hating gunman kills 15 people in Central Park, McCoy makes it his business to go after not only the accused killer, but the company that made his gun. Jerry Orbach, Jesse L. Martin and Angie Harmon also star.

Movie: Event Horizon

7 p.m. on FOX

A time-bending spaceship called the Event Horizon is located orbiting Neptune after being missing for seven years, and a rescue ship comes to check it out. There's no evidence of human life aboard the long-lost vessel, but it is very much inhabited ... by a terrifying, telepathic entity that can bring to vivid life the demons in the minds of the rescue ship's crew members. Laurence Fishburne, Sam Neill, Joely Richardson and Kathleen Quinlan star in this sci-fi horror tale from 1997.

EVENT HORIZON

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Judge Judy: Sitting in Judgment" profiles the Brooklyn-born lawyer who became a TV star after getting national media attention as a Family Court judge for her no-nonsense, no-excuses attitude.

Daddio

7:30 p.m. on NBC

Chris (Michael Chiklis) is papa non grata with the mommies group after bringing contraband munchies into its gathering place. The whole gang is thrown out, then a battle with Barb (Amy Wilson) over the issue gets him banned from the group. Back home, Chris and Linda hire Max out to Rod (Kevin Crowley) in hopes he'll learn some responsibility, but Rod turns out to be more of a labor negotiator than a taskmaster ... and a poor one at that.

'N Sync Live From Madison Square Garden

8 p.m. on HBO

HBO was planning to use more than 18 cameras to capture all the action as Lance, Chris, Joey, JC and Justin — a k a 'N Sync — take a bite out of the Big Apple. With the boy band riding high on the success of its sophomore album, "No Strings Attached," the show promises to be a lively mix of old and new hits.

Friday's Best Bets

ovie: When Harry et Sally

20 p.m. on TMC

Nora Ephron's screenplay for this 89 comedy-drama earned an Os- r nomination. Billy Crystal and eg Ryan play the title characters, ho swim in a river of denial over eir growing attraction to each her during a 12-year on-again, f-again friendship.

abrina, the Teenage itch

p.m. on ABC

A valentine from a secret admir- r makes Sabrina (Melissa Joan art) sick, and not because it's drip- ng with syrupy sentiment. Her diagnosis is Candy Heart Syndrome, which will destroy her ability to love unless she can put the brakes on her anonymous suitor. Valentine's Day also finds Hilda (Caroline Rhea) bitten by the love bug and conjuring up her own dream man: Daniel Boone (guest star Matt Battaglia, "Avalon: Beyond the Abyss"). Phil Fondacaro and Beth Broderick also star in "Love in Bloom."

Phil Fondacaro and Melissa Joan Hart
SABRINA, THE TEENAGE WITXH

Baby Blues

7 p.m. on WB

Rick Kirkman and Jerry Scott's comic strip about a pair of harried suburban parents is the inspiration for this new animated sitcom. Julia Sweeney and Mike O'Malley provide the voices of Wanda and Darryl MacPherson, who are trying to cope with the demands of their little daughter, Zoe, and the wild behavior of 8-year-old neighbor Rodney. Nicole Sullivan ("Mad TV") and Diedrich Bader ("The Drew Carey Show") also provide voices.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Art Linkletter: Made for TV" profiles the beloved host of "People Are Funny" and "Art Linkletter's House Party" on radio and TV, whose skill at interviewing children spawned a mini-industry of books and a contemporary TV show. Now in his 80s, Linkletter can still be seen on the new "Kids Say the Darndest Things," but he spends the bulk of his time today as a motivational speaker and spokesman for senior issues.

Movie: The Firm

7 p.m. on USA

A Memphis, Tenn., law firm makes rookie attorney Mitch McDeere (Tom Cruise) an offer that seems too good to be true. That's because it's buying more than his legal expertise; his new colleagues are up to their eyebrows in mob business, and no one here gets out alive. Jeanne Tripplehorn, Gene Hackman and Ed Harris also star in this 1993 legal thriller based on a John Grisham novel.

Family Best Bets

Sunday

Movie: Superman

9 a.m. on AMC

You know the story: Little boy living on doomed planet is sent to Earth, where he's adopted by a farm couple and grows up to be a caped crimefighter with superhuman powers. This 1978 adaptation of the comic-book classic made Christopher Reeve a star and won a special Oscar for visual effects. 'PG'

Sunday

Brothers Garcia

7:30 p.m. on NICK

This new sitcom follows the Garcia family as it deals with life's trials and tribulations. Focusing on the perspective of Larry, the youngest of four children, the show depicts his family as a close unit that sticks together even when the siblings disagree. 'TV-Y'

Tuesday

Movie: Eight Is Enough: A Family Reunion

7 p.m. on NASH

Parents who grew up on the 1977-1981 series will enjoy watching this 1987 TV reunion movie with their children. Dick Van Patten, Grant Goodeve, Willie Aames, Dianne Kay, Adam Rich and Connie Needham are among the cast.

Friday

Backstreet Boys: Coming Home

2 p.m. on FAM

The five dreamboats who brought us "Quit Playing Games," "As Long as You Love Me," "Everybody and other pop hits take their show off the road to perform for a hometown crowd at Florida's Orlando Arena. The Boys are at their best in this two-hour special. 'TV-G'

Saturday's Best Bets

Major League Soccer

2:30 p.m. on ABC

Columbus Crew Stadium in Ohio plays host to Major League Soccer's annual halfway point. The MLS All-Star Game showcases the biggest names in the nation's most "heads-up" sport. Expected participants include Mamadou Diallo, Jason Kreis, Ante Razov, Dante Washington and Clint Mathis.

WNBA Basketball

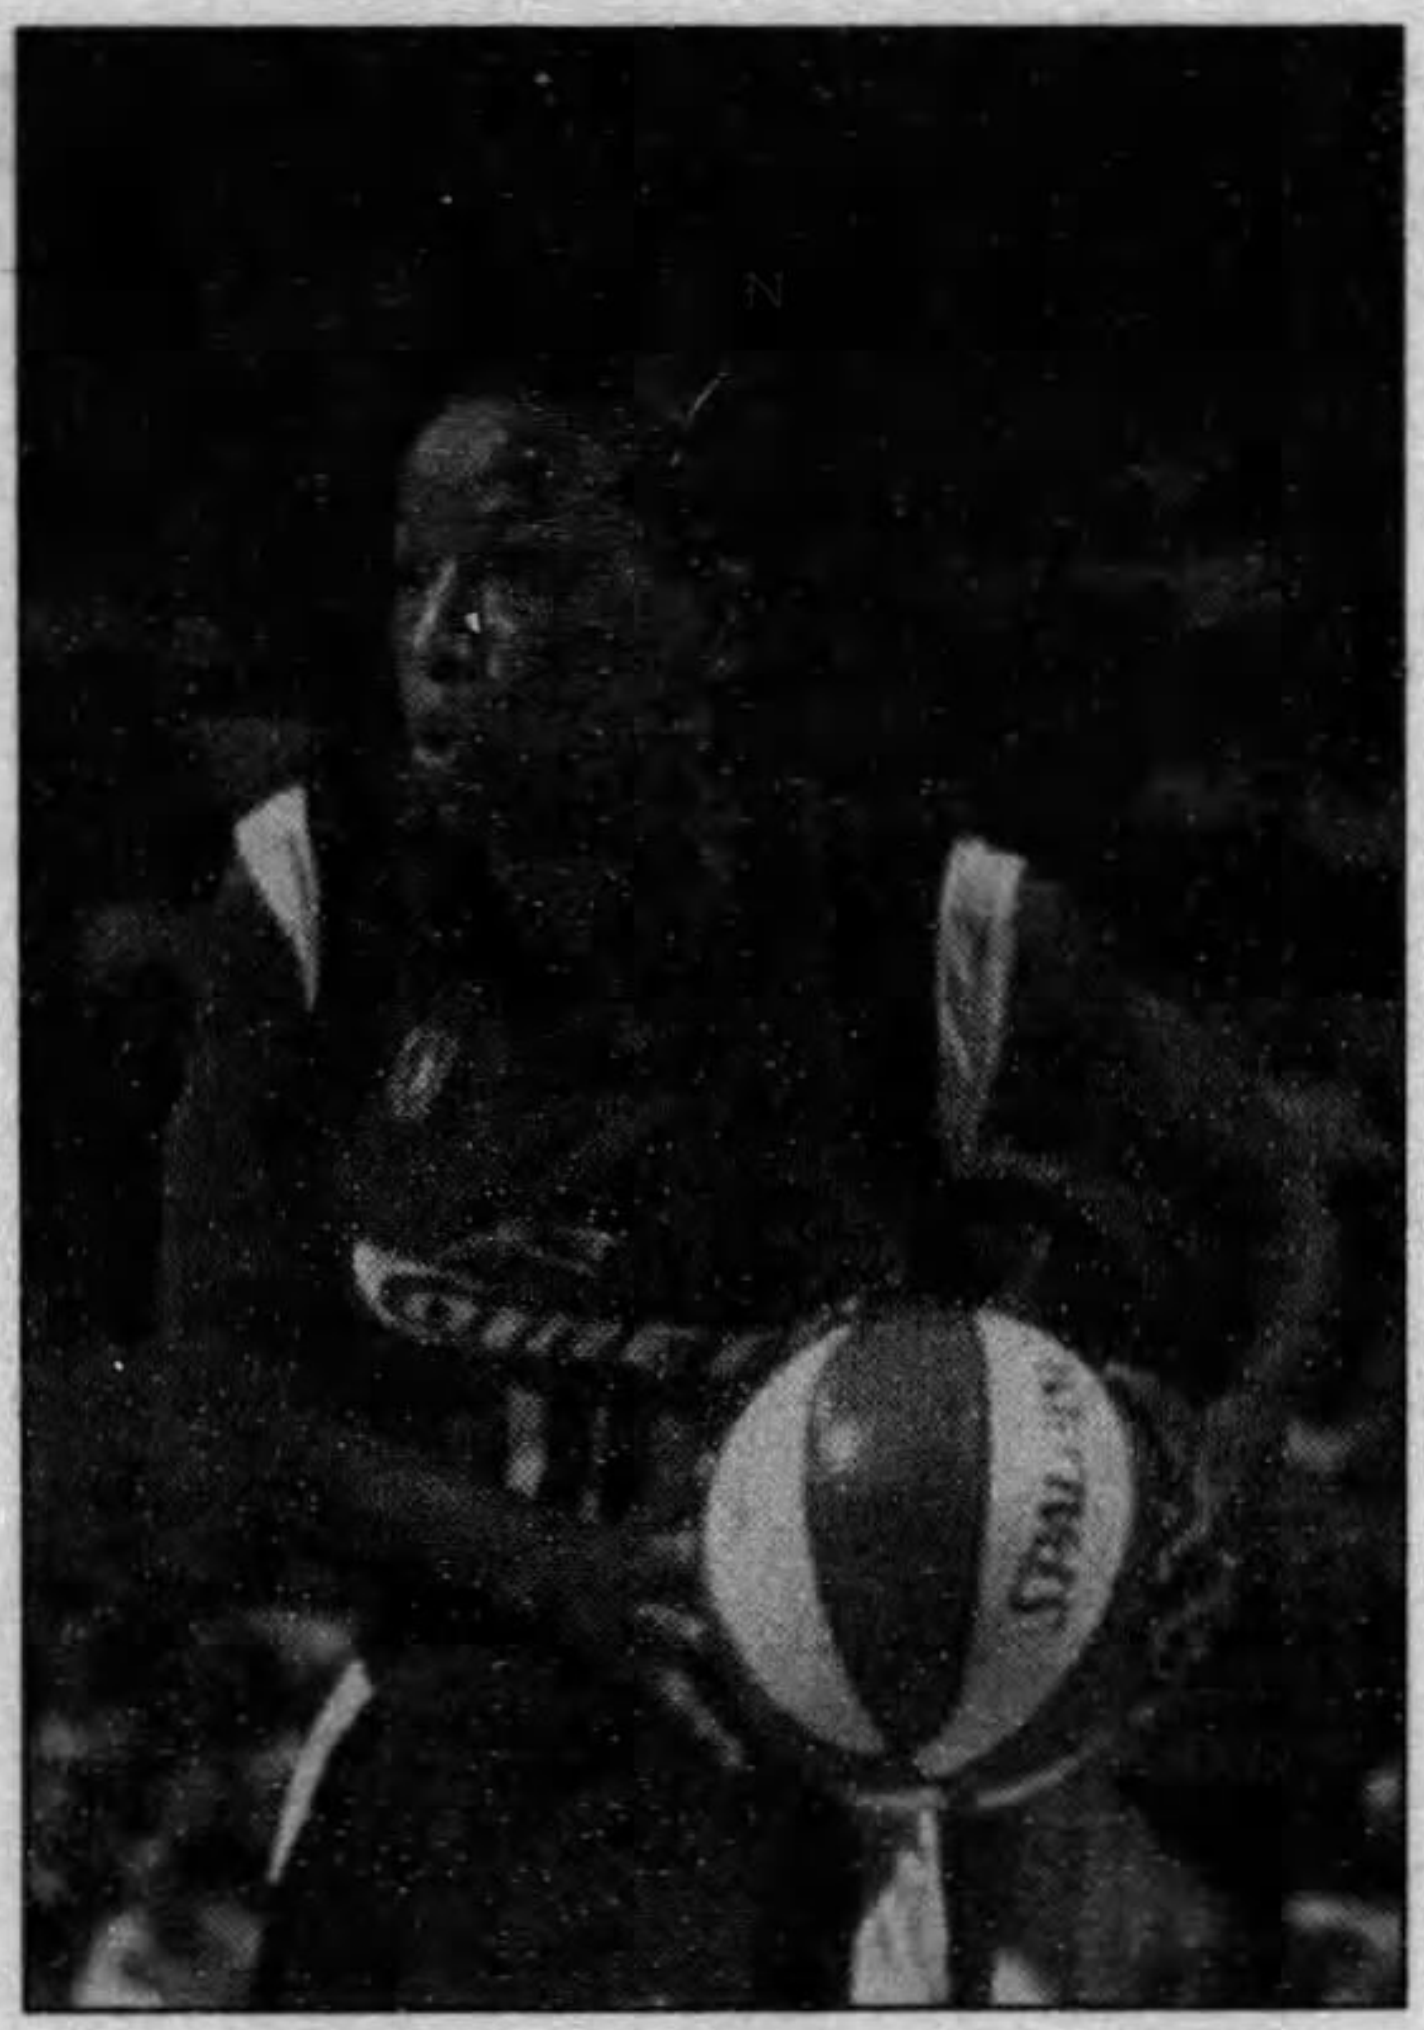
3 p.m. on NBC

The defending WNBA champion Houston Comets host the Los Angeles Sparks in a possible Western Conference playoff preview. From the Compaq Center in Houston, Sheryl Swoopes, Cynthia Cooper and Tina Thompson look to lead the Comets to an unprecedented fourth consecutive WNBA title, while Lisa Leslie hopes the Sparks can stay as hot as they were when they went on their big winning streak before the All-Star break.

Movie: Turner & Hooch

6:15 p.m. on HBO

A fastidious detective (Tom Hanks) and a sloppy, slobbering canine are the Felix and Oscar of this odd-couple comedy. The dog, whose owner was slain by a shady out-of-towner, helps his reluctant new buddy solve both the murder and the money-laundering plot that brought the killer to town. Turner, of course, learns to love Hooch despite all the drool; in fact, he does his share of drooling himself when he meets the local vet (Mare Winningham). Craig T. Nelson also stars.



Cynthia Cooper
WNBA BASKETBALL

Movie: Nick of Time

7 p.m. on ABC

In a departure from the oddball characters that have made him famous, this 1995 thriller casts Johnny Depp as an ordinary guy. But he does have an extraordinary problem: He's been pulled at random from a crowd and ordered to kill the governor. If the job isn't done in 90 minutes, his little daughter gets it. Marsha Mason and Roma Maffia also star, with Christopher Walken in one of those villainous roles he does so well.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

He's not the only clergyman who's gotten involved in politics in recent years, but he's been one of the most successful at it. Maybe it's his genes; his father was a senator. "Pat Robertson: Preaching Politics" looks at the televangelist whose Christian Broadcasting Network and its flagship news-talk show, "The 700 Club," helped raise the profile of the religious right and fuel the Reagan revolution.

PBS, CNN take up the slack as networks ease off conventions

By John Crook

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

Citing declining viewer interest, ABC, CBS and NBC have announced they are drastically scaling back coverage of the upcoming national Republican and Democratic conventions.

That's good news on one level for PBS and CNN, which become by default the networks of choice for more comprehensive convention coverage. But as they prepare for the Republican convention in Philadelphia, which takes place Monday through Thursday, July 31-Aug. 3, key anchors for both networks express dismay at this decision by the Big Three commercial networks.

"Elections are crucial to the political health of a nation, and the conventions are an essential part of that," says Judy Woodruff, who anchors CNN's "Election 2000" coverage with colleagues Bernard Shaw and Jeff Greenfield.

"I know the networks have an economic incentive to do what they are doing, but I'll be very candid: I don't think it is asking too much that every four years, for four days, for a few hours, the two major political parties ask the serious news outlets to put a convention on the air."

"I'm not saying they're wrong and I'm right," says a more circumspect Jim Lehrer, whose "NewsHour With Jim Lehrer" will take over PBS prime time during the two conventions. "But here is a situation where literally the most powerful man in the world is going to be elected by the voters of the United States.

"The average voter in this country ... has not paid that much attention to what is going on ... except for the political junkies watching debates late at night on cable. The majority of voters begin sorting through the process of deciding who these two men are and what they stand for during the conventions. So these are important events in the political process."

He adds that news teams should see viewer apathy as a challenge, not a deciding factor.

"The viewers aren't interested? Well, make them interested by presenting the stories in a way that will engage them. Nobody in his right mind can convince me that these conventions are not important," he says firmly.

"Why is it that so many young people are feeling disconnected to their government and the governmental process, and what are you going to do, Billy Bob Candidate, about that? I'd like to know the answer to that, and I think we really need to be talking about things like that."

Like Lehrer, Woodruff thinks the widely perceived conventional wisdom that viewers don't care is diverting attention from some very substantive issues.

"During the primaries, their opponents were calling (probable party nominees George W. Bush and Al Gore) 'Gush and Bore' and saying there was no discernible difference between them, but ... only rarely are you going to have some character who is off the charts seriously running for president.

"But if people think there is no difference between these two candidates, they need to take a more serious look. Think about the Supreme Court nominations, and that recent very close ruling on partial-birth abortions. Whether (the next president) is Gore or Bush, whatever your views are, you are going to have a very different-looking Supreme Court, most likely, over the next four years.

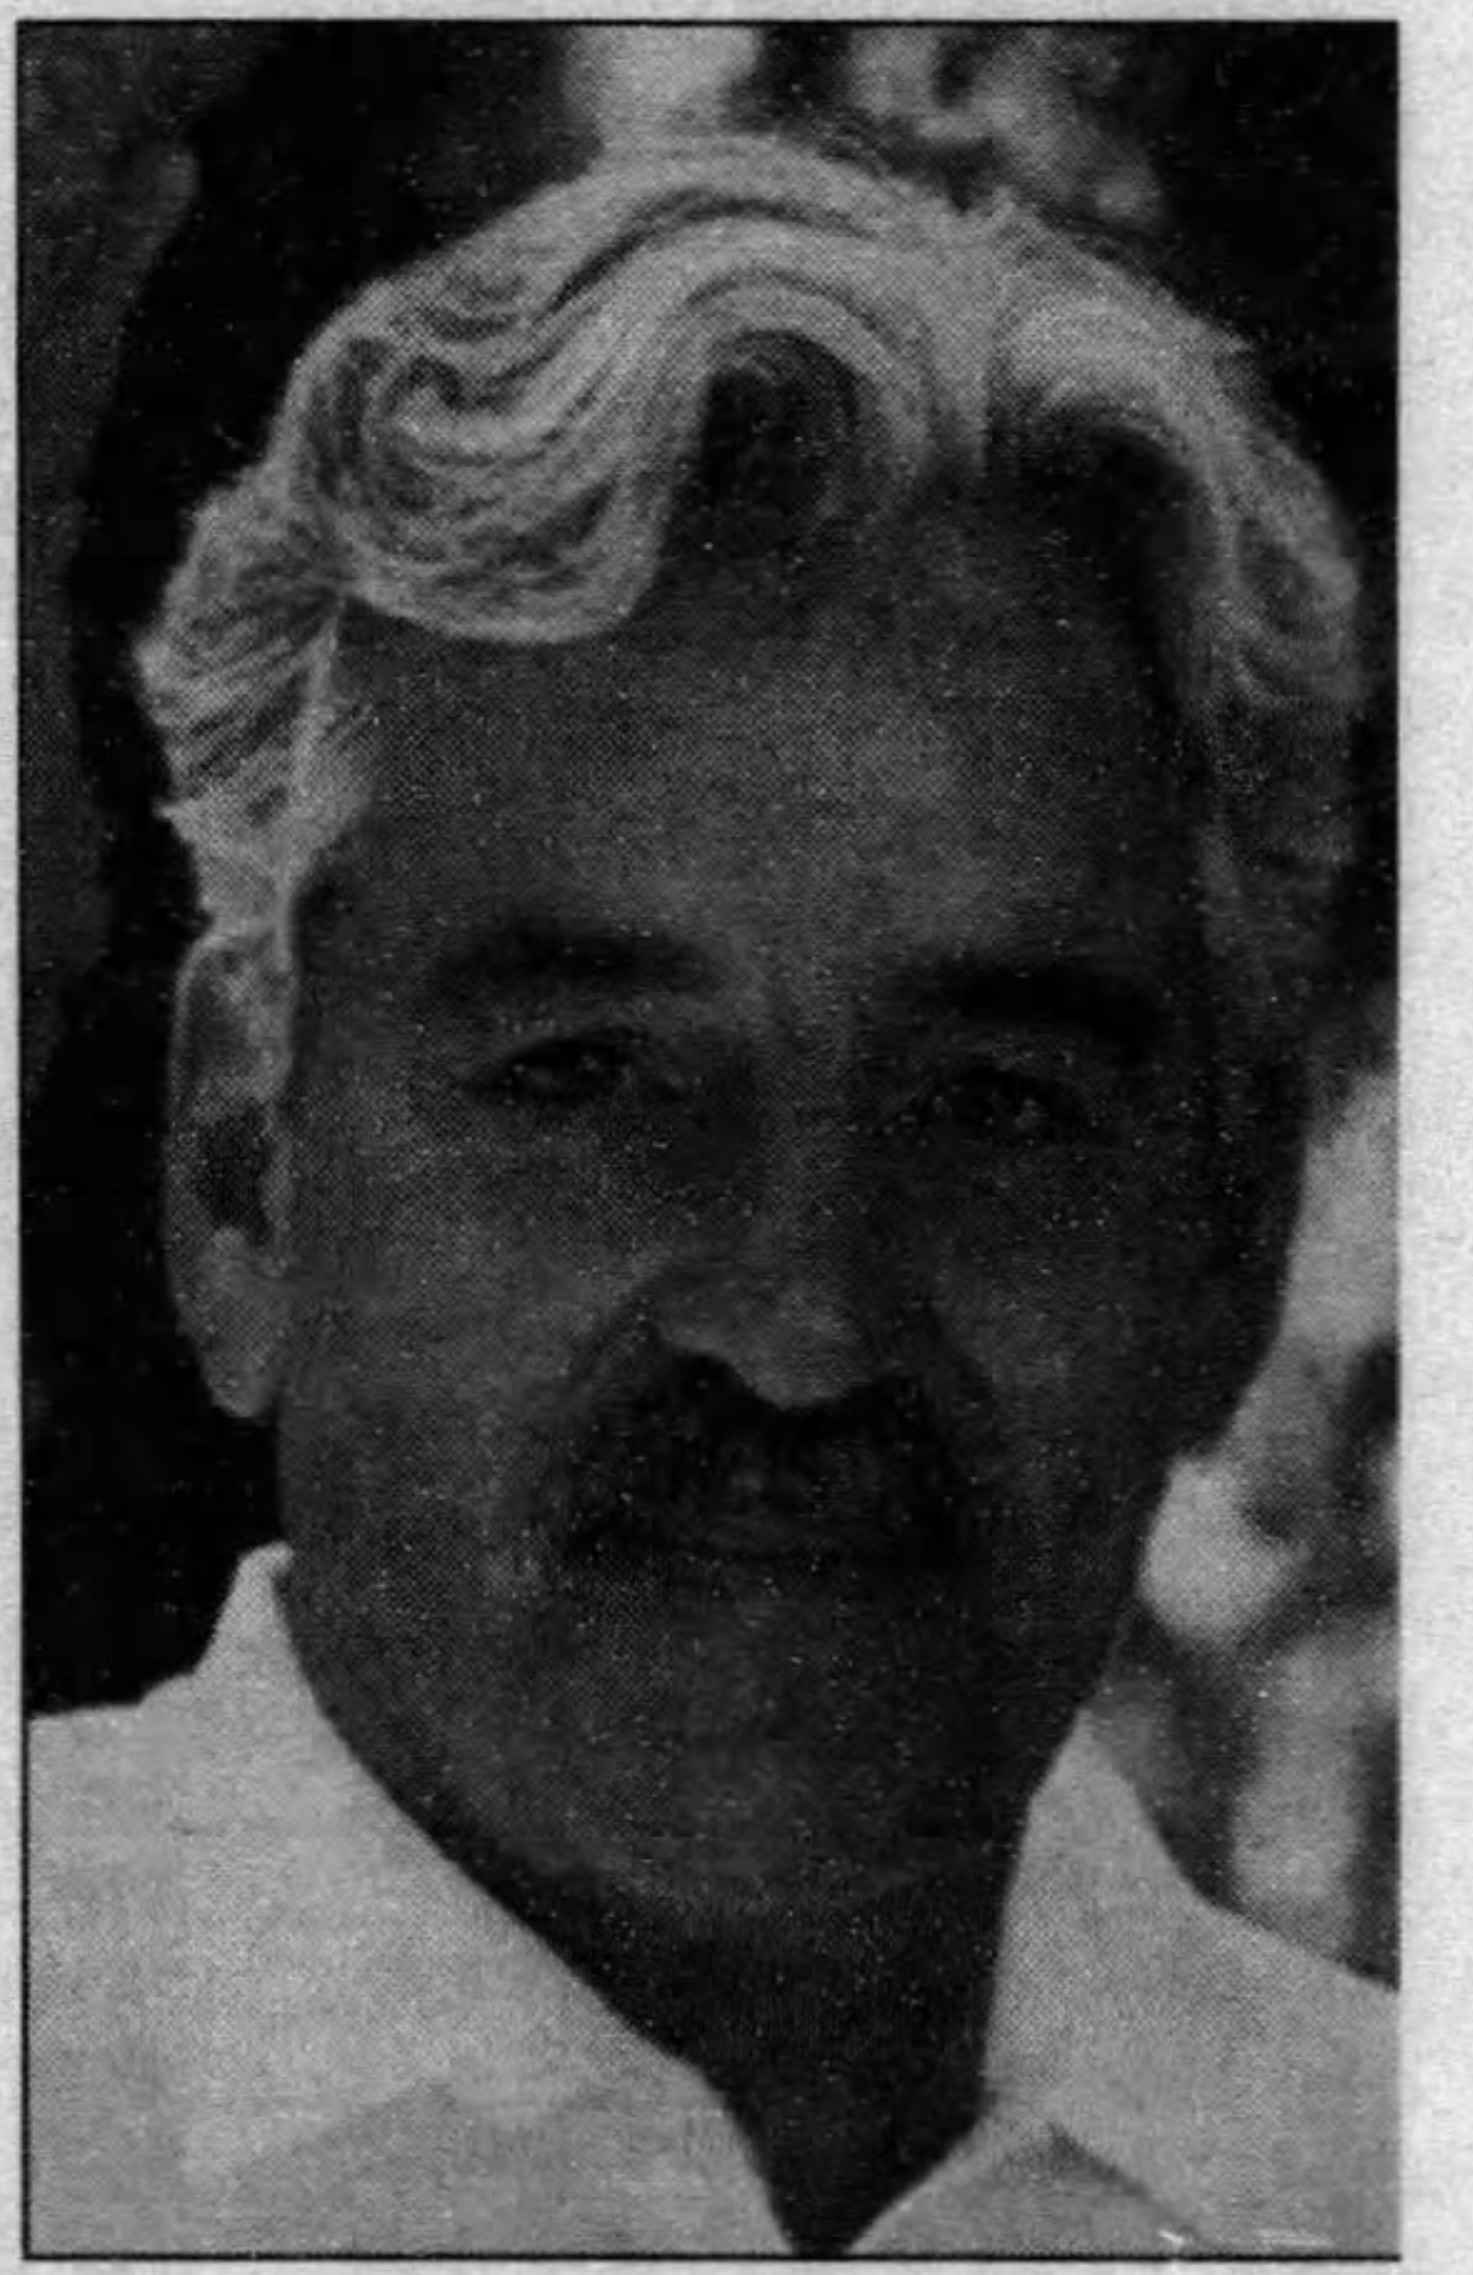
Did Dennis Farina play a Las Vegas cop?



Dennis Farina
CRIME STORY

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

Who is the woman in the Columbia Pictures logo? Did Dennis Farina ever star in a "cop" show based in Las Vegas? -John Eaton via e-mail.

You may have heard, as I have, that opera star Grace Moore modeled for Columbia's lady with the torch. But here's what Turner Classic Movies host Robert Osborne tells me:

"There were several ladies who were the models for the Columbia torch lady; she changed her facial appearance over the years. None of them, however, was Grace Moore, a confusion that probably started because Grace Moore had her great movie successes at Columbia.

As for Farina, perhaps you are thinking of his work in "Crime Story," a 1986-88 NBC series that began in Chicago but later moved its story line to Las Vegas.

Is Charles Nelson Reilly still alive? If so, what is he doing? -Peggy Hall, Monroe, Ga.

Reilly, 69, is in demand as a voice actor for animated projects as well as for TV guest appearances. In addition to a hilarious 1996 appearance on "The X-Files," he was nominated twice for Emmys for guest work on "Millennium" and "The Drew Carey Show."

The Broadway musical veteran is highly regarded as a theater director and acting coach. He stars with his close friend Julie Harris in a recent family film called "The First of May."

Please help me remember the name of the series starring Desi Arnaz Jr. as a police officer who was aided by a computer-generated superhero who jumped right off the computer screen. -D.P., Decatur, Ill.

"Automan," which ran for less than four months on ABC during the 1983-84 season, starred Arnaz as police computer expert Walter Nebicher, who accidentally created a computerized alter ego called Automan (Chuck Wagner), a handsome crimefighter. Robert Lansing played Walter's friend, Lt. Jack Curtis.

Sunday's Best Bets

Great Outdoor Games

6:30 a.m. on ESPN2

Leaving no stone unturned in support of its self-proclaimed status as the worldwide leader in sports, ESPN presents the "Great Outdoor Games" from Lake Placid, N.Y. Similar to its production of the X Games, the network created and organized the "Olympic-style" event, calling on more than 200 of the world's best competitors in various outdoor sports. A variety of commentators team up with host Mark Malone to call the action in four categories: fishing, timber events, sporting dogs and target sports.

The Huntress Arrives: The Dot and Brandi Thorson Story

7 p.m. on USA

The two women whose story inspired the new USA series "The Huntress" are profiled in this new special. Dot and Brandi Thorson are the widow and daughter, respectively, of legendary bounty hunter Ralph "Papa" Thorson, who inspired the Steve McQueen movie "The Hunter." They took over Papa's crook-chasing gig after he was killed by a car bomb. The special interviews the real Dot and Brandi, along with a sampling of people they've worked with and the criminals they've caught.

Sylvester Stallone
DEMOLITION MAN

Major League Baseball

7 p.m. on ESPN

Surprise, surprise! Back in the spring, not many prognosticators lauded the potential feats of the Chicago White Sox and Anaheim Angels. Four months later, fans in both cities have reason to check the standings each morning.

Movie: Demolition Man

8 p.m. on NBC

A crime-free but oppressive 21st-century society is rocked when a cryogenically frozen prisoner from the past is thawed out. The only man who can stop his violent rampage is a wrongfully convicted inmate from the same deep freeze who happens to be a cop. Sylvester Stallone and Wesley Snipes play the good and bad guys, respectively, in this imaginative 1993 adventure.

The X-Files

8 p.m. on FOX

Despite being under FBI protection, a tobacco company scientist (Rick Deats) dies a horrendous death the night before he's scheduled to reveal his employer's secrets in court. But Mulder and Scully (David Duchovny, Gillian Anderson) soon discover that his untimely demise is not your run-of-the-mill attempt to silence a whistle-blower.

Jones rallies against cancer

By Lorri Antosz Benson

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Jenny Jones is spending the summer in her home away from home, Los Angeles. Before she left Chicago for the hiatus from her daily talk show grind, Jones made a grand gesture. As an active advocate for the fight against breast cancer, Jones has devoted time, money and segments of her show to raise awareness of this issue.

Her most recent contribution was a mobile mammography motor coach, valued at $400,000, to Cook County Hospital.

"Mammography is the best-known method of early detection," Jones says, "and this new vehicle will make it possible to provide screenings and breast health awareness to thousands of women throughout Cook County."

That same day, Jones decided to make a surprise appearance at "WGN Morning News" to goof around with the crew. Her shenanigans included knocking down posters of Sally Jessy Raphael and Maury Povich and replacing them with her own supersized picture.

Talk the Talk

Jones is gearing up for a big year that marks her show's 10th season. Already the anniversary shows — favorite moments, favorite guests, etc. — are in the works.

It's a sure bet that there will be lots of celebrating this fall, both for the anniversary season and the success of her Website, www.jennyjones.com. It has taken off, garnering upwards of 3.5 million page views a month!

This fall, look for a new look that will include hilarious e-greeting cards.

Last month, Joy Behar, comic and co-host of the Emmy-winning chatfest "The View," was the recipient of the Public Advocate for the City of New York's Special Advocate Award.

She was honored at the seventh annual Lesbian and Gay Pride Awards ceremony at City Hall because of her "outstanding friendship to the gay community."

The next day, Behar showed she hadn't let all that praise go to her head. She revealed her backside during the "Hot Topics" segment of her show, prompting fellow comic and guest Richard Jeni to remark, "Barbara Walters didn't get to where she is today by flashing her ass to the audience."

Monday's Best Bets

NFL Preseason Football

6 p.m. on ABC

Are you ready for some football? Believe it or not, the NFL is back with the first week of preseason games, beginning with the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio, between the New England Patriots and the San Francisco 49ers. In attendance will be former 49ers Ronnie Lott, Joe Montana and Dave Wilcox, who were inducted into the Hall of Fame on Saturday, along with Howie Long and Dan Rooney. This is the first of 11 nationally televised preseason games, leading up to the season's start in early September. Niners running back Charlie Garner and his teammates are hoping for a repeat of the last San Francisco-New England matchup in Canton, in 1973, when the 49ers whipped the Patriots 20-7.

Who Wants to Be President?

6 p.m. on TLC

Kevin Rafferty brings his off-the-wall filmmaking style to an off-the-wall part of presidential politics: the New Hampshire primary campaign. Footage from debates, meet-and-greet sessions, rallies and photo ops in the Granite State captures the candidates doing whatever it takes to get their mugs on the news and the voters on their side, whether it's riding a snowmobile or going to hear the music group Rage Against the Machine.

Rae Dawn Chong and Adrian Pasdar
MYSTERIOUS WAYS

Mysterious Ways

7 p.m. on NBC

Declan and Peggy's (Adrian Pasdar, Rae Dawn Chong) usual approach to a case is to investigate alleged miracles after they happen. In "The Gray Lady," they have a chance to see one unfold. A dying man has promised his wife he'll get in touch with her exactly a year after his death to prove there's a hereafter.

Biography Close-Up: You Want to Bet?

7 p.m. on A&E

In the past three decades, gambling has come out of the closet, with legal games — state lotteries, government-sanctioned casinos — giving illegal betting rackets a run for their money. Host Harry Smith visits with a variety of people on all sides of the game, from soul singer and recovering gambling addict Gladys Knight to a female poker champ to a mob bookie who now risks his life to speak out against it.

Law & Order

8 p.m. on NBC

When a judge (Lindsay Crouse) is shot and critically wounded in a carjacking, the evidence points to a murder-for-hire scheme engineered by her husband (guest star John Heard). But she insists he's innocent and wants to testify in his defense, which would deal a fatal blow to McCoy's (Sam Waterston) case. But the issue could be moot, as she's also asking to be allowed to die.

Tuesday's Best Bets

Drinking Apart: Families Under the Influence

7 p.m. on HBO

Addiction is a family disease. It's a cliche, but it became one because it's true. When someone is addicted to alcohol or drugs, everyone close to him is affected. And when the addict begins to recover, the family needs to do the same.

Frasier

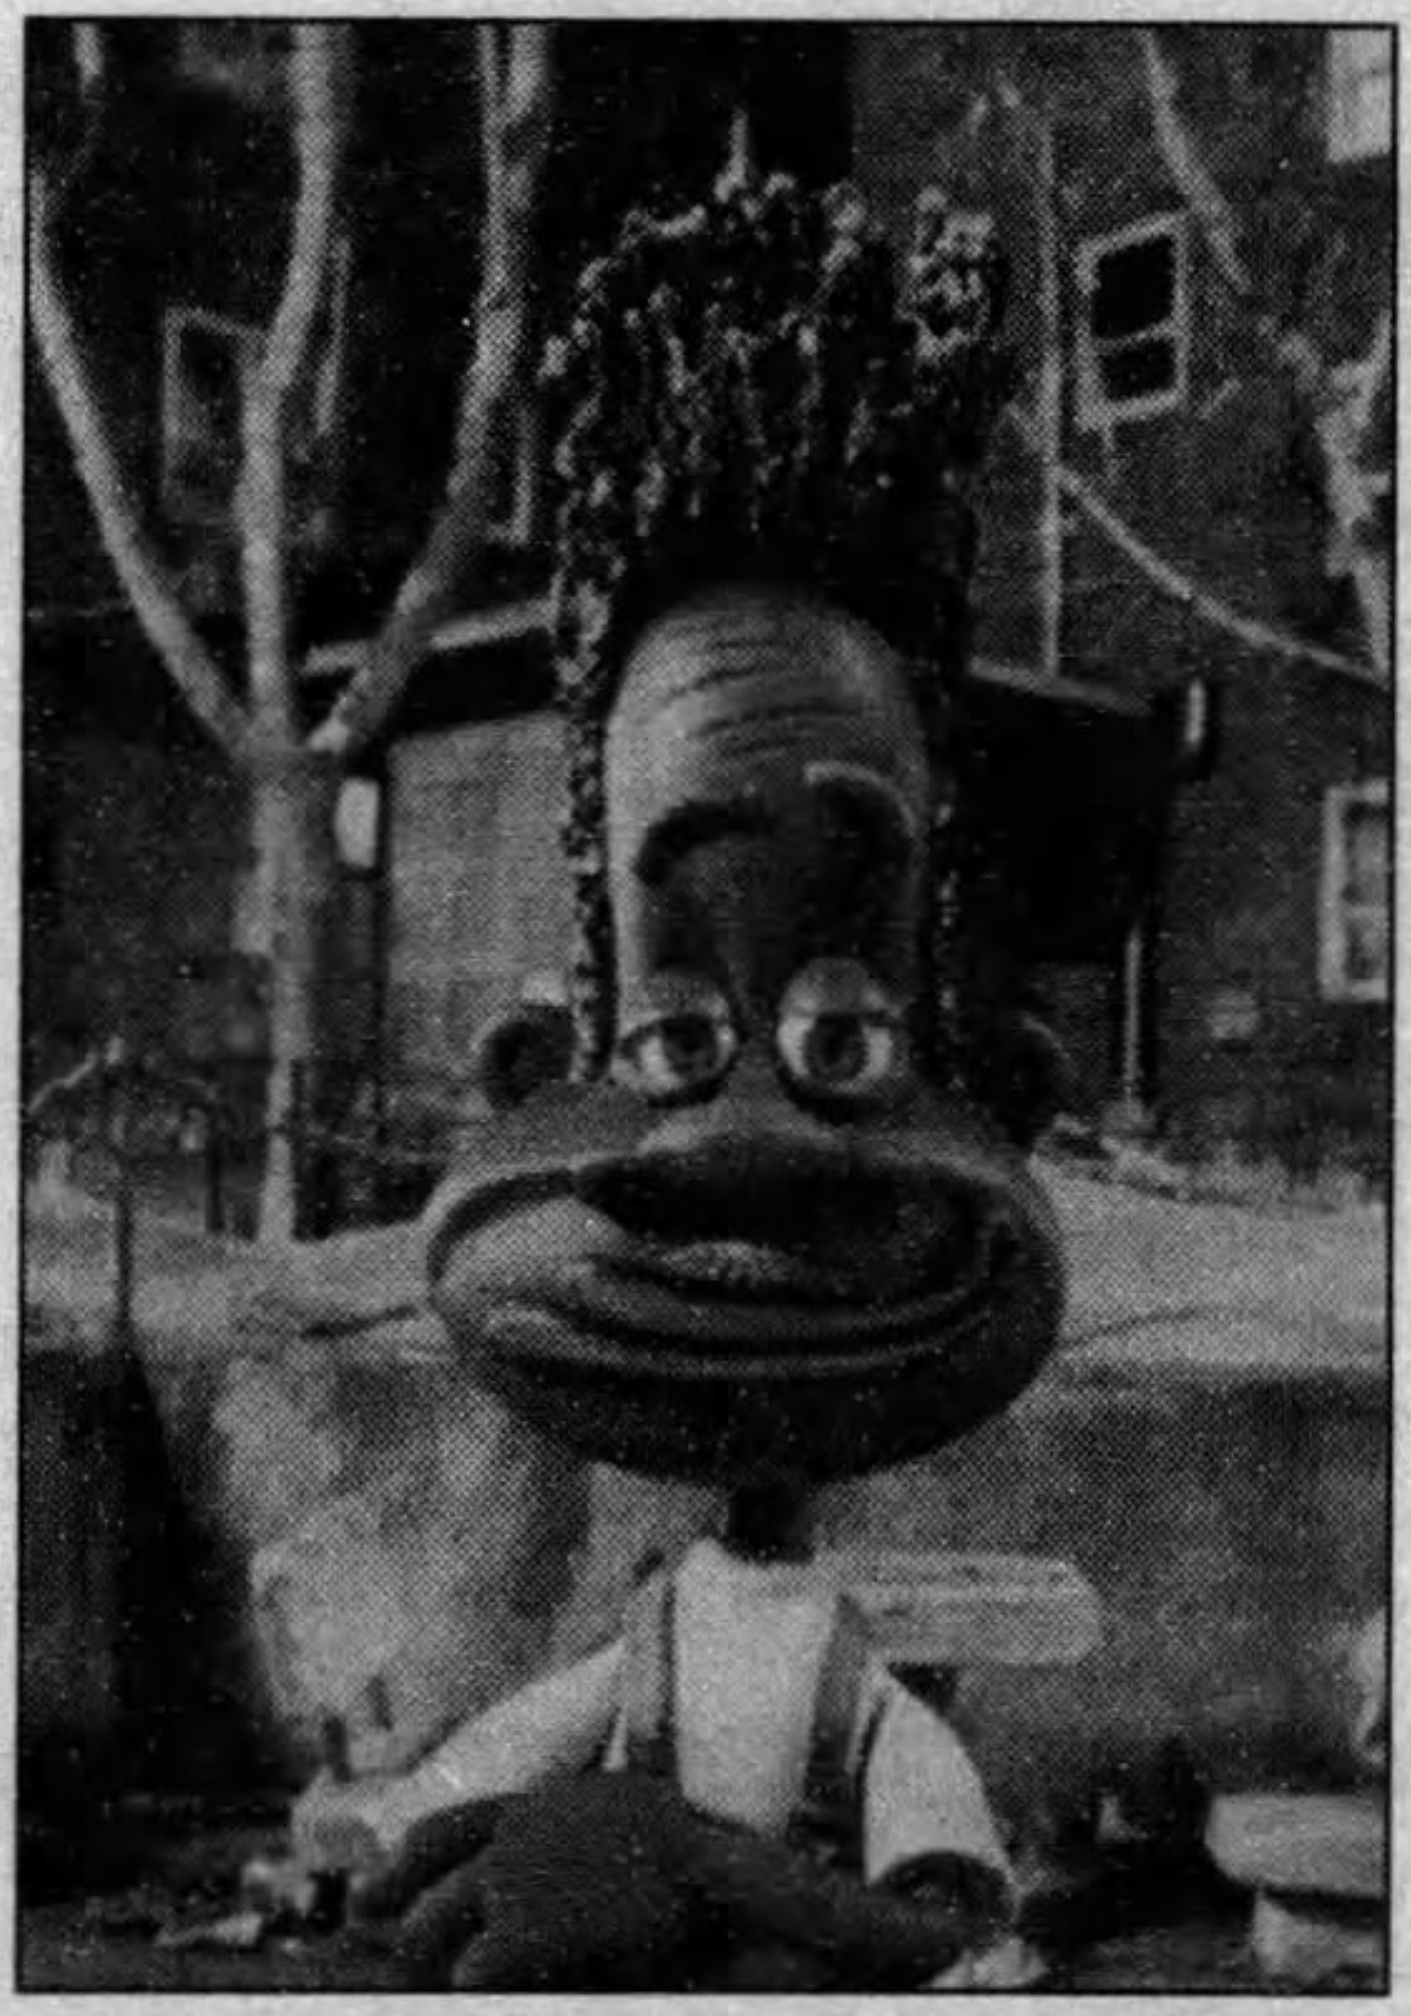
8 p.m. on NBC

Frasier (Kelsey Grammer) reaches out to listener-land to find someone to fill in for the vacationing Roz. Along comes Mary (guest star Kim Coles, "Living Single"), who doesn't know much about radio production but is great at giving advice. Soon she's calling herself Dr. Mary and upstaging Dr. Crane, who'd love to get rid of her but fears the ramifications of firing a black woman. David Hyde Pierce also stars in "Something About Dr. Mary."

Movie: Gentlemen Prefer Blondes

8:15 p.m. on AMC

This acknowledged classic from 1953 stars Marilyn Monroe and Jane Russell as two showgirls who land in the middle of a blackmailing scheme after making some unwise choices in men during a voyage to Paris. A highlight is Monroe's unforgettable rendition of "Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend." Elliott Reid, Tommy Noonan, Charles Coburn and George Winslow also star. A sequel, "Gentlemen Marry Brunettes," starring Jeanne Crain, did not experience the same success.



Thurgood
THE PJS

Two Guys and a Girl

8:30 p.m. on ABC

At an auction, the competition is supposed to be between bidders, not pieces of merchandise. Tell that to Berg (Ryan Reynolds), who jumps at the chance to take part in the charity bachelor auction that Sharon (Traylor Howard) is organizing for the hospital. You see, Ashley's (Suzanne Cryer) new guy, Red Sox shortstop Nomar Garciaparra, is up for sale, and Berg sees the event as a perfect opportunity to show her who's the better man. Richard Ruccolo also stars in "A Rookie Script."

The PJs

8:30 p.m. on FOX

Thurgood (voice of Eddie Murphy) leads a break-in at the HUD office to get a water filter for the projects after the agency turns down his request for one. But they're quickly distracted from their intended quarry by a finer find: a stash of top-of-the-line toilet paper. Loretta Devine and Ja'net DuBois also provide voices in "Robbin HUD."

Wednesday's Best Bets

ovie: Die Hard

45 p.m. on MAX

New York cop John McClane ruce Willis) flies to Los Angeles surprise his estranged wife (Bon- e Bedelia) at her office Christmas rty. But he's not the only crasher this affair; shortly after his ar- val, a band of terrorists invades d takes the employees hostage. ow it's the bad guys' turn to be rprised when McClane shows his ell-developed skill at kicking butt.

he Drew Carey how

p.m. on ABC

Drew and Kate's (Drew Carey, hrista Miller) budding romance hits a trouble spot when an old girlfriend (guest star Claire Rankin) reenters the picture as Drew's assistant at work. He's convinced the woman no longer has any romantic designs on him, but Kate isn't so sure. Ryan Stiles, Diedrich Bader and Kathy Kinney also star in "I Dishonestly Love You."

American High

8 p.m. on FOX

Producer R.J. Cutler doesn't need a tropical island or a specially wired house for his reality series; all he needs is a plain old high school. "F Is for Fun" introduces the protagonists: 12 seniors confronting the big issues of adolescence. Most of us haven't had to deal with rats for dinner or TV cameras in the bathroom, but we can all relate to proms, parents and peer pressure, so this latest entry in the reality sweeps should strike a chord with viewers.

THE DREW CAREY SHOW

Young Americans

8 p.m. on WB

In "Cinderbella," Will asks Bella to the school's summer cotillion after his first choice, Caroline, is spoken for. Suffice to say that on the big night, these two don't have eyes only for each other.

Spin City

8:30 p.m. on ABC

In "The Pig Whisperer," Mike (Michael J. Fox) makes a deal with a group of farmers who are upset with a new mayoral proposal. The issue will be decided based on which side has the better man in a pig competition.

Investigative Reports

9 p.m. on A&E

Ten percent of America's prison inmates, many of them teen-agers, are serving their time in isolation cells, where they stay 23 hours out of each day. Is this an effective punishment, or simply a way to keep troublesome prisoners out of everyone's hair? "Solitary Confinement" visits two ultrahigh-tech facilities called Supermax prisons to investigate the practice and gather input from mental-health experts, prison officials, inmates and others.

Thursday's Best Bets

Friends

7 p.m. on NBC

The sibling rivalry between Rachel and younger sister Jill (Jennifer Aniston, guest star Reese Witherspoon) escalates after Rachel makes Ross (David Schwimmer) call off his date with Sis and then tells her about it. Monica and Joey (Courteney Cox Arquette, Matt LeBlanc) are floored by the revelation that Chandler (Matthew Perry) hasn't shed any tears in years. Lisa Kudrow also stars in "The One Where Chandler Can't Cry."

Movie: Set It Off

7 p.m. on FOX

"Waiting to Exhale" meets "Dead Presidents" in this 1996 tale of four struggling women who take up bank robbery for quick cash and a little revenge on the system that's kept them down. The first heist goes smoothly, but it's all downhill from there. Queen Latifah, Jada Pinkett, Vivica A. Fox, Kimberly Elise and Blair Underwood star.

Charmed

7 p.m. on WB

A mysterious female assassin is trying to rub out the Halliwell sisters, so Prue (Shannen Doherty) takes on the woman's identity in an effort to track down the person who hired her. Her investigation brings her into contact with a dangerous but dashing criminal (Antonio Sabato Jr.) and ultimately, an even more dangerous dude: the girls' old demon nemesis, Barbas (Billy Drago).

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Tim Conway: Just Clowning Around" profiles the veteran comic-actor who's been making us laugh since 1961. That's when he made his network debut with Steve Allen, who heard about the then-local TV comic from Rose Marie ("The Dick Van Dyke Show"). From there, Conway went on to play Ensign Parker in "McHale's Navy," a variety of unforgettable characters on "The Carol Burnett Show" and the title character in a string of goofy "Dorf" sports spoofs. Burnett, Allen, "McHale's" star Ernest Borgnine and others talk about their comical colleague.

Will & Grace

8 p.m. on NBC

In last season's opener, "Guess Who's Not Coming to Dinner," Grace (Debra Messing) takes the big step into her own place and throws a party all by herself, but it's just not the same without Will (Eric McCormack). Green-card groom Jack (Sean Hayes) makes his own move, joining his new bride, Rosario (guest star Shelley Morrison), in the maid's quarters at Karen's (Megan Mullally) penthouse.

Friday's Best Bets

abrina, the Teenage Vitch

p.m. on ABC

Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart), chafng under the house rules, is transorted to a Wild West town and apointed sheriff. Her first official act s to suspend all laws, a move she oon has cause to regret when a paricularly annoying bad guy gets on er case. Beth Broderick, Caroline Rhea and Nate Richert also star in The Wild, Wild Witch."

The 10th Kingdom

p.m. on NBC

A magic mirror and a prince in log's clothing transport a father and laughter (John Larroquette, Kimberly Williams) to a fairy-tale world where the characters are straight out of storybooks but the dangers are real: a Machiavellian queen and her huntsman (Dianne Wiest, Rutger Hauer) and a troll king (Ed O'Neill) to name a few. But the visitors get a little help from new friends: a kindly half man, half wolf (Scott Cohen) and Snow White herself (Camryn Manheim). Ann-Margret and Dawnn Lewis also star in this ambitious four-part miniseries, which continues Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Kimberly Williams
THE 10TH KINGDOM

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"The Queen Mother" looks back on the long and eventful life of the British royal family's grande dame, born Elizabeth Bowes Lyon 100 years ago. During World War I, she nursed the wounded. During World War II, she nursed a nation, offering moral support to victims of the Blitz and to her husband, the reluctant monarch George VI. Today the mother of Queen Elizabeth II is grandmother to a nation, loved by the most jaded of royal-watchers.

Movie: Lethal Weapon

7 p.m. on HBO

Danny Glover and Mel Gibson are pure magic as mismatched police partners in this 1987 action drama, which was followed by three (so far) sequels. Glover's Murtaugh is 50 and ready to slow down; Gibson's Riggs is all wound up and not afraid to die. A prostitute's death leads them to a drug ring with ties to Vietnam, site of the war that's one of the few things our heroes have in common. Gary Busey also stars.

Making the Band

8:30 p.m. on ABC

O-Town has some special guests along on its first press tour: the three finalists (Bryan Chan, Michael Miller, Paul Martin) who didn't make the band. It's a little awkward for them, watching the quintet soak up all that new stardom, but it may be fortuitous that they've come along, as one of the band members has decided to drop out. Ashley Parker Angel and Erik-Michael Estrada also star.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Mata Hari: Unveiling the Myth" remembers the woman who made a career of pretending to be something she wasn't. She had all of Paris believing she was a temple dancer from India when she was actually Dutch. Soon, in need of money, she had parlayed her talent into treachery, spying for both France and Germany during the First World War and, when caught, gamely facing the firing squad with no blindfold. The profile seeks to ferret out the real woman behind all the legends through interviews with scholars and relatives.

America's Most Wanted: America Fights Back

8 p.m. on FOX

Twenty-four-year-old Jamie Bowie was driving from Oklahoma to Los Angeles to start a new job when her car broke down in Arizona. She got some help and continued on to California, but just over the state line, she disappeared. Her car was found — with a new paint job and some other major modifications — but she never was. And the state of her little Volkswagen isn't the only thing that's weird about this mysterious case, which host John Walsh gives the entire hour in the hope that someone out there has a clue.

Movie: Trekkies

9:45 p.m. on TMC

What drives so many people to construct their lives around a fictional universe? Filmmaker Roger Nygard doesn't try to answer that question in his 1997 documentary about hard-core "Star Trek" fans; he just shows us the bizarre lengths to which some of them go. You'll meet a dentist in Florida whose entire office has a "Trek" theme; a woman who wears her Starfleet uniform everywhere, even to jury duty; and a fan who's legally changed his name to James T. Kirk. Cast members from the various series and movies offer their take on the fan phenomenon and share some touching stories of fan encounters.

Movie: Quarantine

10:30 p.m. on ABC

The whole world is in jeopardy when terrorists get hold of a deadly virus. While his scientific team is searching for a cure, the president of the United States (Harry Hamlin) isolates himself on an island so he can continue doing his job in safety. But soon his party is crashed by a planeload of children accompanied by one of his aides and one of the terrorists. Nastassja Kinski also stars in this new suspense drama from veteran TV-movie director Chuck Bowman.
